Interesting Reminiscences of the Franco-

Interesting Reminiscences of the Pranco-German War.

WAS GAMBETTA A TRAITOR?

London, Aug.— The long-expected memoirs of Count Von Moltke are printed to the extent of five columns in to-day's Times. The Count touches very lightly upon political matters, but confines his attention almost exclusively to the military details of the war of 1870. He reviews at considerable length the incidents surrounding the surrender of Metz and the alleged traitorous conduct of Marshal Bazaine. This disloyalty on the part of the general, he rather accentuates than palliates, and goes even further than this and introduces the name of Gambetta into the possibility of Bazaine being a part of a political plot which had for its object the throwing of the dictatorship into the hands of Gambetta and his fellow conspirators.

Von Moltke's criticism on the battle of Sedan, gives many facts that will be entirely new to the readers of history and gives and interest to that marvellous cavally fight. Much space is occupied in attention to the exploite of the then King William, and it will probably excite some comment that he has passed over with only a cursory mention the connection which Prince Bismarck enjoyed with the empire. Von Moltke's indulges in a lengthy discourse concerning the general calamity following all wars and the desirability of adopting some method by which they can be avoided. He compares the export de corps of the Prussian army with what he regards as a aslifish indifference of the French, or per-that will be entirely new to the readers of history and gives additional interest to that marvellous cavally fight. Much space is occupied in attention to the exploits of the then King William, and it will probably excite some comment that he has passed over with only a cursory mention the connection which Prince Bismarck enjoyed with the empire. Von Moltke indulges in a lengthy discourse concerning the general calamity following all wars and the desirability of adopting some method by which they can be avoided. He compares the exprit de corps of the Prussian army with what he regards as a sellish indifference of the French, or perhaps, more properly, their lack of stamina for the want of a suitable leader. The book is written in an easy and therefore a terse and pungent style, and the Times, in printing these extracts from it, pays a high compliment to VonMoltke's literary talent.

**SIXTY PERSONS MASSACRED**

The Crews of Two Whalers Murdered by Arctle Savages.

A Washington, D. C., special despatch is as follows: A catastrophe is reported by the Treasury Department from the Arctic regions. It is said that the crews of two small steam whalers wintering near the mouth of the Mackenzie, about 500 miles east of Point Barrow, have been massacred by the natives of that region. All told, the crews of the two vessels numbered over 60 persons, well equipped and provisioned for a long siege, with rifles and ammunition, not so much for the purpose of defence as for supplying themselves with game. Here-tofore the natives have been very friendly to the whites. Many of them are well armed, having been supplied with rifles by trading vessels, which have exchanged whiskey and guns for furs.

While it is a new thing for whalers to the winter in the Arctic as far cast as these two winter in the Arctic as far cast as these two winter in the Arctic as far cast as these two winters and an archive and the part of the firm of the same of the firm of the same of the firm o

the natives was offensive, they have probably been overpowered by superior

Although the King's Daughters embership of 200,000 there are th of men and women who have never heard of the society.

The creed of the organization is expr in the lines of Canon Kingsley: Be good, sweet maid a eam them all day ever; nake life, and death, and that For One grand, sweet song, The Order was founded by ten women in this city on January 13th, 1886. A little company of women met on that day at the residence of Mrs. F. Bottome, of Gramercy Park.

Of the various names proposed for the Order the one suggested by Mrs. Irving was most favorably received. The new Order was therefore called the King's Daughters. At this first meeting a badge of purple ribbon was selected to be worn with or without the Maltese cross, upon which were the initials I. H. N.

There are now circles of these good workers in twenty-three States.—New York Recorder.

The Value of a Mustache.

Chicago Tribune: "The accident, is madam," said the young surgeon, encouragingly, as he made his preparations to sew up the wound in the lip the antions to received by falling down a stairway, "will leave a scar, of course, but twenty years from now, when the little fellow has grown to be a man and raised a mustache, it won't show a bit." "It isn't a baby of that kind, doctor," replied the anxious but entirely self-possessed mother.

AN APPALLING DISASTER

Probably Fifty Lives Lost at a New York Fire.

to the whites. Many of them are well armed, having been supplied with rifles by trading vessels, which have exchanged whiskey and guns for furs.

While it is a new thing for whalers to winter in the Arctic as far east as these two teamers have, white men have spent winters on shore with the natives and have lived with a good degree of comfort. There are several thousand natives within the boundaries described. Reindeer, wild and domesticated, abound, fur-bearing animals are found a day's journey into the interior, and game birds are found in great flocks in the open waters. Whaling crews encamped on the land would not be under any such strict discipline as might be enforced on shipboard, and if their intercourse with the natives was offensive, they have

One man running from the scene of the wreck came in contact with a live wire, and was knocked down. Frank Burns, of the Photo Engraving Company, was in an upper window opposite the scene of the wreck. He said he first heard an explosion an then a rumbling sound. Then he saw the front of the building, Nos. 68 and 70, wabble and sway, and the walls fell with a deafening crash. As the walls began to fall the people opposite say many persons tried to jump from the windows, but the walls crushed down upon them before they landed on the sidewalk. The crash was so sudden that none of the pedestrians passing on the sidewalk in front of the Taylor building were seen to escape. H. W. Detzler, who had charge of the Art Department, of Lieber & Mass, lithographers, on the third and fourth floors of 74 and 76 Park Place, said he and eighteen other men were at work when they heard the explosion. They all escaped by means of the fire escape at the Greenwich street end. Detzler and his men helped to rescue the girls from Lindsay's type foundry, GHASTLY SIGHTS.

