BRAZILIAN POINT.

FANCY WORK THAT IS NEW, EASY TO MAKE AND VERY USEFUL

esigns and Instructions For Doing It—It Is Worked Without a Cush-ion—A Number of Practical Uses, Launders Well on Linen.

Mark on a piece of rather lightweight pasteboard a circle about an eighth of an inch larger than you wish the com-pleted meda'lion to be. Adjust your sewing machine to its longest stitch and with coarse thread stitch around the circle. Now make a hole in the center of the circle, and you have the frame complete for your wheel. See second cut.

Take a long thread (two or three yards) and pass half through the hole in the center; hold the other end and the frame in your left hand. Begin working by passing the needle and thread through one of the machine stitches, then across to the opposite side, then back again in the alternate stitch, then back again, and so on un-til all the thread in the needle is used up; then thread it with the under thread, bring it up to the right side and proceed as before until the spokes are all complete. The end of the thread you have been working with is then passed through half of the spokes and tied securely, then tied to the loose end. In case the thread is not long enough to complete the wheel it can easily be fastened to a new needleful with a tight knot. The process, although it may seem complicated in print, will be found to be perfectly simple.

After the frame is made and spokes are all complete comes the plensant part, that of darning in the pattern. This can be as simple or elaborate as you wish, and there is practically no end to the different combinations. Fifty spokes is a good number to work with, and a yery effective wheel may be made by simply tying the spokes around in rows at four different distances from the center.

The wheels are here pictured in about two-thirds the actual size when made with rather coarse linen thread. Making them with finer thread would decrease the size, while if made of cro-chet silk they would be considerably larger. None of them is difficult to make after the worker becomes accustomed to the darning. The main thing to remember is to draw the darning threads closely and firmly to give a solid look to that part of the wheel, but at the same time one must not draw or pull the work, or it will look uneven. The beginner will find the process described for working with the pasteboard circle a somewhat easier one than that of working on a cushion and using pins, for the reason that the threads are held perfectly firm by the machine stitches until it is desired

MARING THE PRAMEWORK OF THE WHEEL. to rip the completed wheel off, while the pins might possibly be pulled out by one who is not accustomed to this weaving under and over the spoke threads in basket fashion.

Brazilian point can be used in dozens of ways as fancy work decoration and dress trimming. The wheels when dress trimming. The wheels when made of linen thread launder beautiful-ly, hence are excellent for trimming lawn or chambray dresses for little

The wheels may also be buttonholed on coarse linen canvas or butchers' linen for the decoration of shirt waists.

THE BOY OF TODAY.

One View of Him-A New Ideal of Training Suggested.

It is now generally agreed that man is expected to work out his own life problem, the age of miracles and special dispensations being long past. Therefore when the boy, from the highest social grade to the lowest, is found to be the moral inferior of the girl of his own age and station even the least thoughtful will understand that there must be grave fault in training to bring about such a result. That the case may not seem to be overstated. let representative facts be cited. For example, educators in the public schools are at the moment demanding the re turn of corporal punishment as a disciplinary measure for boys. "If the law were passed would it not have to apply also to girls?" it was answered that although it would the question was of no moment, as when a duestion was or no moment, as when a similar law was operative a few years ago not a girl had made herself eligible for rod punishment. The agitation is wholly in behalf of boys. Take another example: In Harvard university this term the dean of the Lawrence Scientific school. Professor Scientific school, Professor Shaler, appeared before the 600 students in the geology class and delivered a scathing address on their conduct toward a sub-stitute professor. This had consisted in hurling copper cents, chalk, books and old shoes. At a later lecture the missiles included two eggs. The justly indignant dean stated that during most of the thirty years he had been instructor his audiences had been made up of gentlemen, but that for the last few years classes of loafers had been coming into the university.

Now, to one who disbelieves, as all intelligent persons must, in inherent moral superiority of girls and women there must be some reason for this universal barbarism of the boy, for that is what ails him. The reason is not far to seek, and it is all epitomized in that much quoted and much eateemed maxim, "Boys will be boys." From the time, in his baby days, when he is given a drum or a trumpet or some other ear splitting, noise producing ar-ticle and encouraged to disregard the rights of others in the matter of reasonable quiet until he passes from parental control he is allowed a license and tolerated in lines of conduct which breed in him a profound contempt for the rights of any whom he may bully or override. At the bottom of all boy ish wrongdoing is that indifference to the rights of others. The remedy lies wholly with parents and educators

Let us hope the time is not far distant when the ideal for boys will be changed from "boys will be boys" (with all the licenses therein implied) to high chivalry in all things.-Vogue.

