

ACTRESS' LETTER A DEATH WARRANT.

Did Epistle Send Mrs. Bradley on Murder Mission to Washington?

Text of the Letter Which This Woman Wrote to Senator Brown.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The cross-examination of Mrs. Bradley, in her trial on the charge of murdering former Senator Arthur Brown of Utah, was resumed at 10.10 a.m. to-day. Mrs. Bradley testified that Brown and she had frequently quarrelled and on one occasion she struck him in the mouth with an umbrella, because of cruel things said to her. Mrs. Bradley's cross-examination was concluded at 11.22. Previous to going under cross-examination Mrs. Bradley had related the dramatic story of the shooting, and with downcast and tearful eyes had identified more than one hundred letters that had passed between the Senator and herself, as well as the letter from Mrs. Annie Adams to Brown, which is described as the immediate cause of the tragedy. In these passages of her letters she was as tender as later she became defiant. It is this that makes the woman so remarkable. In two days she has run the entire gamut of the passions. Watchers have seen her eyes alight with the flame of love and her face ablaze with angry passion. The fact that upon going to Brown's room at the Raleigh Hotel, Mrs. Bradley found there a letter from Mrs. Annie Adams, the actress, to the ex-senator, was dwelt on at some length by Judge Powers, making it evident that he means to attempt to show that the discovery of this letter was the immediate motive for Mrs. Bradley's killing Brown. The letter was read at length by Mr. Wells and was as follows: "Saturday, p. m., Dec. 1, '06. Philadelphia, Pa. "My Dearest, my Dearest—The world seems to have taken another hue, because perchance I've heard you from you, which means so much. I was, as I told you, very fearful of the contrast at the house and sorry it could not have been avoided. I think your idea of living there must be given up. I wonder at gates being open as passed—bolts and bars would seem the proper thing. For misguided soul who can't see better results from a more dignified procedure and give what courage and strength it requires for continued onslaughts, I wish the winter were over. "I do hope you can arrange a change of date for ease mentioned, but do not worry more than necessary. What is to be will be, and right must prevail in the end—so they tell us. I shall not be in the bill week after next, 10th, and they say for four or five weeks, or until Boston, and may stay in New York or I please. Will you definitely next week write you at W. I do so wish you to have a pleasant time in New York and trust time shall be arranged. I fear this will hardly reach you before leaving S. L., and may send it to W. instead if address comes and it should by Monday—you say—I must hate with your late, love with your love—love you the latter part so glad, have been feeling for you, and you are all, so you see, there is no room for aught else, that is my religion, and you and I are to become true believers in the divine command love ye one another—belovest thou this? I answer you weekly. I spent Thanksgiving Day giving thanks for you and my very happy state of feeling, which one year ago I never dreamed could be possible—I seem too sweet to be real. I am not going to send this until I get address, so possess my soul in patience. "Fifth.—So surprised to learn you are on route to see glad, have been feeling for you at length of my movements. I think we leave here early on Sunday, 9th, or Monday, for N. J. My cousin, too, has written me she is coming on to N. J. from Canada; however, will arrange—and write you fully—how soon must you get back home? Let me know, either here or Empire Theatre, N. Y. Must get to work, love dear heart—answer. "Amie." "Please return clipping." The only other letters read during the trial were three from Mrs. Bradley to Brown which were introduced by Mr. Baker as a part of his cross-examination. Extracts from letters of Mrs. Bradley to Senator Brown were read, in which the names of Schroeder, Evans, McGuire and "The Priest" were mentioned. Mrs. Bradley declared that Senator Brown's jealousy of these men was not justified. She added that she knew these gentlemen would be astonished to learn that their names had been referred to. When the relations between herself and Senator Brown first became known to Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bradley said that the Senator instantly advised her to say nothing and deny everything. Mrs. Bradley left the stand at 12.25, her testimony having been concluded. Recess was then taken.

CAT ESCAPED But House Was Blown Up in the Chase to Put it Out.

Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 20.—The efforts of George Doherty, aged 16, who lives at Jamison Works, No. 3, to put the family cat out of the house at midnight probably will result in the death of himself and Carl Oroco. Three other men were also injured before the affair was over. The five men occupied a room in a boarding house at the works, and the cat entered about midnight, got under the bed and began to mew. The boy took a lamp and crawled under the bed after the animal. The lamp exploded and set off two kegs of powder which almost blew the house to atoms. The cat escaped injury.

LIBERALISM AND LABOR. WRONG CONSTRUCTION PLACED ON MR. CHISHOLM'S WORDS.

He Thinks Their Interests Are One and There Should be the Closest Alliance Between Them. That portion of Mr. James Chisholm's address at the Liberal Association's annual meeting on Tuesday evening in reference to Liberals and labor, is being misconstrued. What Mr. Chisholm said was that, speaking as an individual, he could see no need for a three cornered contest. There should be no chasm between Liberalism and Labor. Labor owed almost everything it had ever obtained in the shape of beneficial legislation to the Liberals, and the Liberal party could and would support labor in all its reasonable demands. For that reason there should be the closest alliance between Liberalism and labor, the labor party supporting Liberalism, from which it received all its benefits.

WANTS A JOB But Does Not Want to Be Her Employer's Sweetheart.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—"I want to be somebody's stenographer or bookkeeper, not his sweetheart. If there is a man in Chicago who needs help and would rather have a girl attending to business than making eyes, I would like to hear from him." The foregoing is part of an advertisement brought to the business office of an afternoon paper to-day. The writer was Miss Julia G. Dunkirk, who came from Indianapolis a few days ago to seek employment. In her quest for work, she said, so many men tried to make love to her, that she decided to advertise as above.

TERRIBLE DEED. Woman Kills Herself and Her Two Young Sons.

Newton, Mass., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Jessie T. Hedges, wife of William T. Hedges, killed herself and her two sons, William, aged 11, and Butler, aged 6, by asphyxiation, at her home, in Newtonville, some time during the night. All cracks in doors and windows had been plugged and the gas turned on. Mr. Hedges was away on a business trip.

INSANE MOTHER CUTS BABE'S THROATS FROM EAR TO EAR.

Watches Slaughter of Hogs, Then Goes to Her Home and Slashes Throats of Children.

Canandaigua, Nov. 21.—After watching asked his wife where they were. She hog killing in progress on her husband's just laughed and would not give him farm Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, who lives near the Ontario county line, went to her home and cut the throats of two of her children with a butcher knife, killing one and probably fatally wounding the other. Thomas, with several assistants was killing pigs at a slaughter house a short distance from his home when his wife came out to witness the operation. She stood nearby and apparently took a morbid delight in seeing the animals being stuck with the knife. She watched every move carefully and studied the method of cutting the throats, asking many questions to satisfy her curiosity. Before the slaughtering had been finished she left the scene and went to the house, as her husband thought, to prepare the dinner. About noon the husband went home to dinner, and, missing his children,

INITIATED TEN. Unity Lodge Now Membership of 570.

Unity Lodge, I. O. O. F., met last night and initiated ten candidates, bringing the membership up to 570. The work was done by Past Grand of the lodge, some of whom had not occupied the chairs for 25 years. The attendance was large, the hall being filled. The meeting was a splendid success. After degree work a programme was presented, consisting of singing and addresses by the newly-initiated candidates, the principal speaker being Bro. W. A. Spratt. Several of the visitors also spoke, and P. G. Bros. Chas. H. Mann, D. D. G. M., gave an address. Bro. J. Ledrew entertained the crowd with a recitation, and Bros. John Syme and Stevenson gave a fine exhibition of fencing.

Seven Killed. Kenora, Ont., Nov. 21.—Word reached here late last night of a terrific explosion in the G. T. P. construction camp, No. 6, about 5 o'clock, in which seven were killed and four injured. The explosion occurred at Phillips' camp, about twenty miles from Dryden, but from the news to hand it is not known whether it was a blasting mishap or a magazine explosion. Drs. W. J. and J. R. Munne, of Kenora, and Dr. Chapman, the coroner, left last evening immediately after receipt here of the news of the disaster, and the details will not be known until they return.