Meanwhile the firemen were hard at work on the Park Place side. Streams of water was the Park Place side. Streams of water was the Park Place side. One man running from the scene of th of the various names proposed for the Order the one suggested by Mrs. Irving was most favorably received. The new Order was therefore called the King's Daughters. At this first meeting a badge of purple ribbon was selected to be worn with or without the Maltese cross, upon which were the initials I. H. N.

There are now circles of these good workers in twenty-three States.—New York Recorder

The Perfect Weman.

The New York Recorder is an able newspaper and all that, but it carries presumption too far when it informs its readers that a woman 5 feet 3 inches tall should weigh 130 pounds and measure 24 inches around the waist, 31 inches around the chest, 8 inches around the forearm and so on. Why should she do all these things? Whence comes this rule? Is it, then, that a woman of 5 feet 3, who has a 22 inch waist and weighs but 120 pounds, may not be beautiful, healthy, strong and well formed? Shall the lover go round with calipers and tape line to choose a wife? Shall the girl with the 22 inch waist be expected to diet so as to gain the other two inches, or shall the young lady with the plump forearm undergo medical treatment to shrink it to eight inches in diameter? There is a deal of nonsense about this perfect woman. As well attempt to define a perfect roes or a perfect landscape. The woman of 5 feet 3 inches, or any other height, is a model woman when she possesses a good constitution, keeps herself in health, and is satisfied with the figure nature gave her.—Boston Globe.

The Value of a Mustache.

The value of a Mustache.

The value of a Mustache.

The reare and Dorder were directed on the burning mass from every available point. At 2.40 o'clock the other body of a young man was taken from the east end of the debris with the clothing completely burned off it. From under the debris near the edge of the sidewalk was taked at the east end of the debris was that of a human arm every available point. At 2.40 o'clock the body of a young man was traken out the body of Patrick Slattery, who was working for the Sul of nonsense about this perfect woman. As well attempt to define a perfect rose or a perfect landscape. The woman of 5 feet 3 inches, or any other height, is a model woman when he possesses a good constitution, keeps herself in health, and is satisfied with the figure nature gave her.—Boston Globe.

The Value of a Mustache.

Chicago Tribune: "The accident, madam," said the young surgeon, encouragingly, as he made his preparations to sew up the wound in the lip the infaut had received by falling down a stairway," "will leave a scar, of course, but twenty years from now, when the little fellow has grown to be a man and raised a mustache, it won't show a bit." "It isn't a baby of that kind, doctor," replied the anxious but entirely self-possessed mother.

Chappie—You do not seem very clear about Jennie's reception of your proposal.
Johnny—It's all settled, dear boy; I have the refusal of her.

than the one mentioned. There was practically no mortar between the bricks, and when they were looked at after the smoke and fire had subsided they were as here as a board. It is said the building is owned by Mrs. Crain, mother of City Chamberlain Crain, of this city. The damage is about $150,000 to the building, and the loss to the occupants, will be about the same amount.

condemmed Feb. 21st, 1885. The wall on the Park Place side was in good condition then.

At 5.20 o'clock the workmen unearthed the first body since that of W. H. Ellis, taken out at 11 a. m. It was the forty-second body recovered. It was the body of John M. Hillis, the truckman, who a few minutes before the fatal crash left his horses in the street and went into Peterson's restaurant to get his last meal. Hillis leaves a wife and eight children. He was 41 years of age, and lived at 75 Gouveneur street.

At 7.05 p. m. the forty-third body was brought out of the ruins. It was that of a female, but in such a frightfully mutilated and charred condition that identification was impossible. Only a portion of the trunk was intact, the head being crushed into a shapeless mass, the arms and lower limbs being almost entirely destroyed. It was the most sickening sight yet of many results of the fire. Every particle of clothing was gone. Later, however, a workman found some fragments of a dress which belonged to the body. It was black goods with a small white dot.

At 8.30 this evening another bruised form was found. As it was being raised by the firemen the head dropped off and disappeared in the black depths below. The torso was clothed in rags and seemed to have been once the form of a young girl of 17. "Anyone looking for a sister or a lady," shouted Capt. Allaire. One poor man bent over the horrible sight, gave a muffled cry, and hurried away, burying his face in his hands.

Between 9 and 9.30 p. m. four bodies were recovered. Body No. 45 was that of a male adult, 5 feet 6, and about 17. The body was frightfully crushed and scalded. No. 46 was also the body of a male adult. It was baddy crushed, the legs having been cut off from the knees and the hands being entirely gone. Four teeth were missing bronze nowder the lower is said to resemble from the knees and the hands being entirely gone. Four teeth were missing from the upper jaw. No. 47 is said to resemble Louis Rosenfeld, the missing bronze powder dealer. No. 48 was the corpse of a male aged about 22, smooth-faced, and with jet black hair. It wore dark trousers, white socks, blue jumpers and apron. It was unidentified. Inside another hour two more bodies were brought to the surface, making 50 thus far recovered. One of the Italians was seen searching a coat in the ruins. He was arrested and a pocket-book was found upon him, which he claimed was his own.

was found upon him, which he claimed was his own.

