Enough to Make a Cat Laugh

A Reply Unkind

Pat and Mike, who were neighbors in the "Ould Country," happened to "retire" from public gaze about the same time. Pat had stolen a watch from a blind man; while Mike mistook a friend's cow for his own and sold it.

As luck would have it, they were drafted to the same prison, and at church parade on the first Sunday they had a chance for a moment's forbidden conversation. Said Mike:

Top av the mornin' to you, Pat, an' pwhat might the toime be? Sure, an' 'tis you that knows all about watches!"

But Pat was not to be done. "Mike, me lad," he replied, "begorra, an' 'tis just about milkin' time!"

To the Letter

Above the great editor's desk appeared the motto: "Be accurate"—a motto that was hammered into every member of the staff with painful insistence.

One day Sam, the latest cub reporter, sent in a news paragraph containing the following mysterious statement:

"Three hundred and ninety-nine eyes were fixed upon the speaker."

The delinquent was haled before his chief.

"Young man," demanded the editor sternly, "what is the meaning of this ridiculous statement?"

The cub was not abashed, and answered quickly:

"Sir," said he, "an old man in the audience was blind in one eye!"

Doctor—"Oh, nothing, but the chickenpox, I guess."

Rastus (getting nervous)—"I 'clare on mah honah, doctor, I ain't been rowhar I could ketch dat!"

Big Ben

To wake up on the installment plan

Big Ben gets you up on the installment plan, a little at a time, by ringing every other half minute for ten minutes, so you'll wake up gradually. Or he'll do the whole job all at once, with one long, straight, five-minute ring.

You can set him to do it as you choose, and shut him off short in the middle of his call either way.

That makes him your good clock in one, to suit everybody's taste in early rising.

He plays no pranks. He won't go off before it's time and rob you of your full measure of sleep. He won't go off behind time and rob you of your work time. It's Big Ben's business to run on time, to ring on time and stay on time.

Big Ben attends to his own business and helps you attend to yours by getting you up and the farm hands out early.

Then he sticks around the house and keeps time all day for the women folks so they can have your meals on time.

There never was a clock that fitted in better with farm work.

He's triple-nickel plated and so handsome you'll want to keep him in the parlor instead of a bedroom.

Stands seven inches tall from the top of his head to the tip of his toes; has big, easy-winding keys, large hands, and big figures that you can read at a distance on dark mornings, and is built of good implement steel so he'll last for years. He's doing this kind of work in 1,000,000 American homes today.

Six thousand Canadian dealers sell him—his price is $1.00 anywhere. A community of clock-makers stand back of him. Their imprint, "Made in La Salle, Illinois, U.S.A., by Wesson," is the best alarm-clock insurance you can buy.