BIG STORM COMING. Expected to Centre Around Lakes Erie and Ontario.

Reports from the weather bureau indicate that the rain of last night and the wind of to-day are the forerunners of a severe three-day storm. Cautionary signals have been ordered up at all the Canadian lake ports. Already a great storm is sweeping across the southwestern States, in a southeasterly direction, while another storm is on the upper great lakes. The weather bureau at Toronto predicts that these storms will meet in the region of Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. The storm has reached a velocity of 40 to 44 miles per hour at Chicago, and a heavy gale is blowing at Cleveland, while on Lakes Superior and Huron and in Manitoba a terrific gale is raging. Navigation has not closed on the lakes and it is feared that many vessels, which have not been warned, will not be able to reach shelter, and will have a rough time of it.

TO RETAIN OFFICE. Street Railway Company Keeps Gore Street Office.

The former Street Railway offices at the corner of James and Gore streets will be retained by the company as a waiting room for the motormen and conductors. As all the city cars pass that corner it is more convenient than the Terminal Station for the men to relieve one another and to get change and tickets. Two clerks will be kept there for that purpose, and Superintendent Miller will make his headquarters there. The announcement made last night that after Dec. 1 the big Barton street cars will run along King street east, instead of going around the James street bend, was well received by southeasters, who have been complaining of the service for some time. The south-siders have no complaint about the Barton street cars being taken off the James street line. The street car lines were tied up off and on from 11 to 1 o'clock to-day, the power being off. The absence of cars at the noon hour helped the business of the uptown restaurants and lunch counters.

SCHOLARS MUST NOT SING OF CHRIST OR CHRISTMAS.

All Mention of These Removed From Hymns and Carols in New York Public Schools.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Herald to-day says: Orders that no hymn or carol containing mention of Christ or Christians shall henceforth be sung in the public schools of New York, were given yesterday by the Board of Education. Following the announcement protests were uttered in every section of the city. Emphatic instructions were given by Frank R. Rix, general musical director, to all the teachers under him that in no circumstances, during the approaching Christmases, particularly, are they to permit pupils to sing any song that shall contain any word or phrase which would accentuate religious significance. That all sectarian references which include the name Christ, and mention of Christmas are being eliminated from the song books in use in the public schools of the city, was a surprising bit of information, which was disclosed with the announcement of Mr. Rix's action of yesterday. All the books are now in the hands of printers for revision. The decision by the Board of Education to take the radical step resulted from the agitation of a year ago, when a representation of orthodox Hebrews appeared before the board and complained that the Christmas festival, as celebrated in the schools was essentially sectarian. At that time no action was taken. The matter was referred to the Committee on Elementary Schools, of which Abraham Stern is chairman, and that committee reported recently in favor of eliminating all sectarian reference from the song books. The report was adopted by the Board of Superintendents.

At Britannia Rink. A large crowd was in attendance at the matinee and evening sessions at the Britannia Rink yesterday, taking part and watching the graceful skaters as they glided over the large surface. The selections for the gentlemen's competition on Friday evening were W. Hyde and Loek McMaster. The judges were Messrs. Smith, Somerville and Walper.

COSTLY CHINESE. Vladivostok, Nov. 21.—The Chinese commercial agent, in behalf of his government, has demanded an indemnity of $12,500 for the death of a Chinese, who was killed during the recent mutiny of Russian sailors here.

