BOERS IN AMBUSH.

Were Overwhelmed by One Trooper with a Revolver.

London, Dec. 5.—A Reuter despatch from Harrismith says:—An instance of extraordinary courage by a trooper in Lech's Horse has been brought to the special notice of General Buller. A troop of Lech's Horse were recently out on patrol with Col. Ross and Lieut. Williams, and somehow they rode into an ambush. Lieut. Williams was almost immediately killed, and Col. Ross dangerously wounded in the head. At this critical juncture Trooper Pictou gallantly rushed to the wall of the Kaffir kraal, from which the enemy had opened their unexpected fire, and discovered six Boers still there. He immediately emptied his revolver, with such effect that three of the Boers fell dead, and the remainder forthwith laid down their arms and were taken prisoners. Trooper Pictou for his gallant action, has been recommended for the medal for distinguished service in the field. The wounds of Col. Ross are of a very serious character. He was struck by an expanding bullet, which smashed his jaw.

Boer in aid of Public General Hospital will be held in I. O. O. F. Auditorium on Friday and Saturday, 24.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Remember Chaplain Lane's lecture in the First Presbyterian Church Monday, even. Dec. 10th.

To-morrow another chapter of Dr. McCaw's most interesting description of his old country trip will appear. This part of his diary covers a trip to Leamington and Warwick Castle, and is just as interesting as any of the previous accounts.

The Christmas number of the Globe, which is now on sale at the book stores, is certainly a credit to its publishers. The bill of contents is good, the letter-press excellent. "Studies from Nature" may be mentioned as being particularly unique, clever and interesting. "The Preacher down at Coles" is grand, telling in Blevett's inimitable style the life and doings of the local preacher. The engravings include "The Last Farewell," from Paul Wickson's celebrated pictures; "Welcome Home," a very pretty little engraving, and several other minor engravings. It is a handsome number, well gotten up, and filled with reading matter suitable for the festive season.

Wanted!—Old pipe and tea lead, at once. The Planet.

THE FIRST DRILL.

Large Attendance of Volunteers and Would-be Recruits.

Many Citizens Turn Out to See the Boys at Work—Uniforms Coming Shortly.

Those who have interested themselves in the organization of the 24th Kent Regiment must have been highly gratified by the attendance and results of last evening's initial gathering at the drill shed. There were over 200 young men present, and many citizens dropped in to give a word of encouragement and witness the first drill. Lieut.-Col. Rankin was present and superintended the proceedings.

The members of Captain Mawbray's company which is now filled, indulged in a preliminary short drill and made a splendid showing. The volunteers take great interest in the work, and should rapidly round into shape. The company is a fine one, and Lieut.-Col. Rankin took occasion to compliment them upon the introductory work done.

At the conclusion of the work Lieut.-Col. Rankin briefly addressed the gathering and enumerated the difficulties of the work. The volunteers, he said, would be forthcoming immediately upon the completion of the measurement.

In concluding Col. Rankin spoke to the company some pointed words of advice as to their conduct and work, and asked every member to personally use his efforts for the advance of the organization. Col. Rankin's address was received with hearty applause.

To-morrow—Thursday—evening, Captain Mawbray's company will again meet for drill at 7.30 sharp. Meanwhile the completion of the remaining companies is going rapidly forward.

A MUSICAL TREAT

Fine Sacred Concert in the William St. Baptist Church.

Those who Took Part in the Program—A Delighted Audience.

An excellent musical treat was enjoyed by the large audience, which gathered last evening in the William St. Baptist Church on the occasion of the presentation of the sacred concert, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. The program was under the musical direction of Mrs. A. James, the accomplished conductor of the church choir, and its excellence was a tribute to the ability and earnest effort of the talented lady, Miss M. Gemmel, who presided at the organ during the evening, also deserves a large share of the credit of the successful program.

The presentation, which was presided over by Judge Houston, was an exceptionally acceptable one. The four choruses were capably rendered and the solos and obbligato therein pronouncedly pleasing. "The Heavens are Telling," from Haydn's Creation was especially fine.

Henry R. McCaw, the gifted violin virtuoso, played two delightful numbers in a most masterly manner. For excellence of tone and technique Mr. McCaw has few equals.

Mrs. John Cooper contributed an exceedingly pleasing solo, "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan, and was accorded a very cordial reception. Mrs. Cooper and Mr. H. Brackin also delighted the audience with an exceptionally fine duet.

It is no disparagement to the other numbers of a uniformly excellent program to mention that the magnificent solo of Miss Ada Ross was the gem of the entire evening. This accomplished young lady possesses a powerful, range and sweetness, and her delightful contribution well merited its most cordial reception.

The trio, "Praise Ye," from Verdi's Aida, was rendered by Mrs. James and W. H. and R. L. Brackin, and proved a very enjoyable number. It was accorded much applause.