Papers found on the forty-ninth body proves it to be that of John Hyland, aged 50, of Pennyan, N. Y. Of the 50 bodies? recovered 38 have been positively identified. Contractor Crimmins, who now has charge, is pushing the work of clearing away the debris with great vigor.

Body No. 50 was the most horrible sight yet revealed. It was a male about 30 years old.

Aug. 26, 2 a. m.—At 1.30 a. m. two mor bedies were brought to view, but they are wedged in with timber. This makes bodies discovered in the ruins. The 51st body is that of aynan. The 52nd has been identified as that of Jennie Flower, 19 years old.

Switchmen Working Under Arms.

A Peoria, Ill., despatch says: The men who are taking the place of the striking witchmen arrived yesterday, and opera-cions were begun. Considerable excitement was caused in the morning by the report that three men had been killed in a fight at the Bridge Junction takegraph station, in that three men had been kind in a right act the Bridge Junction telegraph station, in the yard. Investigation showed that the men were killed in a runaway accident, and the strikers had nothing to do with it. Everything is quiet, but there is a large force of armed guards in the yards. All the new men are provided with revolvers and sworn in as deputies.

Willie's Fervent Thanks. Willie's Fervent Thanks.

Willie wanted to know what Uncle Will said "a blessen" at the table for. Mamma told him it was because he felt very much obliged for his dinner. After that, as soon as the family were seated at the table; after lifting his chubby hand to command silence, he said, in stern, measured tones, "I'm-very-much-obliged for-this-dinnen."

He adhered to this simple form for severa months, when, one evening after playing months, when, one evening after playi all day with the little boy next door added, "You-bet—I'm-very-much-oblige dded, "You-for-this-dinner.

Mother Eve Again. "What did that lady have the screen cross one end of the room for, ma?" aske ittle Johnny, who had been making a cain with his mother.
"I suppose she had something there shidth want seen." replied his mother. lidn't want seen," replied his mother.

"And that was the reason, ma, that who ou thought she wasn't looking you peeper ehind it?"

What he Wanted to Be. "What do you want to be—Baptist Methodist, Congregationalist, Presbyterian

To tell the truth I hadn't thought of an of them; I want to be a Christia A Clever Rival. Buffalo News: "I hear that your rival has been successful in becoming engaged to Miss Cumrox," said a young man to his

"Yes, I did my best, but he was ever than I."
"Indeed? How was that?"
"He knew enough to let her father beathim at billiards, and I didn't." And Then the War Began Henpock—I believe that there really is something in the saying that Friday is an unlucky day. I remember when I proposed to my best girl on a Friday.

Smith—And she rejected you?

Henpock—No; unfortunately she marries Sure Proof by Contrarie "Do you think that Mr. Beirlow is serious, Alice?" questioned the fond mother.
"I think he must be," replied the girl,
"he sven laughs at Tommy's pranks and always listens to papa's war stories."

Marcus Mayer has secured Patti for nex season, and Mrs. Bernard Beere for 1892-93 A bright English comedy, by John Douglass, called "Darlington's Widow," was produced with great success at Toole's Theatre, London, last October, and will be revived this season at the Court Theatre. Harry Stayer—Have you heard the latest, Miss Flimsy? Miss Flimsy—Yes, I just heard the clock strike 12.

BLOODY DOINGS IN GRANADA

nary Uprising Promptly Que by Government Troops.

DEADLY STREET FIRE. A special cable to the New York Herald from Granada, Nicaragua, says: A desperate fight occurred here to-day in which the Chief of Police and its men were killed and many others were wounded. There had been more or less friction in the country for some time and it was leared that a revolutionary movement was on foot. The Government had made sill the overtures to the opposition which it thought consistent with its dignity and safety, but they had been declined; then it was decided to take measures which would prevent any possible attempt a rebellion. In pursuance of this policy orders were issued to arrest Gen. Zavilla Anselmo, Rivas and Enrique Guzman this order was executed this morning. As soon as the men were arrested and before they were gotten to the prison, a number of their partisans got together and made a desperate attempt to rescue them. A volley was fired into the guards which wounded several of them and killed the chief of police. The guards returned the fire with fatal effect. The Government was fully prepared for just such an emute, and reinforcements were immediately sent to the beleaguered guards. With the reinforcements, short work was made of the friends of the men under arrest and the streets were quickly cleared, not, however, until several interchanges of shots had taken place in which six men were killed outright and fully fifty were more or less seriously injured. After order had been restored the streets were patrolled by bodies of troops, and to-night all is quiet. Zavilla, Rivas and Guzman were sent to Managua in charge of a guard sufficient to render hopeless any possible attempt at rescue. An Italian hotel keeper of this city, who appeared to be one of the ringleaders in the trouble, this morning has been arrested and accompanies the three first mentioned to Managua. Other arrests are probable. The Government has taken every possible procaution, and there is apparently no reason now to fear any attempt to overthrow it. A special cable to the New York Hera om Granada, Nicaragua, says;

EXCITEMENT IN A MORGUE. A Child Certified to be Bead Proves to be a

A Child Certified to be Dead Froves to be a Lively Corpse.