The Man In Overalls

Barker and Pritchett. It was but natural that the coppers should capture copper thieves. Muzzle the Times, then do it in the dark. Weed out the weeds. Whitney is a better promisee than he is a performer. The high level bridge was just the place for high-waymen operating. Ald. Farrar should be merciful. Must the City Engineer go? If Mr. S. Barker promised Pritchett immunity from prosecution for his crimes, wasn't he perverting justice? This continual cry of graft by the Tory heeled and speakers is giving the country a bad name. There was a lot of wire-pulling yesterday before the police arrested the alleged wire thieves. I thought the North End Improvement Society was to wind up the season with a dance over at the revivment wall. But I have heard no more about it lately. And Beck didn't know any better! Hundreds of thousands needed for good roads and electric pumps, and more hundreds of thousands for the hydro power scheme. Do the aldermen think that the citizens are made of money? Talking of "knocking," the Times never canvassed the patients and members of the Consumption Sanitarium, so that it could get a hit at the good ladies who are managing it. Statesmen are proverbially long-lived. With proper care Sir Wilfrid should be able to run along smoothly for another twenty years. Sealey seems to be the only one in sight so far. It's not the "Black Hand," it's the "Black Hand" in a waylaying people at the high level bridge. Now if the Spec. really wants to show the public how much of a fraud the sucker is, why doesn't it stick it in its window? Is it afraid? Fat pocketbooks are now in demand for the Christmas season. Whitney promises to abolish the prison labor contract. Is that another promise or a bribe? But how could Mr. Barker promise Pritchett immunity from prosecution? To do that would be to tamper with justice. "Bongard for Mayor" may be the Spectator's next college yell. Chief Smith now points with pride to the doings of the police the past few days. Fire a volley. Holy smoke, Adam Beck, did you never read the Power Act?

HE WILL NOT ALLOW MUSSING OF BASINS.

Trades and Labor Delegates Will Not be Permitted to Disturb the Water There.

Well Known Citizens Tried to Buy Park Lands For Speculation Purposss.

It looks as if another storm was brewing over the filtering basins. Last night the Fire and Water Committee granted the Trades and Labor people permission to go down there and make an inspection. This morning City Engineer Barrow instructed Caretaker Myles Hunting that the property was not to be mussed up by people tramping along the sides of the banks and stirring the water up. "I am not going to let every Tom, Dick and Harry go down and muss the basins up. The line has to be drawn somewhere, and I am going to draw it," declared the Engineer to-day, with considerable emphasis. "When the Trades and Labor people go down there on Friday morning I have instructed Mr. Hunting to afford them every facility for seeing all that is to be seen, but there is to be no raking of the basins, and I have issued orders to that effect." Mr. Barrow says he does not want the water that people have to drink raked and stirred up every time anyone takes a notion to do it. He expects that his action will cause a row, but declares that he is going to remain firm. After a meeting of the Civic Committee of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon the reports of the sub-committee appointed to get options on land along the mountain brow, in connection with the big park and driveway scheme, projected by those who would like to see the beauty of the mountain face preserved, were presented and proved very satisfactory. With one or two exceptions, it was reported, the property owners seemed quite alive to the benefit their property would accrue from the improvements that would be made. It was reported that some enterprising citizens, in view of the park scheme, had approached the property owners, with the intention of buying the land for speculation, but had not received any encouragement in that direction. The secretary of the Board of Trade was instructed to write the Parks Board, asking that a day be named when the commissioners would receive a strong deputation appointed to lay the matter before them. Those interested in the scheme say that some of the property owners have been generous almost to a fault, and that there seems to be general approbation among all classes in the city that the face of the mountain should be preserved, especially as the scheme being promoted will save two fine pieces of land for park property. The Fire and Water Committee has accepted the resignation of Fireman Cook. James O'Dornan has been appointed permanently, and Albert Whitney, William Swain and Everett Fisher put on the probation list. The chief has been granted permission to have minor repairs made to the stations. The big aerial truck wrecked in an accident in the spring will be advertised for sale, and also the old Merryweather ladder. The Finance Committee to-night the by-law fixing polling places and appointing deputy returning officers for the municipal elections will be dealt with. Other matters to be considered include the request from the Queen Victoria Statue Committee for the city to pay the expenses in connection with the visit of the Governor-General; the by-law re public health and an application for a grant to assist in opening a school to teach the English language to foreigners. The following building permits have been issued: Mr. Webb for two brick houses at the corner of New and Elizabeth streets, $3,500. Frid Brothers, addition to Foster Pottery, Main street west, $1,100. Fowler Canadian Company, power house adjoining factory, $5,000. Munro & Mead, alterations to buildings 8, 10, 12 and 14 James street south, for J. L. Counsell, $1,200.

