Caution For Sale Opers House Provincial Exhibition Dominion Atlantic Ry. Halsey & Harvey Co., Ltd. Koppel's 5, 10, 15 and 20c. Store Halsey & Harvey Co., Ltd.—Special

Local Happenings.

Don't forget the 'Pantry Sale' at J. D. Chambers' store on Saturday, from 3 to 6 p. m.

A quantity of Household Furniture will be disposed of at private sale at 'Sunny Brae.'

The residence of Mr. Obed Baker, Highland avenue, has been improved by the addition of a neat verandah.

Mr. R. W. Starr brought into our office on Wednesday a stalk of orchard grass which measured a little over six feet in length. Next!

The pulpit of the Wolfville Baptist church will be occupied next Sunday, morning and evening, by Rev. E. M. A. Bleakney, of the class of '12 at Acadia.

For the convenience of those who have expressed a wish to settle accounts at that time the business department of THE ACADIAN will be open on Saturday evening next from 7 to 8.30 o'clock.

Koppel's variety store has been painted in the orthodox color, red, during the past week, and neatly lettered in white. No one coming to Wolfville should fail to pay a visit to this establishment of low and popular prices.

The new directors of the United Fruit Co. of Nova Scotia are Messrs. John Donaldson, of Port Williams, president; A. H. McMillan, of Aylesford; F. W. Bishop, of Paradise; T. L. Harvey, of Wolfville; and F. W. Johnson, of Bridgetown.

The pulpit of the Methodist church will be occupied next Sunday by Rev. Benj. Hills. Rev. Mr. Hills was formerly a pastor of this church and his many old friends will no doubt hear him on Sunday with pleasure.

A Garden Party under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire will be held on the grounds of Mrs. J. Elliot Smith this (Friday) afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock. Admission, including refreshments, 25 cents. Should the weather not be fine the party will be held on Saturday. It is hoped there may be a large attendance.

A Red Cross tea will be held on the grounds of Mr. Herbert Stairs, on Wednesday afternoon, July 14th, from 4 to 9 o'clock. Admission 25 cents to include tea with salad on strawberries. Ice-cream and home made candy served on the grounds. All who will assist the Red Cross in this worthy cause will please send their contributions to Mrs. Stairs on Wednesday morning.

We will open Saturday, the 24th, a special new line of Blouses at $1.00 and $1.25 each. J. D. CHAMBERS.

Mitchell's shoe store was burglarized on Friday night of last week. When Mr. Mitchell arrived he found evidence that the stock had been gone through pretty thoroughly and a number of articles missing. The burglar effected an entrance by breaking the office window and using a step ladder in its adjoining yard. The work was evidently that of an amateur, and it is hoped the guilty party may be detected and punished as he deserves.

Automobile for hire. Careful and competent drivers. Moderate prices. At all trains and boats. Phone 153. G. H. RUPPER.

A representative of THE ACADIAN has been calling upon subscribers in arrears during the past week and will continue the rather unpleasant task for some time. We desire to tender our best thanks to such of those as have extended to him the 'glad hand' and have helped us by promptly paying him the amounts due. We would respectfully ask similar courtesy from those upon whom he may call in future. Times may be a little hard but don't keep too firm a grasp upon the dollar; it may come back to you. If your indolence happens to cover more than one year don't blame us and don't blame the collector.

Special Sale of Ribbons, Flowers and Millinery Trimmings at J. D. CHAMBERS.

Rev. W. H. Beckham, who for the past three years has most successfully ministered to the spiritual needs of the Methodist church of this town, closed his pastorate here last Sunday and left this week for his new field of work at Springhill. He will be much missed in Wolfville, where he has taken a lively interest in whatever pertained to the public good. Rev. Mr. Beckham is a clever speaker and earnest worker and THE ACADIAN predicts for him in the larger field of his activity an even larger measure of success than attended him here. A host of friends in all denominations will follow Mr. Beckham and his estimable wife with best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

Personal Mention.

(Contributions to this department will be gladly received.) Miss Ritchie, of Halifax, has been one of the guests at Linden Cottage for some days.

Mr. Lemley Baker left on Saturday last for the South Shore, where he will spend the summer.

Mrs. J. G. VanBuskirk and little son, James, are spending some weeks at the former's old home in River John, N. S.

Mr. J. G. McCrorey has been offered and accepted a position with the United Fruit Co. Ltd., at Halifax, as bookkeeper.

Miss Isobel D. Davidson, who has been teaching for some years back at Beverly, Mass., is home for the summer vacation.

