After Mass an address was presented to His Excellency. It was read by Very Rev. Mgr. Connoily, v. G., and was as follows:

To His Excellency the Most Reverend Diomedo Falconio. Archbishop of Larissa, Apostolic Delegate:

Your Excellency—To the chorus of welcome with which, during the last two weeks, our Metropolitan See of Halifax and the Episcopal Sees of Antigenish and Chariottetewn have been greeting your advent to the Maratime Provinces, this diocesse of St. John would to day add its voice. In the acclaim of brotherly emulation we unite with them doing honor to the representative of Rome. We regret that physical infirmities prevent our beloved Bishop from welcoming in person his illustrious guest. In his name, however, and in the name of the reverend clergy, the religious communities, and the faithful laity of the diocese, we extend to Your Excellency a cordail welcome to St. John. The thought that in greeting you ware giving direct expression to the sentiments of love, devotion and obedience which we entertain for our Holy Father Leo XIII. makes your visit a source of intense satisfaction to us all. In no Christian land can be found a people tertain for our Holy Father Leo XIII. makes your visit a source of intense satisfaction to us all. In no Christian land can be found a people more faithful to the See of Peter than the Gatholics of New Brunswick. Bound by leving ties of civil allegiance to Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, we still acknowledge a loyalty of another sort, trenching in no respect on our civil allegiance, but sanctifying and perpetuating it. This is our leyalty to Christ in the erson of His Vicar on earth. In this double allegiance there is no disleyalty either to Queen or Pope.

son of His Vicar on earth. In this double allegiance there is no disloyally either to Queen or Pope.

Recognizing in Your Excellency, then the representative of the Supreme Pontiff we had with joy and gladness, your advent among us, and best to assure you of our personal respect for your own exalted que vities of cheracter and our loyal co-operation. It you in the discharge of the duties of y right office. In your appointment as $25 tolle Delegate to Canada we porceive the fax—eaching solicitude of the Vicar of Christ; we feel that his father ly love extends to us; and that Canada, quality with countries of greater population. Is the object of his all-embracing provision. We hope and pray that your high and hely mission may always find a congenial and responsive spirit.

For our part we are pleased to assure you that to this diocese, and throughout the Province of New Brunswick, although we are in a minority, our citil and religious rights as citizens and Catholics are recognized and responsive within the word of the time of the specied; that the this discusse rights as citizens and Catholics are recognized and responsive within the books of charity with specied; that harmony reigns over our relations with our fellow citizens, and that the priests, united in the bonds of charity with their revered Bishop, enjoy the confidence and obtain the generous support of the laity in every good work. Your Excellency will, we trust have an opportunity durinx your visit to see for yourself the material evidence of reliatious prosperity which the Catholic charitable and religious foundations and institutions of this city offer. The most of them owe their incertion, as they owe their successful issue, to our good Bishop.

We hope that Your Excellency will prolong your stay among us. Ours is an ideal summer climate, refreshing and invigoratins, and a few days spent in St. John at this season are usually well spent. We shall long cherish the remembrance of your visit, and we hope that your solourn in the midst of us may ever be to yourself a pleasant recollection.

Asking Your Excellency to be pleased to convey to convey to the Holy Father the assurance of our loyalty and devotion to the Holy See, and begging your blessing, we remain, Yours respectfully in Christ.

In reply Mgr. Falconio expressed his hearty thanks for the sentiments of love and attachment to the Holy Father as expressed in the address. He was sorry that the beloved
Bishop's health was not better, and he prayed Almighty God in his behalf. It was, he said, a source of consolation to him to know of the loyalty of all to our gracious sovereign the Queen. It was also a source of congratulation to him to know of the union which existed among all classes here. Might the blessing of God be upon his hearers so that they should always remember all were brethren in the Lord Jesus Christ. The sentiment of love, respect and veneration for the Holy Father the Pope, which he found throughout the Dominion and in this diocese of St. John, was for him a proof of the great faith and religious spirit of the people, and in it he recognized the principles of their holy religion. 'You know,'' he said, "our divine Lord Jesus Christ came down from heaven to save all mankind, Redemption was not centred in any class or in any generation, but was to extend its beneficial powers to the whole universe and to extend its own blessing even to the end of time.

