

LOCAL

(Monday's Daily)

A new sidewalk has been completed on the south side of Sutherland street from Namoy avenue east.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Anne Jane Watson took place yesterday from her late residence 629 Rice street to the Edmonton cemetery.

M. J. Crough, late of the Victoria hotel, left on Friday for California, where he will spend the winter. During his absence John Rae will have charge of his business interests in the city.

Another business venture has been established in the West end, J. E. McCarthy, late of Trail, B.C., has opened up as a general merchant on the north side of Jasper, between 8th and 9th streets.

Westward Ho Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire graciously sent the busheled club for the voluntary Thanksgiving offering of the generous sum of $38.25 to the ambulance fund.

J. A. McLean, formerly with the Edmonton Real Estate Co., and Jas. Driscoll, will open a real estate office in the new Kerr-Rattenbury building at the corner of Jasper and Third street. They hope to be in business by tomorrow morning.

A couple of cases of smallpox are reported from Fort Saskatchewan among the halfbreeds there and Dr. Cleland is going down this afternoon to investigate. Dr. Aylin discovered the cases and pronounced them smallpox in a mild form. They have been properly quarantined and every precaution taken to prevent contagion.

The funeral of Mrs. Alice B. Cough, of Strathcona, took place on Saturday, Oct. 20th, to St. Anthony's cemetery. Mrs. Cough had been in poor health for some time before her death, and died after a critical operation at Misericordia hospital, Edmonton. Mrs. Cough was a sister of Mrs. Scarborough and Messrs. William, Patrick and Cal. Keough, of Strathcona.

The public school concert in aid of the piano fund will be held this week on Wednesday evening in the Thistle rink. The teachers and pupils are to be congratulated in obtaining such famous artists as Harold Jarvis and Wallace Graham. Of Mr. Jarvis the Manitoba Free Press says: "It would be folly at this date to discuss the quality of his voice or his standing as an artist. A few years ago he sang his way into the hearts of the west and each visit has added to the long list of admirers and friends. He devotes a portion of every program to the children, and is loved by the mass of the people, songs of exquisite melody and of which the words are familiar to every one."

The Westminster Abbey choir appear this evening in the addition to the opera house. The choir comprises twenty singers, and their program will include solos, trios and choruses. A special feature is the boy chorists—four boys, aged from nine to twelve years of age, who give a splendid selection of nursery songs. Other features will be an old English ballad by Miss Marie Hood, contralto, Edward Erasmie, tenor, and musical sketches by Miss Mary Irvine. The choir is chosen from those who sang at the coronation services of King Edward in the famous abbey at Westminster.

L.O.L. No. 1794 meets in Houston's Hall in regular session tonight.

The fine sunny afternoon has tempted the little yellow butterflies to fill around and numerous ones were seen this afternoon and evening.

The publicity committee of the house to house visitation scene, will meet in Col. E. B. Edwards' office Tuesday evening at 8.30. This committee comprises a representative from each of the city publications with Col. Edwards as convener.

Rev. C. A. Meyer delivered a thanksgiving address in Queen's avenue Presbyterian church last evening. He gave a brief resume of the many reasons that Canadians have at the present time for a general thanksgiving. The dominant note in his address was that it is not material but spiritual things which make for lasting greatness.

J. B. Miller, of Eureka, California, arrived in the city last Thursday. He intended to look over the Edmonton district, but his journey from Calgary to Edmonton convinced him that the country was too rugged and he left on the next train for home to bring his family here and settle near Edmonton.

Mr. Robt. C. McLaughlin, who lives sixteen miles from Paken, in renewing his subscription, states that in his district, called Wabashanor, over fifty families have come in there in the last two seasons.

It is estimated that from two hundred and fifty to three hundred workers will be necessary to erect the house-to-house visitation on behalf of the churches. It is proposed to do all this visiting in one afternoon. The date will be decided as soon as the executive committee receive the names of workers appointed by the various churches.