The ladies' quartette, Mrs. John Cooper, Misses Clara Blight, Lillian Simpson and Ada Ross, whose splendid reputation for unaccompanied singing is already so universally recognized, won additional laurels by the excellence of their renditions last evening.

There was but one disappointment to the program—the omission of the solo, "Hosanna," by W. H. Brackin. Mr. Brackin was last evening suffering from a severe cold and, although he successfully assisted upon the program, did not attempt the splendid solo selected for him.

At the conclusion of the entertainment an excellent repast was served to those who so kindly contributed to the evening's program by the ladies of the congregation.

The program: Fiddles, M. Patahallo—Choir. Invocation—Ex-Warden Layton. Violin Solo, Largo, Handel—Mr. H. McCaw. The Lost Chord, Sir A. Sullivan—Mrs. J. Cooper. Fraise Ye, The from Atilia, Verdi—Mrs. James, Messrs. W. H. and R. L. Brackin. Ladies' Quartette, Sleep—Mrs. J. Cooper, Misses C. Blight, L. Simpson and Ada Ross. Chorus, The Heavens are Telling. Creation, Haydn—Mrs. James, Messrs. W. H. and R. L. Brackin and Choir. PART II. Violin Solo, Romance, from Second Concerto, Wacławski—Mr. H. McCaw. Chorus, How Long Will Thou Forget Me—Mr. H. Davis and Choir. Duet, When I Know that Thou art Near, F. Abt—Mrs. John Cooper and Mr. W. H. Brackin. Solo, O Jesus, Thou art Standing—Miss Ada Ross. Ladies' Quartette, One Sweetly Solen Thought, Ambrose—Mrs. J. Cooper, Misses C. Blight, L. Simpson and Ada Ross. Anthem, The Day is Past and Over, Marked, Obligate by Mrs. James and Mr. W. H. Brackin. God Save the Queen.

MUSCLE AND NOT FAT

What Thin People Need to Round off the Corners.

What thin folks need is flesh or muscle, not fat.

To be symmetrical and properly proportioned every person should have a certain amount of excess flesh, but to be plump does not necessarily mean to be fat.

Fat is undesirable; it clogs and retards the action of the muscles, interferes with the healthy action of the heart and lungs and when very excessive, predisposes to fatty degeneration of vital organs, to say nothing of the discomfort resulting from too much adipose tissue.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump the thing most needful would be flesh forming food that is, albuminous foods like eggs, beef, oatmeal, etc.

The kinds of food which make flesh are the foods we have on our tables every day; but the trouble is that our stomachs, from weakness or derangement of some kind do not promptly and properly digest it.

Really, the principal reason so many people remain thin is because their stomachs do not properly and completely digest and assimilate the flesh forming beefsteak and eggs we eat every day.

There are thousands of such people, and they are really dyspeptics, although they may not suffer any particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons and all thin people, would take after their meals some simple and natural digestive, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly digested and the proper degree of plumpness very soon result because these tablets are prepared exactly for that purpose. They digest every variety of flesh forming food, which is the real reason why they so quickly build up and strengthen thin, dyspeptic men and women.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure every form of indigestion on this common sense plan, that they thoroughly digest the food promptly, giving strength to every nerve and organ of the body and the weakened stomach a chance to rest and recover its natural vigor. Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble, except Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They make thin, dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

This excellent preparation is sold at 50c. for full treatment by all druggists in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

PUSHING HIS SUIT.

Senator Fulford After Clarke Wallace for Saying he Bought His Seat.

Toronto, Dec. 5.—The solicitor of Senator Fulford has filed his claim in his action for alleged slander against Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, which will bring before the courts the allegation that the Senator bought his seat. The statement of claims says that Mr. Fulford is a senator and a merchant; that Mr. Wallace is a professional politician, who, on Oct. 27, falsely and maliciously said that Senator Fulford paid $50,000 to the government for his title, and was advertising in Europe that he got it because of the innumerable benefits conferred on the people of Canada by his discovery in pills. Mr. Fulford asks that his case be tried at Brockville.

OVERCOAT NOISE

Noise isn't everything. The street band will ever attract more or less of a crowd, but the symphony concerts will continue to be well patronized.

Noisy claims for noisy overcoats are about as permanent in effect as the overcoats are in service. The general want is for a well-made, rightly made, genteel but up-to-date overcoat, tailored to the last notch and not beyond it.

Such Are Our Overcoats

Men's Fine Beaver Overcoats, in black and navy blue, single and double breasted, fit guaranteed, all sizes at.....$5, $7, $8, $10 and $12

Men's single breasted, fancy Cloth Overcoats in black and the new shades of gray, with and without silk facings, cut in the correct lengths, in maps, curls and chevrons.....$7, $8, $10, $12 and $13

Our claim for overcoat recognition is not based on noise. It is based on exclusiveness, merit and the fact that we made them and know them and sell them for what a dealer would have to pay if he could find their equal—and no dealer can buy ours.