Since Peter gave up his life on the cross, as his Lord had done, two hundred and skty-two pontiffs had succeeded him—a wonderful succession, a golden chain linking the present Roman pontiff and St. Peter, the first vicar of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Supreme Pontiff whom they venerated truly deserved their love and veneration. Continuing, he said they had the true faith which Jesus Christ gave Peter, and so passed from his successors to all—this faith made heroes of the Christian religion, those who preferred death to apostasy. In concluding, Mgr. Falconio said: Blessed be you, faithful children of the true fold of Jesus Christ, lovers of your country and your

The Papal benediction was then given by the Apostolic Delegate and the service concluded. On Monday the Apostolic Delegate was kept very busy, yet His Excellency found time to see a good part of St. John and its immediate surroundings. At 7 a. m. he celebrated Mass in the chapel of St. Vincent's convent, and after breakfast was received by the little girls of the orphanage in the music hall. His Excellency made a brief but kindly reply to the address of welcome, in which he told the children how grateful they should be for such a good home and for the tender care which the Sisters bestowed on them. They should take care to remember all their lives the instruction and training which they received at the convent. He concluded by dismissing them to their breakfast with the gift of a whele holidry. The children marched away in great delight.

In the forenoon Mgr. Connolly, V. G., took the Apostolic Delegate for a drive about town, and la'er the visite of and thers attended a luncheon at St. Fittes church rectory.

At 1 o'chery and Casey, Morsignor Connolly, V. G., took the secretary of the Delegate, and several city clergyman drove out to St. Patrick's Industral school. The boys sang a welcome song, and in rely to an address, His Excellency, and in rely to an address, His Excellency said as was tleased to meet them, and spoke favorably of the various institutions he had seen since he came to the diocese. After giving the boys some excellent advice, Mgr. Falconic gave them his blessing. After inspecting the building, farms, etc., the party returned to the city.

In the evening five Italian captains, countrymen of the Delegate, paid their respects to His Excellency and hardy and then drove through Lancaster and around by the bridge. They baid a visit to Rev. J. J. Walsh, pastor of Holy Trinity church, on their return.

In the afternoon the delegate, with Bishops Casey and Barry. They visited Rev. J. J. O Donovan, pastor of the church of the distinguished vi The Papal benediction was then given by the Chatham, N. B., July II.—To-day was a gala in Chatham. Great preparations have been in progress for some time for the coming of the Papal Delegate, the Most Reverend Diomede Falconio, Archbishop of Larissa. Everyone seemed to enter into the spirit of the occasion and a genuine Miramichi reception ensued. The Papal colors were in evidence everywhere, and bunting and Chinese lantern adorned the streets. Among the best decorations might be mentioned the grounds and residence of ex-Mayor Winslow, the residences of Messrs. A. Lawby. Roger Flanagan, R. A. Murdoch, George Hildebrand and others. The decorations at the Adams House were very creditable. The Papal flag was on many flagstaffs, and everythings seemed in keeping with the occasion.

The party was met at Rogersville by Messrs. R. Flanagan, John Coleman and R. A. Murdoch; at Chatham Junction by Mr. J. J. McGaffigan of St. John, and at Chatham by Mayor Loggie, who, in a neat speech, welcomed His Excellency and extended to him the freedom of the town. His Excellence of civic courtesy, and assured him that no better proof of the good will existing in the community could be given. He blessed the Mayor, and wished him and the town over which he presides every good wish. A great assemblage surrounded the station and lined the route from that to the Bishop's residence. About twenty-five sungle carriages, headed by St. Michael's R. C. T. A. Band, paraded into line and drove to the episcopal residence.

The pro-cathedral was handsomely decorated.

Michael's R. C. T. A. Band, paraded into line and drove to the episcopal residence. The pro-cathedral was handsomely decorated with the Papal colors, and the exterior of the building with flags and Chinese lanterns. The mitre and keys of Peter adorned the front above the main entrance.

Early in the evening, long before the appointed time, 7:39, great crowds were making their way up the hill, and by that hour the church was filled to overflowing. Sharply on time the bell rang and, the procession to the sanctuary began. Their Lordships Bishops Rogers and Barry, Rev. Fathers Morrissy, McGroary, Campbell, Ellison, Jopner and others were present. After His Excellency was seated on the throne Rev. Father Joyner stepped forward and read the following address:

most hearty welcome in our midst. Your presence as the Deicyate of our Holy Father Pope Lea XII, gives to us a more thear ordinary opportunity to express, through Your Excellency, our filial affection for and ready obedience to the Sovereign Pontiff, who, though weighed down with years, vet, by the brilliancy of his marvellous intellect, is at once the wonder of the world, distracted by many agitations, and the centre from which proceed the unity of faith and the bond of charity.

In this jubilee year, the Holy Year in accordance with the desire of our Holy Father, we have renewed the dedication of ourselves to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, beseeching this Fountain of mercy and love to send forth peace to mankind, triumph to religion, and consolation to our Holy Father and all associated with him in the government of the Church. During your stay amongst us we trust that Your Excellency will enjoy a pleasant recreation, and that your visit to Chatham may be a source of happy souvenirs in the future.

