Provincial Elections

Rutherford Government Heartily Endorsed

The Provincial elections in Alberta are happily over and the expected has happened. Eight seats by acclamation to the Rutherford government supporters had given the country a cue to what was about to take place. It is evident that the satisfaction of the electors in the eight constituencies that went by acclamation has been general throughout the province. In manyfridings the opposition candidates have forfeited their deposits and in very few instances have been elected. Premier Rutherford is to be congratulated upon the very complete endorsement which his administration has received at the hands of the electors and especially because In consideration of the faithful of the almost unanimous support ency.
