DISTRESS IN TUSCANY.—Accounts from Tuscany represent a fearful state of increasing distress, caused partly by bad harvests, partly by cholera, and partly by misgovernment. Already the people in Florence and its neighbourhood were seeking refuge in crime from impending starvation, and the other day a Mr. Corrie, an Englishman, was found murdered in his bed, in Florence, by persons who had evidently done so for the sake of plunder. It would be utterly unjust to impute the aggravated misfortunes the people of Tuscany now suffer to one alone of the causes mentioned. A succession of bad harvests has done severe injury to the agriculturists; the cholera has deprived many families of their main support, for it has been peculiarly destructive to men in Florence this year; the government has destroyed confidence, and consequently crippled trade during the last seven years, and all these causes combined are likely to produce a winter of unparalleled suffering in Tuscany.

SUN-FISH OR BASKING SHARK.—Some twenty-five years since, the capture of this valuable fish was prosecuted very successfully from Lunis Buffin and the vicinity of Westport, at which town, as well as Newport, there were works erected for frying out the oil. About that date, as much as five pipes of oil of 120 gallons were received by one Dublin house alone per season. It has much decreased of late years, which is attributable rather to the decline of the means of pursuit than to the absence of the fish, as it is seen every year in large numbers on the distant banks, and occasionally close to the shore, in packs of twenty-five or thirty, in very fine weather. There were four taken at Galway this year, and many were seen in the vicinity of the Arran Islands. The average size is about 95 feet long by 18 in circumference in the largest part, the shape resembling a shark. The liver has hitherto been considered the only valuable part, averaging thirty hundred weights, and containing about 180 gallons of fine oil, second only to sperm, and selling from 4s. to 5sper gallon. The carcass, which may be estimated at from four to five tons, is of a gelatinous character, consequently of great value: it is now thrown away as useless. Neither skill nor courage is required in the capture; it being of a sluggish nature and literally presenting its most vulnerable part to the harpoon.—Symonds's Observations on the Fisheries of the West Coast of Ireland.

SUCCESSFUL AUTHORSHIP.—It is supposed that with the exception of the Bible, the lexicographic works of Noah Webster have the largest circulation of any books in the English language.
No title is ever hundred thousand copies of Webster's Spelling Book were sold by one firm in New York last year, and it is estimated that more than ten times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series in this country. Five-fifths of all the school books published in the United States are said to own Webster, as their standard. The State of New York has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary in as many of her public schools.
Massachusetts has, in like manner, supplied 3248 of her schools; and Wisconsin and New Jersey all their schools.

JEWISH SCHOOL.—An important movement, according to the London Morning Herald, is in progress amongst the most influential of the English Jews for the establishment of a college for the education of members of the ancient faith in London. With a view of obtaining degrees in the London University, attendance on the classical classes of University College is to be part of the scheme. Hebrew and theology are to be placed under the direction of the Chief Rabbi.
A school is to be established in connexion with the college. Premises have been taken in Finsbury Square.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—A wedding lately came off at Memphis, Tennessee, which was the ninth occasion on which the bride had been made happy by matrimony.

A child upwards of 4 years of age came to his death at St. Stephen a few days ago by being shot through the head with a loaded musket, with which he and an older boy were playing. Another caution to parents and guardians.

RUSSIAN ADVENTURES.—Measures of great severity have just been ordered by the Czar against those who continue to reside abroad.
In Livonia, the estates of several noblemen who reside abroad have been placed under guardianship, although their term of permission has not expired. According to a communication lately made to the authorities, the Emperor is determined to put an end to the mania of absenteeism on the part of the Russian nobles.
In case of any landowner remaining abroad without leave, the tribunals will manage the estates, and render an account of the revenues to the owners for one year, at the expiration of which term, the estates, if the owners still remain abroad, will be confiscated, unless particular circumstances can be brought forward to justify a longer delay being granted.

The Great American Hair Tonic.

Bogle's celebrated Hyperion Fluid, for the growth and preservation of the Hair is well known to be without a rival on this continent. Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair restorative, and their doom been sealed, whilst Bogle's Hyperion Hair Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on "conquering and to conquer." There is no malady, which can affect the Hair, but can be cured by this incomparable preparation. To ladies it is invaluable; and on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of Hair. It is now patronized by Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and commands an extensive sale throughout Europe.
Bogle's Electric Hair Dye converts red or grey hair into a beautiful black or brown, the moment it is applied, literally dyeing the hair without staining the skin and leaves the Hair soft and glossy without injuring its texture in the least; a decided superiority over all other Hair dyes.
Bogle's Amole Shaving compound renders that usually unpleasant operation (shaving) a decided luxury.
Bogle's Hebesions removes Freckles and tan from the face in the shortest possible time, and is acknowledged to be the very best article for beautifying the complexion.
To be had, wholesale or retail, of W. Bogle, 227, Washington street, Boston, U. S.
And by all Druggists and perfumers throughout the Canadian, United States and Great Britain. W. B.

M'LEAN'S WORM SPECIFIC.

The following, from a customer, shows the demand which this great medicine has created tail) from some local agent. If you would compensate a person for trouble and expence of vending, I think I could make it to your advantage to do so.