Miss Freda Graham, who for the past year has been teaching at the Kings County Academy, has returned home for the summer.

Mrs. F. P. Rockwell has been spending a few weeks in Portgreville. Miss Rockwell is enjoying a month's vacation at the same place.

Mrs. Arthur Fish, of Johnsville, Que., returned to Wolfville on Tuesday and will spend this summer with her mother, Mrs. C. F. Stewart.

Mrs. Gerald Bauld left last week for New York, whence she was called in consequence of the serious illness of her sister, who resides in that city.

Mrs. Gillmore, who has been spending the winter in Boston and vicinity, has returned to Wolfville and will make her home at the residence of Mr. J. Hayes.

Mrs. (Dr.) McKenna returned on Monday from Bridgetown, where she had been spending some days visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. Primrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Sutherland returned on Monday evening from Earlton, Colchester county, where they had been spending a few weeks at the former's old home.

Miss Edith Woodman, who has been at the Conservatory of Music, Boston, returned recently to her home in Grand Pre. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Margaret Faust, of Boston, who will spend the holidays with Miss Woodman.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Howard Bars, who spent the past winter and spring in California and other points on the Pacific coast, returned home on Thursday of last week. On their way they spent some weeks in Montreal, visiting their son, Mr. Ernest Bars, who has enlisted for service with the McGill second contingent.

Gaspereau.

Among those who have returned to spend the summer at their old home in the village is Mr. Ross Goldwell, of British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McBay have returned to their home in Gaspereau after some time spent in Sydney, C.B.

Miss Clara Martin, of the Wolfville public school teaching staff, is at her home here for the holidays.

The many friends of Miss Annie Martin gladly welcome her back after her absence of three months in the Pajant Memorial Hospital.

The Red Cross Society meets weekly at the members' homes and a great deal of sewing is being done. It is expected that a cantata will be given in the church next Sunday evening by the Port Williams choir and Hillaton quartette. Proceeds for Red Cross work.

The outlook for the apple crop is not so favorable as was promised in blossom time. The orchards here are free from canker worms, however.

Rev. Guy Bleakney, of Wolfville, was our minister last Sunday morning and evening, and was heard with much appreciation by the congregation.

An ice-cream social was held in the Hall on Tuesday evening, and was much enjoyed as it gave our people the opportunity of meeting with the summer visitors. The affair was given by the Royal Sons Bible class and the proceeds were devoted to Mission work.

Mr. Walter Daneson, of Brundage, Texas, arrived here last week on a visit to his brothers, Messrs. Wilbur and Earl Daneson, and is being welcomed by many old friends. He was accompanied by his mother, who resided in Kingston to visit her daughter, and will later spend some time in Gaspereau, her former home.

Miss Jackson returned from Boston last week and has reopened her home which has been closed since last autumn. Her niece, Mrs. Jordan Martin, of Boston, is with her for some weeks.

Miss Laura Williams, of New York, is spending the summer at the home of her sister, Mrs. Watson Miner. It is hoped by her friends here that her health, which has become impaired in her services as a professional nurse, will be fully restored.

The public examinations in our school were held June 29th, and proved to the friends who attended that good work had been done during the term. Miss Benjamin, teacher of the advanced department, is spending the vacation at her home in Gaspereau. Miss Parker, of the junior classes, has returned to her home in Belle Isle.

Funeral of J. R. MacDonald

The remains of the late Joseph R. MacDonald arrived by the afternoon train on Friday last accompanied by Mrs. MacDonald and Kenneth, the oldest son, and the funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from the residence of the deceased's mother, Mrs. R. MacDonald, Hortonville. There was a very large attendance testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held by old friends in this vicinity. Rev. G. W. Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the service at the home and the burial was made with full masonic honors, Mr. MacDonald having been an active member of St. George's Lodge while a resident of Wolfville, and retained his membership during the eight years he has been absent from this place. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful. Interment was made in the old Presbyterian cemetery at Grand Pre, beside his father who died some years ago.

Further details concerning the death of Mr. MacDonald have been received. From these we learn that he had not been well for about a week but had continued at his post. On the day of his death he complained of feeling more ill than before and on his way home from business dropped on the street about a block from his residence. A gentleman who was on the street and saw him fall went to his assistance, but found life extinct.

The deceased was a most popular official and citizen when in our town. He left here about eight years ago and has since resided in Port Arthur, Ont. The sorrowing widow and family have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends here.
