Fertilizer

It is hard to make most of the farmers realize that there is a great possibility of them not being able to get what commercial fertilizer they will require this spring. But never the less it is an absolute fact and the wise farmer will take home his fertilizer soon. As if you wait till spring you may not be able to get any. As even now it is very hard to get what you want as transportation is so bad we have only a few more cars of Basic Slag to sell.

DIVORCE

Mr. Layton preached on this subject in St. Paul's on Sunday evening to a large audience. "What God had joined together, let no man put asunder" was the text. The Jews believed divorce to be legalized by Deut 24:1, 2. But, as may be seen from Matt. 19:4-8, and Mark 10, 2-12, Jesus showed that the divine intention of marriage allowed no place for divorce. Moses made a concession because of the hardness of men's hearts. The conclusive pronouncement of Jesus produced consternation among even the disciples. The various marriage services of the Christian churches make no provision for divorce. The vows are taken by each party for life. The minister repeats the words of Jesus given in the text.

Only two passages—in Matt. 5, 32 and 19, 9 even hint at the possibility of divorce, and the remarriage of the innocent party. But the three words in these two passages are offset by the preceding verses in Matt. 19, 4-8 and also by Mark 10, 2-12 Luke 16, 18, Romans 7, 2-3, 1 Cor. 7, 10-11 and Eph. 5, 22-23. These latter passages teach emphatically that there was to be no divorce in the church, and if there were separation, between husband and wife, neither party was to remarry during the life-time of the other. Any remarrying would constitute adultery. This is the almost universal teaching today in the churches of the west. 1 eastern church permits remarriage of one party under certain conditions.

The utmost can be concluded from Matt. 19: 9, is that there is only one ground for divorce, and while the remarriage of the innocent is presupposed, yet the remarriage of the guilty is forbidden. But the view of a great number of scholars is that the three words in this verse were inserted later, because they are contradicted by many other passages. Marriage is an indissoluble union, and a divine ordinance.

Plan the Biggest Building in World

Detroit, March 15—Plans for what is expected to be the tallest building in the world—fifty-seven stories—to cost $15,000,000, and capable of accommodating ten thousand people, have just been prepared by a local architect for the Exhedra Corporation. Options have been obtained on a $5,000,000 site, bounded by Michigan and Cass avenues, Lafayette boulevard and First and Abbott Streets, and tentative tenders have been called for.

The building, as planned will be a city in itself, with a post-office, police station, arena seating sixteen thousand people and a quarter-mile track, and an auditorium with 30,000 capacity.

The plans call for a 27-storey hotel and fifty-seven stories of offices, running up into a tower 808 feet high, as compared with the 789 ft. of the Woolworth building, New York. Two airplane landings fifty feet wide by 620 feet long will be located on the roof. According to the plans, there will be 4,312 rooms. The foundations of the building, says the architect, will be carried to bed rock. In the basement will be located 504 display rooms. There will be seven banquet halls, two small convention halls, one serve-self, one dining room, two ball-rooms and a hospital on the second floor of the building.

No married man between the ages of 20 and 30 who has not offered his services to the country, unless he can establish that he remains at home to permit other members of the family to be at the front, will be given a berth on the Newfoundland sealing steamers this year. The sealing flotilla will be the smallest on record. It will consist of ten wooden ships of the old type.

ARRANGING FOR TOURIST TRAVEL

C. E. McPherson, assistant passenger traffic manager of the western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway left for San Francisco and Los Angeles recently to arrange for many of the 100,000 American tourists now visiting California who will return over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines from Vancouver and Seattle. They will cross the Canadian Rockies and the Western prairies to Winnipeg, thence to their homes in Chicago, New York, Boston and other eastern cities.

"Already the tide of the winter tourist traffic from the east, middle west and northwest has reached a higher point than ever before and the maximum gauge has not been attained," said Mr. McPherson.

Twenty-five per cent more tourists have gone to Southern California since the season opened two months ago than during the corresponding months of 1915—exposition year—according to official records, Mr. McPherson asserted.

The most illuminative record of visitors in Los Angeles and the many resort cities to the southwest is provided by reports issued by hotel men and apartment-house proprietors. These men say that all hotels and 60 per cent of the apartment-houses are filled to capacity.

All the railroads running into Los Angeles have been running extra trains for 30 days, according to Mr. McPherson. It is estimated that between $27,000,000 and $30,000,000 will be spent by tourists in California this season.