Begging Your Excellency to bestow your blessings upon us and upon all our efforts for the advancement of religion, and renewing our sentiments of attachment to the Holy See, we remain, Your Excellency.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO FATHER

On Sunday, July 1st. forty-one children received first holy Communion at St. Clements Church, Preston. Gather Gehl, who had instructed the children officiated. Immediately before High Mass the children gathered in the school-room, where a procession was formed. Father Gehl, accompanied by four acolytes, was at the head, followed by the boys of the Communion class, who were led by Masters Leo and Leander Grimm. two very small boys, while Oscar Wirsching carried a banner. Then came the girls, dressed in white, with wreaths and veils, led by two little girls also in white, the Misses Leona Haller and Carrie Lehmann. They all carried beautifully decorated candles. When all were assembled at church they renewed their baptismal vows, in the presence of a large congregation. High Mass was then celebrated. Father Gehl preached an eloquent (German) sermon. In the afternoon the children received the scapular of Mount Carmel and were enrolled in the League of the Sacred Heart. This was followed by an English sermon on "The Resal Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Eucharies. After the services Father Gehl was agreeably surprised by a present of a beautiful gold address:

To Rey, Father Gehl: To Rev. Father Gehl:

To Rev. Father Gehl:

Rev. and Dear Father,—We the members of the Firs? Communion class, of 1990, take this opportunity of expressing our heartfelt gratitude for your kindness in our behalf. Since coming amongst us you have greatly endeared yourself to us. We have found in you aloving father, a pleasant companion, a wise counselier and a sincere friend. Our work, our studies, and even our sports received your attention and you were ever ready with the cheery word or smile of approval to stimulate or reward our efforts. But it is since you have taken direct charge of our class that we have come to realize how greatly we are indebted to and forgetting our waywardness you will think of us only as your loving and obedient children.

We know that no matter what our lot in life may be our thoughts will often revert to this day and we will think with love and gratitude of our good priest who did so much to make this the happiest day of our lives.

In conclusion we hope that though this is your first class of communicants it may not be your last, but that you may long be spared to labor in the Lord's vineyard, and that though our paths in life may be far asunder we will one day have the happiness of being re-united in the Kingdom of Heaven.

SIGNED THE COMMUNION CLASS

Miss Ella Beiler read the address, while Master Ruby Haller made the presentation. Father Gehl in reply thanked the children for their beautiful present and said that if he ever had the misfortune to leave Preston, the cane would always lovingly remind him of his first Communion class. And if they followed his instructions they would become true soldiers of Christ and good citizens of this fair Dominion of of ours. Again thanking them he gave them he save them his blessing.

The edifice was crowded at both services, people coming from neighboring parishes to attend.

The Church was beautifully and artistically decorated with plants and cut flowers.

The church was beautiful flowers.

ST. PATHICK'S, CALEDONIA.

The Catholic church is undergoing a lot of repairs this summer. The roof has been reshingled, the bell taken down and repaired and is now back in its place. The outside of the church has been painted, and the painters are row at work on the interior, which is all being overhauled, the wall being kalsomined, the ceiling papered in blue, and the seats and interior wood-work are to be all grained in oak. The altar will be re-mod-led, painted in white, and decorated in vermillion and gold. It will have a very pretty appearance when finished. The work is being done by Mr. F. W. Young, The cost will be about $500.—Caledonia Sachem, July 11.

JERPOINT ABBEY.

BY REV. J. B. DOLLARD (SLIAV-NA-MON) IN ONOHOE'S MAGAZINE FOR JULY. Sad Jerpoint by the crystal Nore Thy fissured walls yet strongly stand Thy sculptured portals high and gran Proclaim the pride was thine of yore.

The wird and rains have furrowed thee for long thy pillared chancel arch Hath viewed the hurrying ages march Athwart the plains of Ossorie.

Dark ivy springing from the sod Thy steadfast stones doth fond-enclasp To clock them from the wind's rough grasp And guard the hallowed shrine of God. Green meadows flank thy hoary walls
The solemn kine for shadow throng
Thy nave when mid day sun is sire
And high the undazzled sky lark calls,

The Angelus with prayerful tone
Rings from the chapel for away
Recalling thoughts of other day
When that blest summons was thine own

Alas! gray Jerpoint, now no more The humble Brethien tread thy halls Allempty now their carven stalls The last sweet Vesper-chant is o'er.

Yet dreaming here me thinks I see Their olden places filled again The solemn hymn and deep "Amen' Thrilling with fervor sound to me.

But changed now each form and face A spiendor gilds each robe of gray And fairer than the flashing day Upon each brow God's joy I trace. Glad moment! - now the vision fades Sad Jerpoint s- and we are alone Thy wind-swept cloisters dreary moan And fall the chilling evening shades.

AN ODE TO OUR LADY MARY IN THE

From the London (England) Pilot. (High Church paper.)

"Hail Mary!" See the trembling of the air;
The Presence moves about her, soft as fire
For righteousness and peace have kissed there
And suddenly the shrine
Is bright with Light Divine,
The Hope of Israel and the world's Desire.

