The Letter-Box

A SLANDER SILENCED.

Editor Planet:

Sir,—In connection with the scurrilous letter Henry Smyth has been circulating, certain citizens have visited my office and informed me that he (Smyth) told them that it was printed by me and could be secured at my shop. This is a deliberate untruth and I will be obliged if you will so state in The Planet. I had nothing whatever to do with printing them; more than that, had I been asked to print them I would have refused point blank. Anyone who looks at the type and stock used ought to know where they were printed.

I shall be glad if you will make this public for me.

Yours sincerely,
CON. E. SHEA.

THE LICENSE BY-LAW AND PED-LARS.

Chatham, Ont., Mar. 11, 1902.

Editor Planet:

Dear Sir,—As will be seen by referring to the council proceedings last Monday night, a petition was presented by the Fruit Vendors of the city, complaining of the ineffectiveness of the present license by-law and praying that higher fees for transient traders license be introduced with the view of keeping out the objectionable element, such as the Hoboes that invade those Canadian cities and towns situated nearest the U. S. frontier. I expressed myself as heartily in sympathy with the move and determined to do all in my power to righten matters. It was only at that meeting I learned that the present by-law enforced a $25 per basket to transient traders had not been enforced in the past to the extent it might have been and I was at once able to understand the reason of the petitioners asking the amendment. They apparently were as ignorant as myself that the present tariff was not being enforced. I was very glad to support Ald. Cowan's motion that the by-law be enforced against all comers for the future, believing that the present fee of $25 per basket will prove ample protection to established interests. I promise the ratepayers I will do my part, that this motion is made effective from this out.

I would suggest to the Fruit Vendors that they appoint an agent to look after their interests in the enforcement of the law. If a violation can be discovered, institute a prosecution at once. I believe there is a Grocers' Association here, and they can make it pay them to look after such matters, closely affecting their interests. Another plan they could pursue is to notify the Chief of Police of any case of known violation, when the matter will be promptly attended to. It is surely no boasting to keep a sharp lookout and have the guilty parties summoned and fined. In this connection I would suggest that the butchers look very closely after their interests, as I have heard that there is violations taking place every week on the market.

Yours truly,
J. WADDELL.

CORONATION CONFERENCE

Referring to the proposed conference, Lord Minto's despatch says that the only question "which in the opinion of my ministers gives promise of useful discussion is that of the commercial relations between the various sections of the Empire. In political relations now existing between the mother country and the great self-governing colonies, and particularly Canada, are regarded by many ministers as extremely satisfactory, with the exception of a few minor details, and they do not anticipate that in the varying conditions of the colonies there can be any scheme of defence applicable to all."

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia, by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years, with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulders and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night."

"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store, and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured."

"There was no more acidity or sour, watery rising, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 lbs in weight of solid, healthy flesh."

"Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless, and can be given to children or invalids in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and golden seal."

"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

THE MISSION

Mr. Murphy spoke last night on Gen. xxii, 14,—"Jehovah-Jireh." The old patriarch Abraham is roused in the hush of night by the voice of God. The awful words pierce his heart like hot arrows: "Abraham, Abraham, take now thy son whom thou lovest and get him into the land of Moriah and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of."

While the stars are yet in the sky Abraham with Isaac and two servants begin their "Dead March" towards Moriah. For three days Abraham travels the thorn-strewn path of obedience, and at every step a heart-string breaks.

This God-given young Hebrew, who prefigured the youth Jesus, must surely have been the perfection of physical manhood. Statuesque of figure, he had a buoyant carriage upon which self-reliance had left its stamp. His brain was quick, his eye keen, his face clear-cut as the granite obelisks, Abraham saw in Egypt. As the father listened to the sonorous depths and melodious cadences that lay in his son's voice, his heart responded like a rich harp chord that was swept by angel hands. All night Abraham could hear the throbbings of his son's heart as he lay with his head on the arm that was to slay him, and mayhap this world's grey father in the grey dawn of history, laid his hot face on the cool earth and sobbed out his passionate heartbreak even as the men of to-day.

But the sudden hours are forgotten in the Orient day-spring till the mountain is reached. The supple-sinewed youth could have beaten himself free but he was "silent as a lamb to the slaughter." A moment only the death-dealing blade flashes in the sun like the flaming sword that kept the way of the tree of life. It descends strong and sure in horrible stroke of immolation, but never was falling hand caught more suddenly. The ram

Cash Counts in Trade

Cash is the good red blood that keeps business young and vigorous. Credit can creep along, but its pace is that of old age; it lacks oxygen. The cash way is the athletic, electric way.

We pay straight cash for everything—every article that enters the store, every bolt of cloth that comes to the factory. In other words we get the top of the market. No manufacturer has a "pull with us. Nothing counts but the merit of the goods.

Cash plan works both ways. We have no hold on your custom but the grip of right goods and square dealing. Not a penny-worth of this incoming spring stock can be sold on any basis but its plain straight merits,—and the confidence engendered by past dealings in the store.

Thornton & Douglas

was offered in Isaac's stead and thus foreshadowed "the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all."

The years move on, and upon the same hilltop—for Calvary is a spur of Moriah—Christ bore His own cross up its slope, even as Isaac carried the wood of sacrifice. This is what Christ meant when he said, "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day and was glad."

The missioner then developed his sermon under the heads:—
I.—The suffering of God the Father in giving Christ to die.
II.—God is a provision for salvation.
III.—The substitute was effective.
IV.—Christ will provide in every extremity.

Mother's Picture !!!

If "Mother" goes have you got her picture? If you haven't don't you think you would regret it, supposing anything happened to her? It will be a very long regret and impossible to rectify then.

Better let us make a negative of her and we will do her justice—that we guarantee. We pride ourselves on our "elderly" portraits.

worth of

Milk and Cream
wanted this year at Maple City Creamery

As the demand for our butter has so increased that we are unable to fill our regular weekly orders at present, although our churns are much larger than a year ago, and as we have received an order for over $5,000 worth of Maple City Creamery butter to be made after the first of April.

If you will let us do the work we can pay you more money for the milk or cream than we can for the butter. It has paid others to ship cream to us by express and it will pay you, try it for a month or two, we will furnish cans free for a trial. We pay once a month for milk and cream, according to the quality and the average wholesale price for each month. It is better, but not necessary to have a separator if you are milking four or five cows. Write at once for full particulars and get some of this butter money.