Too Many Moose Being Killed

Discussing in the House of Assembly on Wednesday the Game Commissioner's report for the year 1916, which he had just tabled, Premier Murray called attention to the large number of moose, probably exceeding 1300, killed in the Province last year, and to the scarcity of partridge. The Premier read from the section of the Commissioner's report dealing with moose. The Commissioner states that the number of moose reported during the year was 1208, which was an increase of 113 over the number for the previous year. Making allowance for the usual number of those not reported, the total number killed during the year, the report says, would probably exceed 1300. "Though this number appears large," continues the report, "reports of wardens would indicate that it does not exceed the annual increase." The Commissioner expresses the opinion, however, amos eq pnoys arup neq further restriction of the killing of moose.

"I consider that it is high time that some serious steps were taken with regard to the moose and partridge of the Province," said the Premier. "Regardless of what the Game Commissioners say, any person with any common sense can well understand that if the rate of 1300 bulls a year killed is kept up, in a very few years moose will become extinct in this Province."

WILL CLOSE 30,000
SALOONS IN BRITAIN

London, March 14—Thirty thousand saloons in Great Britain will probably be closed during the next few months, according to the Mail. The measure is proposed as a solution of the difficulty arising from the compulsory restriction of the beer output and the brewers are stated to be in practical agreement with the government in regard to the remedy. The closing of the saloons is said to have been suggested by some of the brewers themselves.

Dutch Fired on German Aviator

Amsterdam, March 14—A German airplane which flew over Sluis yesterday afternoon was shot at and hit by Dutch troops who were manoeuvring in the neighborhood, according to the Handelsblad. The aviator was wounded and compelled to descend in Dutch territory, but before he could be overtaken by the Dutch soldiers he restarted his machine and flew three hundred metres over the border into Belgium. German troops hurried to his rescue and he was carried away by Red Cross attendants.

HELP

Men and women of England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, the first charge upon all your surplus money over your needs for yourself and your children should be to help those gallant young men, those who tendered their lives to the cause of humanity.

The more we get, the surer the victory, the more we get, the shorter the war.

The more we get, the less it will cost in treasure, and the greatest treasure of all is brave blood.

The more you give, the more you will be enriched by your contributions, by your sacrifices of extravagance.

I want to bring this home to every man and woman.—Rt. Hon. D. Lloyd George.

COMFORT

Speak a cherry word to comfort
Weary hearts oppressed by
care,
When life's shadows seem un-
ending,
E'en Hope's star no brightness sending
None with kindly hand befriending,
Or their burden's weight to
share;

Speak a cheery word of glad-
ness,
Darkest clouds must roll away
Ah, so sweet will be the hearing,
Words of hope their sadness
cheering,
Words of friendship, or en-
dearing,
To help them on their way.

Speak a kindly word of comfort,
Night must end in dawn of
day.

Speak a kindly word to comfort
Sorrowing souls, by parting
riv'n,
Hearts, that lonely vigil keeping,
Grieve, while happy hearts are
sleeping,
Grieve, with sad eyes dim with
weeping

For their loved ones o'er the
sea,
O then speak a word to cheer
them,
Speak it gently, tenderly,
Bid their hearts look up, and borrow
Rest, and peace, hope for the
morrow,
Help them, soothe them in their sorrow

With your loving sympathy.
Speak a kindly word of com-
fort,
O kind heart, 'twill comfort
thee.

Down to the Dregs

New York Tribune—Our dead lie on all the shores of the sea. The little villages along the coast of the Channel are beginning to have American annexes to their cemeteries. Hundreds of Americans are in enforced exile in Europe, abandoned by the government and forsaken by their countrymen. Our ships hide in our own port, Americans abroad are the objects of pity, charity, contempt, as the case may be; those who go down to the sea in ships go under the shadow of the assassin, and without even the sustaining thought that a government will honor what it did not protect.

House Burned

Mrs. Palmer was over to a neighbors for a moment and returning found her home on fire.

Mary had a little cold,
It started in her head;
And everywhere that Mary went
That cold was sure to spread.

It followed her to school one day
"Twas not against the rule;
It made the children cough and
sneeze

To have that cold in school,
The teacher tried to turn it out,
She tried hard, but k-tchoo!
It didn't do a bit of good—
The teacher caught it too!

claimed, "for me to share all
your griefs and sorrows!"
"But, darling," he protested,
"I have none!"
"Perhaps not now," she an-
