Geo. Simpson, of McGillivray, recently made a remarkable discovery. When digging on his farm he struck on a large stone, and after clearing the dirt away discovered a petrified man. The being must have belonged to a race long since extinct, as it measured. That 44 inches in height, and was almost 7 feet 44 inches in height, and was almost perfect in form. Parts of the body are white and the rest has turned a dark greyish colour. Mr. Simpson brought the figure to Parkhill and placed it in the grocery store of his son, where large numbers of people call every day to see it. It is one of the greatest puriosities ever seen in this country. Mr. Simpson is negotiating with the managers of the Zoo, in Toronto, for the sain of his muri-

OTTAWA, March 21.—It is understood that Lieut.—Col. Masson, Chairman of the Council of the Dominion Rifle Association, has offered the command of this year's Wimbledon team to Capt. Perley, of the New Brunswick Engineers. Capt. Perley is well known among the force for the interest he has taken in military matters and as an experienced rifleman. This is the first time the command has been given to this important branch of the military service. Capt. Perley is Chief Engineer of the Public Works Department in Ottawa. The position of second in command has been offered to Capt. Bossé, of the 65th Regiment, Monttreal. Every rifleman will recognize the fitness of these two appointments.

Death of a Respectable Woman in a Police Cell, Montreal, March 22.—A married woman named Johanna Medcalf was taken to a police station here last night by her husband for shelter, as he said the woman who gave them a room free while he was out of work would not let them in because his wife bad been drinking. The husband further said that his wife being ill he fook her to the hospital, but the authorities there would not admit her, and he had no alternative but to leave her in the cell of the police office. The sergeant consented, but this morning the voluntary presour took ill, and before a doctor could attend she expired. The coroner held an inquest, and the jury seturned a verdict of congestion of the lungs.

A Disgraceful Case.

James Minto, a Scotch mechanic, who arrived in Montreal recently with a girl about 14 years of age whom he passed off as his wife, was arrested and brought before the Police Court for abduction. The detectives, finding out their true relations from the victim of the moueter's perfidy, she was brought up and related in the presence of the Magistrate the following and story of her ruin :—Witness said the accused was her own undle, a brother of her mother's, and a married man with a family. He used his influence to get her to clope from home 'at an early hour in the morning, under the plea that when they arrived in America he would marry her. They sailed from Glasgow, and have passed ever since as man and wife. On arriving in New York they came direct here, where they put up at a private boat ing house. The unfortunate girl seems to realize her position; and has wept bitter tears of contrition. The brutal uncle has nothing to say for himself. He will be held until the parents of his victim are heard from.

MARITIME PROVINCES.

The Legislature of Newfoundland, in retaliation for the measure passed by the Dominion Parliament last session for the inspection of fish imported from the island, have imposed a duty of one hundred per cent. on all merchandise packages from Canada.

Some breezy scenes have lately enlivened proceedings in the New Brunswick Legislature. While in Committee of Supply theother day a hot passage at arms ensued on a small item for somebody's coach hire during the vioeregal visit. Some idea of the warmth of the language used may be gathered from the fact that it was, if possible, worse than that of Mr. Fraser in our own House.

In the New Brunswick House of Assembly last week Hon. Mr. Blair, Attorney-General, gave motice of a motion for the appointment of a committee to act in conjunction with a committee of the other branch of the Legislature in the preparation of a joint address to the Governor-General upon the financial position of the province and its just claims upon the consideration of the General Government, and also for a committee of three to prepare an address in like manner upon the subject of the short term prisoners in the province.

In the New Brunswick House of Assembly Saturday, on motion of Hon. Mr. Blair, a committee of three were appointed to prepare an address to the Dominion Government with reference to short term prisoners in this province. Messrs Blair, Ritchie, and Stockton are the committee. Mr. Ellis, member for St. John, gave notice of a resolution calling the attention of the executive to the fact that under a provision of the Act of Confederation a Senator for Canada should be resident in the province for which he has been appointed, that Senator O'Dell from this province is a resident of Halifax, and asking the Executive to bring the matter before the Dominion Government.

Mr. Fraser asked witness what he understood by the statement of Wilkinson that he ad left Toronto for good.

Mr. Goldie said he did not think it meant anything; he had not formed any opinion of it. He could not tell why Wilkinson had written to him after he (Mr. Goldie) had washed his hands of the affair. There was nothing in the letter to indicate that he (Wilkinson) had failed in carrying out what he had intended. There was no reference at all to political matters. That was the dnly letter he had received. He had received no letter from Mr. Bunting nor any communication other than what he had mentioned. He had no knowledge of an application having been made to his father to hold any paper. If such an application had been made he would have known it. He could not give any particular reason for not signing his name to the letter to Wilkinson. He had written the letter in a hurry, and had had no intention of leaving the letter unsigned.

To Mr. Meredith—He had never seen the man before, but Mr. Shields told him he was Stimson. Those large bills did not become much worn. The Dominion notes were issued at the Receiver-General's office.

Mr. Franks asked whether anyone having a cheque from the Dominion Government would be able to get those notes.

Witness replied that a cheque from the Dominion Government would be upon any chartered bank. Anyone was at liberty to ask for legal tender notes in exchange for bank notes. Shields told him pasterday that Stimson was the man who was with him.

Banks kept these notes on hand and issued them on demand. They were supplied to the assistant receivers from the head office. The committee then adjourned until Mon-

IN THE POLICE COURT.

On Friday morning, when the case was called, the court-room was crowded with spectators, who manifested a lively interest in the proceedings, many of them with difficulty restraining their appreciation of the numerous points dragged out of the witnesses damaging to themselves. The first witnesses damaging to themselves. The first witness called was Robert McKim, whose testimony was based upon his statement made before the Legislative Committee, and printed above. He was followed by other witnesses, but again called to the stand and subjected to rigid cross-examinations, which appear in today's proceedings.

SECOND-DAY. Inspector Ward's Testimony.

Inspector Ward's Testimony.

Inspector Ward being called, identified the papers produced as having been taken from the possession of Messrs. Wilkinson and Kirkland when these gentlemen were brought to No. 2 police station on the night of the 17th inst. (They were marked as Exhibits A. B., C. etc., by the Police Magistrate.)

To Dr. McMichael—Wilkinson was brought to No. 2 police station by Government Detective Rogers; a warrant for his arrest had been issued by the Police Magistrate; he did not know who had sworn out the warrant; Detective Murray did not belong to the city police force, he believed he was a Government detective; when prisoners were brought to a police station they were searched to see that they had no dangerous weapons about them; this was the chief object, but they were also searched for valuables; there was no warrant ordering the search of the they were also searched for valuables; there was no warrant ordering the search of the prisoners, it was merely the custom; when a msn,was released it was customary to give him back his property and get a receipt for it, but if a man was arrested on a charge of ielony the property was not returned; he (witness) carried the letters produced up to the House of Parliament; he had a subpeena from the House to de so.