JAKE SUNFIELD'S UNCLE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Wife of the Condemned Murderer Writes Her Forgiveness.

Judging from the tone of a letter that Mrs. Mary Tamillo, of Chicago, has sent to Jake Tamillo, alias Sunfield, who is under sentence of death at the local jail, the feeling of the wife of the murderer is changing toward the man who ill-treated her and her children as the day set for the execution approaches. About two weeks ago she wrote to him, but there was little sympathy expressed in the letter for the doomed man. So far as can be learned Sunfield didn't reply to this letter, yet within the past two or three days the poor woman has sent him another missive. The letter reads as follows: "Dear Jake Tamillo—I must drop you a few lines and tell you that this is no fault of mine, that you are there behind the bars. You did not want to take care of your children and now you must suffer and I must tell you that you cannot write to the children as they don't get no letters. You can write it to me and I will tell them. "I will forgive you all that you have done to me and the children and I hope that you will enjoy yourself in the other world. I am very sorry to say that you die, but it cannot be helped. I send you the best regards of all the children, they are all getting fat and they have good care. Answer as soon as you can for I am waiting for answers. I am very sorry to write to me. I sent you back the letter you sent me in September and I saved that. This is all for to-night, so good-bye. "Jake, your uncle Frank Tamillo has killed himself and has been buried. Mrs. Radzky is at home in Canada. Write. Mary Tamillo." The letter referred to in this communication is one that she sent back to him in her former letter. It was sent to her a year ago last September, a few months after Sunfield's counsel for her to leave and her children to Chicago. In this letter Sunfield asked her for some money and promised to join her in Chicago at no distant date. Unless the Court of Appeal grants the application of Sunfield's counsel for leave to appeal, the execution will take place a week from tomorrow.

PREDICTS A BIG SLUMP IN THE BUTTER MARKET.

Supply Good and Demand Decreased—Some Farmers Selling Their Cattle.

Beamsville, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Your correspondent was in the vicinity of Ridgeway, and Welland, on Tuesday, and through a portion of Southern Lincoln, all a fair stock and dairy country, and it is an enigma how butter is kept up at so high a price, when so little is being shipped out of the country. The supply seems great enough, and the demand has sensibly decreased, owing to the greater economy in its use, and the inability of the poor any longer to indulge in so expensive a luxury. Several dairymen told me that, owing to the scarcity of fodder, and the high price of grain, farmers have been crowding their cattle on the market. Still, grass is very much improved in all portions of the peninsula from a month ago, and if the winter is at all open it will be a great help in getting stock through this year. Twenty-two car loads of stock, a large number of them cows, passed through Welland station a few days ago for the Buffalo market. With butter worth 30 cents a pound, the owners must have been hard pushed or they would not have parted with them. Many country store keepers are now receiving consignments of butter from the dairies, and retail it at 35 cents a pound, and to farmers at that. Hitherto the same merchants have been overrun with butter. "If the butter speculators come to grief, it will serve them right," said a dealer on the St. Catharines market. "Some farmers, too, are holding, and may be compelled to sell in short order at reduced prices. It is quite probable that butter advanced much higher than the real state of the market warranted, and eggs, and a reaction will be the natural consequence." "What about the importations of Irish butter?" he was asked. "It is possible that the butter was brought in, and can be brought in, as reported, but it is quite evident that those who import it will find it a losing business. I am disposed to think it a story got up by the dealers for the purpose of frightening the holders of butter. At any rate, Europe cannot afford to dispose of any great quantity of dairy produce, as the consumption there is at all times equal to, if not greater than, the supply," he said.

MRS. HARTJE WINS. Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—The Superior Court to-day decided the Hartje divorce case in favor of Mrs. Hartje.