Heat and Air In the Dining Room.

The temperature of the dining room should not be as high as that in the living rooms of the house. People lose the relish for their food as much when they are compelled to eat in an over-heated room as when it is not ventilated properly. Probably the majority of people would name 70 degrees F. the proper heat for the room, but this is much too high. An authority in these matters says: "Have the room neither too cold nor too warm. The tempera ture should never exceed 60 degrees. The dining room should be well aired before dinner commences." Those who have suffered from the discomforts of an overheated room are likely to agree with this authority after making a trial of different temperatures. Serv-ants should be instructed to air the room thoroughly just before dinner and lower or raise the temperature, as the case may be, until the proper hear is obtained.

Bright's Disease, Heart Disease, Dia-betes, Dropsy and Rheumatism, are Among The Forms It Takes. Dodd's Kidney Pilis The One Remedy That Never Fails To Cure It, No Matter How or Where It Is Found.

Of all the diseases the human body has to combat in its struggle for health, the one that is steadily growing in strength and terror is Kidney Oisease. Quietly, stealthily as a serpent, it ereeps on its victim till the datter is enveloped in its folds, and the greatest obyscian the world has ever known stand helpless before it. As the last fold goes around the struggling victim and the dector shakes his head and whispers "Bright's Disease," hope fades to nothing, and the sorrowing friends feel that death has marked their loved one for its own.

The talarming increase this terrible disease is making is evidenced by the columns of almost every newspaper. For not among the lowly of by the columns of almost every newspaper. For not among the lowly of the learth alone does it look flor its victims. Statesmen, judges, eminent lawyers, and honored divines are numbered among those who in recent months have gone down to their graves with the fell marks of (this dread disease upon their bodies. In fact, so prevalent has the disease become that a selebrated New York specialist stated recently that not one person in a bundred was free from some taint of Kidney Disease.

WORKS IN SECRET. WORKS IN SECRET. C

WORKS IN SECRET.

It is the secreey of Kidney Disease that makes it the more dreaded. You can fight an enemy in the open with some chance of success, but if he is lying in wait to take you at an unwary moment your chances of successfully fighting him are terribly diminished. So it is with Kidney Disease. Its first warnings are so faint as to be hardly noticeable, a slight pain in the back that is charged up to over exertion, a slight discoloration of the urine or a burning sensation while urinating that hardly attracts attention. That is all. But that means that Kidney Disease is at work gradually eating its way into your system. The pain in the back grows more severe, the urinary trouble more complicated, swellings under the eyes and of the limbs denote the coming of Dropsy, sharp shooting pains in the joints and muscles tell that Rheumatism has you in its grasp, or perhaps aday or two's illness leads to the calland muscles tell that kneumatism has you in its grasp, or perhaps a day or two's illness leads to the call-ing of the doctor, and suddenly the terrible truth is forced upon you— Bright's Disease has you in its grasp.

Bright's Disease has you in its grasp.

WAY OF ESCAPE.

With this silent, relentlesse enemy slowly but surely eating its way into promenee and making that promenee by a yearly increase in the length of its death list, the demand of the day, of the hour, is "Show may the way of escape." Nature never put mankind in a critical condition without providing a way of escape — providing mankind were wise enough to take the way provided. In this case the way of escape is a sample vegetable remedy. It has been before the people of Canada for thirteen years, and like all the great relievers of nature, has been first received and first appreciated by the lowly in life, those known as the common people of Canada.

Is the bright and shining marks, those who are stationed above the heads of the massess. Ask the reason of that Go to the people who are practically exempt from Kidney Disease in its worst form, and ask them. With almost a single voice of a friend I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance they will reply: "We cure our Kidney Pills, and they never get a chance to develop into that terrible disease that carries so many prominent men into the grave."

ON WITH HIS WORK.

And so it is; the man who does manual labor must heal his slightest aches or they hinder him in his work. When he has backache he cures it with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and goes on with his work; when he feels a twinge of Rheumatism he drives it out of his body with Dodd's Kidney Pills—and goes on with his work. Necessity has taught him that he must cure his Kidneys to get rid of his pains, for he must work to live. He has not been educated to that standpoint where a persoription to cure must be written by a specialist at a cost of dollars to every letter. He may not even know that there never was a disease that took in all classes of the community but what nature provided a cure within the means of all classes of the community. What he does know is more to the point than all this. He knows that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure all aches which experience has taught him come from the Kidneys. He takes Dodd's Kidney Pills, and goes on with his work.