The Lord we sought came suddenly, and found
His temple clean from every spot of sin;
And all the world seems consecrated ground;
Her prayers like incense rise,
And see, her very eyes,
Shine like twin tapers as the Lord comes in.

Where the four mystic Eden rivers rise
The Angel guard that stands above the vale
And keeps the gate of sunlit Paradise
Let fall his sword of flame
And cried upon thy name,
"Hail Mary!" and the garden answered "Hail!"

Shouted the sons of God; the morning stars Sang once again, as when the Long be And set the hills with battlements and ba Ah! what a cry there fell, "JESUS! EMMANUEL!" The Lord of Angels and the Son of Man!

"Hail Mary!" for the world remembers yet
The Maiden Mother and the Holy Son;
Remembers! How can any child forget
The hope of heaven and thee—
Such stainless purity—
Sin conquered — peace on earth — good will begun?

Remembers! yet, if I remember not
The joys of Nazareth and Bethlehem,
Yet can thy dolors never be forgot;
Thy thorn-crowned Son and thee
Set high on Calvary.
The whole world mourns for—and remembers

"Hail Mary! when the ungen'rous sons

men
Grieve at thy glory, strip thee of thy praise.
The beasts and birds take up the song again
With carol surill and high
Of Maying melody.
"Hail Mary, Mary, Maiden full of grace!"

THE TRANSVAAL WAR.

The British advance in the Transvasl cor ies steadily though slowly, notwithstand-that the Boers have shown considerable ewed activity and bave inflicted some ere blows upon isolated bodies of the lish forces.

At Nitral's Nek, a British force consisting In the Orange River Colony a movement is antured.

In the Orange River Colony a movement is being planned to envelop Dewet's army. Bethlehem has been taken by Paget and Clements, Brabant Hunter and Rundle are on the South and West of Dewet's force of 4000 men and there are British columns under Hunter and Macdonald to the South East near Vreds. All these are closing upon the Boer force, and though it would be premature to predict that Dewet will not escape, there is good reason to believe that a large part of his army will be aptured within a few days. He may, however with his usual adroitness escape through some passages between the British lines, which the difficult character of the ground may make it impossible for the British commanders to occupy in time to prevent his escape. General Reitz was so closely pressed on the Natal border by Generals Builler and Brabant that he was obliged to set free $900 British prisoners. It may be, however, that he was influenced partly by want of supplies to set them free, but the failure of his attack on Ficksburg garrison, and his stronghold Doornberg near Senekal having been taken by General Brabant, helped to make it impossible for General Reitz to hold his prisoners. No officers were sent back with the men. The men have reached Ladysmith.

At Greylingstad the Hoers attacked a British convoy and fought hard to capture it, but were driven back by Colonel Thorneycroft's men. The Boer loss was heavy.

At Platkop there was an obstinate battle on July 14th. A body of 1000 Boers were discovered by the British scouts occupying a good

At Senekal on the same day, General Rundle forced the Boers these stationed into a bad cerner and hopes are entertained that they will be forced to surrender. It is added that President Steyn whished to surrender after the loss of Bethiehem, as he thought there was no further hope of withstanding the British Tengarrender was prevented by Gen. De Wet, who threatened to shoot him if he attempted to carry out his desire.

Ex-Premier Schreiner of Cape Colony states that he is opposed to the granting of independence to the Boer States, but that he is in favor of giving them a certain degree of autonomy.

The German press appear to be delichted.

favor of giving them a certain degree of ac-tonomy.

The German press appear to be delighted with the small reverse inflicted on the British at Nitral's Nek, and declare that with the present difficulty in China it will be impossible to defeat the Boers finally; but notwithstand-ing this, it is confidently expected that resist-ance will not last much longer, and that the Boers will be impelled soon to submit to the inevitable.

If there be a pleasure on earth which angels cannot enjoy, and which they might almost envy man the possession of, it is the power of relieving distress. If there be a pain which devils might pity man for enduring, it is the death-bed reflection that we have possessed the power of doing good, but that we have abused and perverted it to purposes cf ill.—Colton.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

I have berries, grapes and peaches a year old, fresh as when picked. I used the Ualifornia Cold Process Do not heat or seal the fruit, just put it up cold, keeps perfectly fresh, and costs almost nothing; can put up a bushel in ten minutes. Last year I sold directions to over 120 families in one week; any one will pay a dollar for directions when they see the beautiful samples of fruit. As there are many people poor like myself, I consider it my duty to give my experience to such and feet confident anyone can make one or two hundred dollars round home in a few days. I will mail sample of fruit and full directions to any of your readers for niceteen (19) two cent stamps, which is only the actual cost of the samples, postare, etc. Particulars free, Mrs. M.