A New York despatch says: Keeper White, of the morgue, yesterday afternoon in looking over his dead bodies found that he had one that was living and apparently in the best of health. The body was that of a child. It was a boy and was brought to the institution by the tather, Wilhelm Dooly, a German of No. 1,465 Secondavenue. The father when he brought the child to the morgue had it wrapped in a newspaper and had a still-birth death certificate which certified that the child had been born dead. The supposed dead child was handed to an assistant in the morgueand was consigned to a small wooden coffin. It was placed on the right side of the structure near the entrance. The death certificate when brought to keeper White by his assistant, and as usual in such cases he started out to make an examination of the body for the purpose of seeing if there were any marks of violence on the body and getting a description of the remains for the records. On arriving at the coffin containing the body of the babe Mr. White heards some commotion, and lifting the lid of the pine box found that the young one was living and kicking about. Not losing a minuth he seized him and ran to Bellevue Hospital with the child in his arms, and asked that a doctor be sent for. Dr. Schneider came, and said the child was apparently in good health, and assigned the case to Ward No. 31. The child was doing well at 10 cleck lastnight.

A CHANCE FOR BLOODSHED.

Railway Strikers Threaten to Shoot Anyonic William of the structure one would readily excuse for any work one who Gees to Work.

A Peoria, Ill., despatch says: Owing to A Peoria, Ill., despatch says : Owing to A Peoria, Ill., despatch says: Owing to an error in telegraphing the men who were to take the railroad yard strikers' places did not come here to-day. The strikers have been driven from the yards of the Peoria and Pekin Union Road by deputy sheriffs, and all are drawn up in a long line along the C. B. & Q. tracks. Sentinels are placed at each entrance to the yards to notify the strikers when the new men arrive. The strikers say they will shoot the first man who attempts to couple a car. The Toledo, Peoria, and Western made up a through freight at Hilton this morning and sent it down through the yards. It was not molested, as the train was not made up here. The situation is growing desperate for the business men of Peoria, and some decided action is demanded. Railroad officials say cars will be moved to-morrow if the new men and Pinkerton men arrive.

Mutiny Alleged as a Justification for

A New York despatch says: The story is told in shipping circles to-day of how Capt. Bakker of the steamship Obdam, which left this port on July 18th for Rotterdam, two days later shot and killed one of the coal stokers. On his previous trip Capt. Bakker shipped about twenty coal stokers in Rotterdam. On the trip over here there was some dissatisfaction among the stokers. Homicide. was some dissatisfaction among the stokers, but they were afraid to mutiny. When the ship left this port, however, to return to Rotterdam, the men grew sullen and there were good grounds to fear a mutiny. Capt. Bakker was told by a man named Boel that such a move was ripe and the captain went down into the coal hole and warned the men. One of the stokers picked up a fireman's comb, a heavy iron instrument, and made at the captain. The latter drew his revolver and shot the man dead. The man's name was Duzer. In Rotterdam Capt. Bakker was placed under $10,000 bail.

Youths Who Played Desperadoes.

A Knoxville, Tenn., despatch says: On Wednesday two boys aged eleven and fifteen years, armed themselves with revolvers and knives and proceeded to act the part of desperadoes. When two and a half miles from the town they saw a man named Marsh with a team coming towards them. They asked permission to ride, got into the waggon and after riding a short distance one of the boys asked Marsh if his horses would run if he should fire a revolver. Marsh said they would. The boy then got up and stabbed Marsh in the back with a large butcher knife, inflicting a serious if not fatal wound. The boys were promptly arrested and placed in jail. Youths Who Played Desperadoes.

A Irontown, Ohio, despatch says: Geo. Hamilton and his wife went visiting yesterday, leaving their three children, Hestie, Edith and Emma, aged 8, 4 and 2 respectively. When they returned the children were missing. After a long search the little ones were found confined in an old tool chest, where they had died from suffocation. The mother is almost insane in her grief. A stick fastened in the staple of the chest indicates murder, and the police are investigating the case.

A Murderer Filled With Lead. A Murderer Filled With Lead.

A Shelbyville, Ind., despatch says: City Marshal Bruce last night, while attempting to arrest Charley Hawkins, a desperate character, who was creating a disturbance, was fatally shot by the latter. Hawkins was promptly arrested and logged in jail.
Later in the night a mob of 500 men collected around the jail. Six of the mob finally gained an entrance and brought Hawkins out, took him to a tree and hanged him up and shot him full of bullets.

Put His Foot in It. Buffalo News: Maud-So you reall think I am pretty?
Harry—Yes, indeed! But, know, I'm no judge of beauty! Always Met Him.

Bradford Era: "That man Slosher is getting to be a terrible drinker," asid Droscher. "What makes you think so? inquired Broscher. "Why, every place go into after a drink I find him there." The morganatic wife of King Frederick VII. of Denmark has just died. King Frederick was very generous to her, and shleft behind her a large estate. The greabulk of her property and the Castle Jagers jeris were bequeathed for a children's home which is to bear the name of King Frederick VII. Institution.

