—WOOL— —WOOL—

The undersigned will be ready to receive Wool (unwashed preferred) June 1st to 15th inclusive. Be sure to send it along. If you are not a member of the Canadian Wool Growers Association you ought to be.

They belong to a different class than the rag and junk dealers that are so hungry for your wool.

If it were not for our Association others would only offer you about 40 cents per pound. Ask those who put their wool thru our Association last year what they think of it. Would refer you to A. S. Burgess, Canning or Joseph Kinsman, Lakeville.

Write or phone them they will tell you how to market your wool to profit.

We will give you a good advance if you want it, as soon as we receive your wool.

TENDERS

On Monday, June 10th, St. James

Dramatic Club, presented. Anthony

E. Wells, Comedy in two acts, entitled "TOO MANY HUSBANDS" to a capacity house. From the rise of the curtain, until singing "God Save the King" there was one continued roar of laughter.

The various characters of the somewhat different plot, was well maintained by the different members of the company

Miss W. E. Adams and Cpl. Harry

Conrad opened the play as, Mr and Mrs Brown with a breakfast scene, this was taken very natural, at this they were joined by Cpl. A. Cooper in the character of Mr Maitland, a hard luck Author. The conversation that took place between these performers caused roars of laughter.

While the character of Molly was taken by Miss P. E. Young who made a very pretty and attractive servant

Next came the German inventor, A. E.

St. Clair, in the character of Rudolph

Bauer, this character was eccentric to the extreme.

While the character of Colonel

Thaddeus, Crane was well taken by Mr F. W. C. Bailey, who needs no introduction to a Kentville audience.

Chauncey Chilton, the Colonel's

Secretary was successfully carried out by Mr C. Johnson,

The part of Dorothy Crane, by Miss E. M. Young, was played as might be expected with skill and grace.

While Miss O. K. Reaves was the Star of the evening, being eccentric both in character and costume, and maintained the difficult role of an irritable mother-in-law with ease.

The part of Jones, the express-man taken by Mr Wood, while Hector Hiltz made his first appearance, handled the character of Michial O' Flynn to perfection.

The part of Rev. Ainsley was taken by Walter Kilcup, who appeared in full clerical outfit and certainly made an ideal minister.

Between acts the audience was treated to a sample of English comedy, by Mr Walter Wood who sang old English comic songs in a style and manner that could not be mistaken. He was followed by Sgt. M.

Fullerton who recited some of his own productions.

Music being furnished by the Kentville Orchestra needless to say the music was of high character

"The war march of the Priests" being especially appreciated.

This drama is repeated in Nicklet

Theatre to-night. Don't miss it.
