ST. JOHN LETTER

Considerable interest has been awakened by the appearance of well defined portraits of men and women on some of the monuments in the old burial ground in this city.

William Gathers of this city is in jail for wife beating. The whipping post is badly needed here.

An electric car, a sloven and a baker's wagon had an alteration on Main street last Thursday and all three were badly demoralized when the rummage was over.

John H. Harding, for many years agent of the department of marine and fisheries, died last Wednesday morning. He was born in 1818.

A young son of John McAllister, narrowly escaped drowning at the May Queen wharf last Saturday morning. He was insensible when rescued by Charles McKinnon.

John R. Smith of the Old Curiosity Shop, on Union Street, died last Friday, aged 67 years.

William Rourke of this city, is again under arrest for criminal assault. Outrages of this sort are never adequately punished, hence their frequency.

Two marriages, twenty births and sixteen deaths were reported in the city last week.

George S. deForest & Sons report an active spring business in staple groceries and a large influx of orders from all parts of the Maritime Provinces.

Table of market prices: Oatmeal, $3.90 @ $4.00 per bbl; Cornmeal, 2.45; Manitoba flours, 4.85 @ 4.90

Other quotations are same as last week.

Edward Edwards, St. John, May 27.

There is good authority for the statement that the Morgan syndicate will shortly invade Canadian territory and attempt a combination of all the large cotton industries of the Dominion.

Stratford, 4th Aug. 1893. Messrs. C. C. Richards & Co.

Gentlemen,—My neighbors boy years ago, fell into a tub of boiling water and was scalded fearfully. A few days later his legs swelled to twice their natural size and he was unable to run or move. His parents could get nothing to help him till I recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT, which, after using two bottles, completely cured him, and I know of several cases around here all cured as remarkable, cured by the same Liniment, and I can truly say I never handled a medicine which has had as good a sale or given such general satisfaction.

M. HIBBERT, General Merchant.

Ex Governor Morrill of Kansas was just said to be the largest apple orchard in the world. When work now in progress shall have been completed, the orchard will contain 64,000 trees.

William, said the great lawyer, you are a very smart boy.

Thank you sir, responded the office boy.

And a great many people have said that you were too smart to be raised.

Yes, sir.

Well, I think the same. I did intend to give you a dollar increase, but I have changed my mind.—Chicago News.

The Queen's Birthday (now Victoria Day) has come and gone. Almost from the youth of our oldest inhabitant the anniversary of the birth of good Queen Victoria has been celebrated, the patriotic feeling of her loyal subjects exhibiting itself by a liberal display of the Empire's colors.

Now King Edward VII sits on the British throne, and though the nation is safely entrenched under his sway, how long it will be before we can all realize the loss sustained by the death of our Lady Sovereign.

To the casual observer, a subdued feeling pervaded the celebration of Victoria Day this year. Even the exuberance of the small boy seemed to be somewhat hushed by the fact that Queen Victoria, the one next to his mother in his esteem, had passed away from mortal gaze.

In fact, in some places the people seemed to consider the usual noisy celebration out of place. The memory of our late Queen will be long cherished by the loyal subjects of the Empire.

The city of Ansonia, Conn., had an experience with a man named William Carter in which the city became the loser. Carter refused to pay a poll tax of $2, and spent 21 months in jail. He was released on Thursday last upon taking the poor debtors' oath. His board in jail cost the city 210 dollars.