WII. Institution.

Robert Mantell will begin his next season on August 31st in Yonkers. His repertoire will embrace "The Corsican Brothers" and "Monbars," and he may also be seen in one or two new plays during the season.

The cost of an iron-clad is about $400 a ton; this includes guns and all equipments.

FAMINE IN RUSSIA.

ian Peasantry Subsisting on Musi rooms and Wild Fruit.

THE MISERY WIDE-SPREAD.

shily offering their children for sale in order to buy food, and dealers at Comstanting the to buy food, and dealers at Comstanting the tendency of this have purchased through agents in the Ramsian villages a considerable number of female children. Many deaths have resulted from families, and for intermediate the search of the Way.

Livercout, Ang. —John Conway, the standard period of the Way.

Livercout, Ang. —John Conway, the standard period of the Standard the standard period of the Standard the standard but, taking the letter, made careful inquir as to the writer, whom she discovered to ball he claimed for himself. This fact ther oughly established, she then wrote him a personal note, inviting him to be present at the annual May-day party, soon to take place at the institution. Meeting him she said: "I shall introduce you to half a dozen of our nicest girls." Any one of them would make any honest man a good wife. The girls know nothing of your intention, so you shall meet them without embarrassment."

SHE GOT HIM A WIFE.

It took the stelled all "... It took the stolid old Teuton but a sho It took the stolid old Tenton but a short time to make a selection. The man was a comely fellow, and was accepted, and there was a wedding, and a penniless orphan, whose individuality had hitherto been designated by a number, left her little iron bedstead in the dormitory to go to a cosy home of her own, and to be an honest man's wife. This was some years ago. The happy couple have prospered, and beneath their own vine and fig tree (literally, for this happened in New Orleans) have reared a healthy brood of little ones. So much for a wise woman's judgment.

A CAROLINA VENDETTA. one of the Factions Attacks a Church ar A Greenville, S. C., despatch says: At Mountain Hill Church, a rude place of worship used by the foot washing Baptists, in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, 25 will a shows this city, there was a bloody Fatal Fighting Follows. niles above this city, there was a blood firay yesterday. The people of the neigh orhood are gennerally moonshiners, and two ading families, Durhams and Howard orm hostile clans. Richard Howard led party of his kinsmen on a raid on the church yesterday while the congregation was assembled. Luther Durham and Richard Gosnell, who is a deacon of the church undertook to arrest them. Josh Howard shot Luther Durham fatally. Luther then shot and killed Massona Howard. Dick Howard was also shot, but has disappeared. The Howards were routed, but the congregation dispersed without concluding the communion service. This makes five men killed in this feud within three years. One of the Howard clan is now in jail under sentences of death for murder. rty of his kinsmen on a raid on the chu SUNDAY REFLECTIONS. It is well to winnow seeds of kindness It is well to william section them.

The largest congregations seldom gather o hear the longest sermons.

He who fancies this to be the age of steal vill speedly learn that it is also prayer.

"Silence is golden," but the "silent contempt" act sometimes looks rather brassy.

The man who would lie without being found out must confine his efforts to for bearing friends or unmitigated idiots.

A selfish woman

A peevish woman. An ill-natured woman. -natured woman.
man who is continually falsifying. A woman who talks disagreeably o than he does on a certain topic.

A man may think he admires the manly girl, but after all he loves the "womanly woman."—Marie, in Music and Drama. woman."—Marie, in Music and Drama.

William Morris, the English poet, artist, and socialist, affects a singularly shabby and unpicturesque attire. He may be seen on Oxford street in London wearing an old black slouch hat, an ancient sack coat, baggy trousers, and a blue flannel shirt. The necktie is usually missing, and sometimes he wears no collar. But his flowing white hair and beard make him an object of interest to every passer-by.

When "pleasure is at the helm" the devil is generally down in the engine-room looking after the machinery.

In Chicago they are telling this story on Sam Jones. Recently he was addressing a crowded audience and said: "I want every one in this congregation who wants to go to

Sam Jones. Recently he was addressing a crowded audience and said: "I waint every one in this congregation who wants to go to heaven to stand up." Of course almost everybody rose. Then he said: "Now, I want everybody who wants to go to the other place to stand up." At first no one stood up, but finally a long and lank and skinny individual in the back seats, about as fat as an umbrella, arose and said: "I don't exactly want to go to the other place, but I am willing to stand up rather than let the preacher stand all alone."

A careful study of the negatives of the moon made with the aid of the great Lick telescope has revealed the existence of many unknown objects there, including great crater mountains and rifts chasms in the surface of the moon, as well as some of those mysterious objects that go under the descriptive name of bright streaks or rays. Patrick Gailey, a noted character of Be fast, has been fined 40 shillings for halling a constable as "Balfour's minion."

RRIBLE SCAFFOLD SCENE

A Murderer's Head Almost From His Body.

YOU CAN'T SPEAK NOW,

the muscles of the neck. blamed for the bungling.

CHINA DISTURBED By the Plotting of Secret Societies Trial of the Rioters.

A San Francisco despatch says: Advices were received here to day from China and

A San Francisco despatch says: Advices were received here to-day from China and Japan. The China papers print a report that the son of the present Chenese Minister to England, France and Italy has been arrested charged with being a prominent member of a secret society, and is to be tried for that offence.

Rumors were prevalent at Shanghai, July 27th, of a serious rebellion at Honan, but it turned out to be only a raid by bandits. The British Consul at Kanko was stated not to have been satisfied with the perfunctory trial of the Wusuch rioters, and remonstated so effectually that the Viceroy ordered the case reopened. The Chinese Custom officials of Chin Kiang arrested six men charged with being members of the Kolao Hui secret society, which, it is said, fomented the present troubles, and they were held for trial. A constable of the native court was arrested by order of the Viceroy, but was promised pardon for giving evidence against others. The Wen Chow authorities have captured eleven of the pirates who created a disturbance near there recently.

ciming the Treasury Silver Bullion to Buy A London cable says: The Times publishes a letter from Lisbon declaring that President Balmaceda, of Chili, being unable to borrow money, seized the silver bullion in the treasury of Santiago de Chili, stored there as security for the Fiduciary circulation, and tried to transport this silver abroad as payment for ships and arms ordered in Europe. Balmaceda was not able to hire a private vessel to transport the silver, but he pursuaded the commander of the Eapiegle, a British man-of-war, to convey a million dollara to Montevideo. The Times says it is is confident this was done without the consent of the British admiralty, adding that it seems as though a British admiralty, adding that it seems as though a British admiralty, without the consent of the British admiralty, adding that it seems as though a British man of wer had been made the accomplice of a downright robbery. The transaction, the Times says, demands a full investigation

A Brush-Making Machine.

A Brush-Making Machine.

Hitherto brushes have been made by hand, but a machine just invented is calculated to save much time. It will make brushes twice as fast as they can be made by hand. The machine rests on a table; a wheel containing the wire is run by a treadle. The wire is carried over to and through a hollow needle worked by hand, which is suspended from a support in front of the vise in which the block is placed. A clamp in the handle can be used to draw in the material when small work is to be done. Back of the vise are adjustable shears waich can be set for any length of brush. The block is put in the vise. It remains there till the brush is complete.

GERMANTOWN'S NEW CLUB-HOUSE.

When Lorl Hawke's team of English amateurs reacness Philadelphia next month they will find on the Germantown grounds at Manheim as beautiful and appropriate a club-house as can be shown by any cricket club in the world, and the probability is that no building of the kind anywhere surpasses the new colonial edifice on the old Wister place, on Manheim street. This building, which has just been completed, is of brick and wood, and in its general features is excellently adapted to the uses to which it will be put. The unusual size of the club house puts at the disposition of the cricketers plenty of space for dining rooms, billiard rooms and so on. On the second floor there is a theatre and ball room, extending the width and almost the entire length of the house, and these it is expected will be put into constant use during the winter months. The wide balcony commands an excellent view of the wickets and the cupola offers a delightful panorama of the surrounding country. The interior of When Lord Hawke's team of English mateurs reacnes Philadelphia next month of the surrounding country. The interior of the club house will be decorated and fur nished in keeping with the style in which is been designed.—Philadelphia Weekl

A Neepawa, Manitoba, despatch says his morning a young man named Wm reen, while working on the farmer levator, jumped too heavily on the soa elevator, jumped too heavily on the scr fold, which gave way, letting him fall distance of 50 feet. He sustained injuri which resulted fatally about five hours afte wards. It is understood his people live Hamilton.

The Reason Why. Johnnie—You young ladies of the chorue worse than clocks.
Chorus—Why; because we are sometime Chorus—Why; because we are sometimes little fast?
Johnnie—No, but because you have no he modesty to hold your hands before you ace while you are ever ready to show you igures to the world.

Printers' Ink for Home Heath An aged clergyman met a man loudly de claiming against foreign missions. "Why," asked the objector, "doesn' the church look after the heathen at home? "We do," said the clergyman quietly, and gave the man a tract.

Not Expecting Too Much. Bishop Gullem—So you think Heaven like Boston, do you? Mrs. B. (from the Hub)—Oh, of coun not exactly; 1 don't expect too much. Alma had been taken to Sunday school for the first time in her four and a half years. All the way home her heart was running over with joy. Just as papa lifted her from the carriage she exclaimed: "Oh, yes, papa, and I am in the elephant lass."

Philosophers tell us that from Adam down to man has ever yet understood a woman, tut men are not tired of trying yet, by any

Mwoman's name! the fairest boast
That human lips can utter;
Woman alone shall be our toast,
We don't want any but her. In Ireland a belt made of woman's hair a placed about a child to keep harm away. The death-rate per 1,000 inhabitants in Valparaiso is 64.6; in San Francisco it is 18.1.

Garlic, salt, bread and steak are put into the cradle of a new-born babe in Hol-land.

AMONG THE GREAT.

Cold water is a narcotic, as alcohol is. It deadens the sensibilities of the skin, and hence prevents the sensation of cold. It relieves the disposition to chilliness because of this deadened sensibility, and as colds and catarrhs are due to hyper-sensitiveness of the skin, we readily see that the cold morning bath prevents the cold by reducing the sensitiveness.

But the cold morning bath does something more. It arouses nervous activity by calling upon the vital system for increased animal heat. The contraction of the vessels due to the cold is followed by a relaxation of them, explained by the principle f sel animal heat. The contraction of the vesdesidence to the cold is followed by a relaxation of them, explained by the principle f reaction, and so through the cold both action and reaction are established, which frequently give delusive excitements to the victim.

The tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water at improvement over the cold water at the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
at the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water to the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
to the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
to the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm morning bath is a
great improvement over the cold water
the tepid or warm
the toth of the toth the to

CHOLERA ON SHIPBOARD.

wful Mortality on a Coolie-laden Chinese A San Francisco, Cal., despatch says: Advices from Singapore state that the steamer Namchow sailed for that port with some chinese coolies for the Penang market.
The officers were Chinese with the exception of half a dozen Europeans. While at sea

SOU chinese coolies for the Penang market. The officers were Chinese with the exception of half a dozen Europeans. While at sea cholera broke out among the Chinese and no fewer than sixty bodies were thrown into the sea. The captain, upon "arrival at Singapore, reported only six deaths to the harbor master, three from influenza and three from want of opium and general debility. Many passengers were landed, and no quarantine being declared the vessel proceeded to Penang with the remainder of the infected cargo and crew. In four days nine cases of cholera developed in Singapore, all traced to the steamer Nanchow. On the steamer's voyage back from Penang after landing two hundred coolies there, the first European victim, the third engineer, an Englishman, succumbed to the disease. When the Namchow ārrived at Singapore the health officer was on the lookout and sent the vessel into quarantine. When the vessel is released the captain and supercargo will be arrested and tried.

AN EX-PRESIDENT.

English Reporter Blundered on an A young English reporter on a New York paper relates one of his early experiences. A young English reporter on a New York paper relates one of his early experiences.

"I was sent up to interview a fellow by the name of Hayes, don't you know, who was stopping at an uptown hotel," he says.

"The slip I was given by the city editor read." read:
"'See ex-President Hayes at the hotel and get something about his plans in

New York:

"I found the hotel and sent up my card.
was received quite nicely by Mr. Hayes.
He told me what he was going to do, and hen, as I wanted to make my story comolete, I asked him what he was expresident of.

"He told me he was ex-president of the United States. It was awfully confusing.

United States. It was awfully confusing, don't you know," concludes the young Englishman plaintively, "but there are so many ex-presidents over here."—Cincinnati

Welch mothers put a pair of tongs or a knife in the cradle to insure the safety of their children; the knife is also used for the same purpose in some parts of England.

The London mother places a book under the head of the new-born infant, that it may be quick at reading, and puts money into its first bath to guarantee its future wealth. The Turkish mother loads her child with amulets as soon as it is born, and a small bit of mud, well steeped in hot water, prepared by previous charms, is stuck on its forehead.

In America the child is banded over the arse, with instructions to "raise it on the ottle."—Good Housekeeping. No Bonuses.

Brantford Expositor: The Ontario Legis-lature has taken a step in the desired direc-tion by passing a law to prevent one muni-cipality from bonusing an industry that has already been established elsewhere. London, already been established elisewhere. London, in its proposed bonus for the car shops, is violating this law. Whether or not the latter is a dead letter may possibly have to be tested; but, in any event it does not go far enough. Bonuses of every description should be absolutely prohibited.

N. Y. Press: "What do you think of married life?" asked the henpecked man, addressing the youthful bridegroom. "Bliss is no name for it," said the young usband, enthusiastically
"You are right," said the henpecker, an, gloomily. "Bliss is no name for it

Mr. E. W. Hagarty, B. A., late head-master of the high school at Mount Forest, was on Friday evening presented with an address and a gold watch prior to his leaving for Johns Hopkins University to take a post-graduate course. At the birth of a child in lower Brit the neighboring women take it in charge wash it, crack its joints, and rub its head with oil to solder the cranium bones. It is then wrapped in a sight bundle, and its lips are anointed with brandy to make it still Reston. ull Breton. It is not strange that very few men knov hemselves intimately. Most people like t void disagreeable acquaintances. wood disagreeable acquantances.

Mrs. Jimes Brown. Potter is at present residing in Paris with her parents. She and Mr. Belfew will play in October at the West End Theatre, London. Both Mrs.
Potter and Mr. Bellew are hopeful of making a visit to America soon, when they will play in "Hamlet."

England carries about 58 per cent. of the a-borne merchandise of the world. sea-norme merchanduse of the world.

One hundred and twenty-seven millions is the number of boots and shoes said to be manufactured yearly in Great Britain.

In Spain the infant's face is swept with a pine-tree bough, to bring good

A PRECORD SMASHER

WHAT THE LOG SHO This is the record of the Ten

Total ... 2.778

The Teutonic arrived at the lightship at twenty-four minutes before 2 o'clock yesterday morning, lopping off nearly two hours from the five days and three-quarters trip of the Majestic, and bringing joy to the hearts of those who predict that the transatlantic voyage will yet be made in five days and a half.

Captain Irving was feeling very happy yesterday, and when I asked him if we should have the pleasure of congresulating him again before long, the Captain said, modestly: "The log shows that on the fifth day we broke the record of day's running by making 517 miles, and I suppose we might do that every day under the same conditions.

Chief Engineer Hugh Curry was no less a happy man than his commander. "If any one gives us anything to do," said he, "we'll do it. The Majestic did give us something to do and we attended to the work cut out for us, didn't we?"

HOW IT WAS DONE. Total... ..2.778

How IT was done.

Engineer Curry said the average revolutions of the screw were about eighty to the minute, except on the day of the longest-run, when they went up to eighty-one. The horse power was at times as high as 20,000 and from that down to 15,000. The average speed per hour was 20.35 knots, or 23.40 miles. The Teuton's coal consumption averaged about three hundred tons every twenty-four hours.

The Teutonic, for the first two days out, had head winds, which made the prospect for a record breaking voyage look discouraging, but after that the weather was fair and the great runs were made. The run of 517 miles beat the single day record of 515 which was held by the City of Paris, although the Majestic held the record of the HOW IT WAS DONE.

ugh the Majestic held the re attonign the Anjestat near the record of the ocean trip.

The excitement among the passengers over the race against time was great after the first two days out. On the fifth day out the popping of champagne corks greeted the announcement of the greatest single day's record ever made. FORMER RECORD BREAKERS. This is a list of steamers which have roken the ocean record since the transat broken the ocean record since the transat-lantic lines began to call at Queenstown for their mails in 1866, the time always being reckoned from the moment the steamers passed the Roche Light, at Queenstown, until they arrived off the Sandy Hook lightship: Date. Steamers. - Scotia .....

- Baltic .....
- City of Berlin .
- Cermanic Britan

All told, the Teutonic carried 1,370 pas-engers, of which number 290 were first engers, of which number 290 were all elass, 180 second-class and 900 steerage.

The Teutonic s course took fier just 2, 177 made by the Majestic when she broke the record. The Teutonic left Queenston at 48 minutes past 1 o'clock p. m. on Aug. 13th. At five minutes past 2 o'clock the vessel passed Daunt's Rock. From this point the voyage proper began. The following are the daily runs: Friday 460, Saurday 495, Sunday 505, Monday 510, Tuesday 517. At 1.36 o'clock this morning the noble craft had the Sandy Hook light-ship abeam. When the voyage was completed the Teutonic had covered 2,778 miles. This is the fastest trip on record. The Majestic, which previously beat the record, made the run in 5 days 18 hours 8 minutes. On the first day out a strong westerly breeze was believed a fresh westerly breeze was blowing. On Sunday the wind veered to the northwest and blew moderately. During the remainder of the run the vessel had high, variable winds. The sea wassmooth nearly all the way across. The Teutonic brought 290 first cabin winds. The sea was mooth nearly all the way across. The Teutonic brought 290 first cabin passengers, 180 second cabin and 900 steerage, and was in command of Capt. D. T. Irving. The run of 517 miles on the 18th is the fastest time ever made in 24 hours by any trans. Atlantic steamer, and the runs of 505, 510 and 517 for three consecutive days beats the record of the City of Paris several miles.

Must be Careful, "You Know." The widow of an English army officer ent to the pension officer for the purpose drawing her pension. She presented went to the pension officer for the purpose of drawing her pension. She presented the usual certificate of the clergyman of her village to the effect that she was still

'This certificate is not right," said the official.

"What is the matter with it?"

"Because it bears the date of July 21st, and your pension was due July 15th."

"What kind of a certificate do you want?"

want?"
"We must have a certificate that you were alive on the 15th day of July. Of what use is this one that says you were alive on the 21st of July?"—Tit-Bits. In calling on a married lady a wife should take one of her own cards and two of her husband's cards, her own and one of her husband's in calling on a widow; her own only, in calling on a single lady. Unmarried women still retain the custom of leaving a card for each of the ladies in the house. A London custom is that of never sending up a card before entering a room, unless a lady is calling to inquire concerning the character of a servant.

Mad Heard of Noah.

Rochester Herald: The story is told at Jerry Simpson's expense that in delivering a speech at St. Joseph the other day he took occasion to eulogize Daniel Webster and his great dictionary. Somebody tugged at Jerry soat-tails and whispered, "Noah was the man who made the dictionary." The "Sockless" was disgusted and whispered back: "Noah built the ark." Jerry knows who's who.

—There are 507 workhouses and 77 prisons in England and Wales.

"How are you?"
"Nicely, Thank You,"
"Thank Who?" Why the inventor of Which cured me of CONSUMPTION."

Tive thanks for its discovery. That i does not make you sick when you Give thanks. That it is three times as efficacious as the old-fashione cod liver oil.

thanks. That it is such a wonder thanks. That it is the best remed thanks. That it is the best remed Give thanks. I hat it is the best relief.

for Consumption, Scrofula,

Bronchitis, Wasting Diseases, Coughs and Colds.

Besure you get the genuine in Salmon color wrapper; sold by all Druggists, at 50c. and $1.00.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.