The executive committee of the Edmonton Hockey club will meet at Dr. Strong's office at 8.30 this evening to arrange for the annual meeting, which will probably be fixed for some time later this week.

Architect Adams, of the Dominion service, who has been superintending work at the Edmonton penitentiary for several months past, leaves today for Stony Mountain and from there will go to Ottawa.

Countess Hoyas, of Austria, is registered at the Alberta hotel today and it is reported that upon the results of her observations and investigations here depends the establishment of a large colony of her fellow-countrymen. The countess when seen today did not care to do any talking for publication.

Mr. Wm. Cust, of St. Albert, was in the city today and called at the Bulletin office. It is over 30 years since Mr. Cust came to St. Albert and has been holding his crop since last year to ship it out by the railway. He has at present 4,500 bushels of oats and 2,500 bushels of wheat in his granaries.

The deal announced concerning the purchase by Hardisty Bros. of the Edmonton Cartage Company's entire business goes into effect today. The teams, drays and equipment passed into the hands of Hardisty Bros. today. Hardisty Bros. began their cartage and transportation business last February and now have about forty teams and two stables. One stable is situated on Second street and the other at the Market square. This stable is large enough to house eighty horses. Since the first of August the firm have handled the C. P. R. freight from Edmonton to the Strathcona station for shipment. The firm intend in the near future to establish offices at the C. P. R. and C. N. R. yards for the transaction of their business and to erect a derrick at the C. N. R. for unloading heavy freight. They already operate one at the C. P. R. yards which lately belonged to the Edmonton Cartage Co.

(Tuesday's Daily)

Five drunks were cited in the police court this morning. The Edmonton Camp No. 25 Woodmen of the World, had their regular meeting in Unity Hall, Sandison Block this evening.

Two new planes have been added to the equipment of Alberta College, and seven new typewriters in the commercial department.

A masquerade party will be held in Rennie's Academy for dancing on Halloween night at which prizes will be given to the best costumes.

Mr. G. Kriner left yesterday afternoon with a party of six homesteaders from Iowa and South Dakota for the Pembina district. A party of five more followed them this morning.

D. R. Fraser announced that his mill yards will be closed to all traffic and no more lumber will be shipped from the plant after the 31st of October.

Wm. Selley has sold his half interest in the Pan Cigar Store to his partner, C. F. Adams. "Bill" has his ticket for C. F. Adams, New York, and proposes to spend the winter in the east returning to Alberta next spring.

Ross Bros. have begun the construction of a new warehouse in the C. N. R. yards on the north side of the tracks immediately west of the Alberta Grain Co.'s elevator. This building is forty ft. by one hundred feet, two stories high. Contractor Woodward is doing the work.

The Pringle Company will resume their engagement in the Edmonton opera house this evening when they will present the five act comedy "Trapped by a Woman." The plot is a strong one but there are a sufficient number of comedy acts to relieve the tension of any serious situation.

The annual meeting of the Edmonton Hockey club will be held in the Young Liberal Club rooms on Friday Oct. 26th at 8.30. Officers for the coming season will be elected and plans for the season's matches discussed.

The Young People's Society of First Presbyterian church at their meeting last night reorganized under the terms set forth in the rules and regulations of the Westminster Guild. Next Monday evening a social will be held and the new society installed.

The coal chutes at the C. N. R. yards are nearing completion. The building contains 12 chutes on each side. The cars will be hauled up the gangway by a gasoline engine and unloaded into the pockets. The engine house and gangway remain to be built.

D. W. Warner, president of the Alberta Farmers' Association, leaves tomorrow for Lacombe to attend a meeting of the association on Wednesday, October 25th. On the same day there will be a meeting also in Lacombe of the Canadian branch of the Society of Equity. Each meeting will discuss the advisability of amalgamating the two societies. On the 26th, delegates from each organization will meet in Lacombe to arrange a basis of agreement.

J. Miller, a carpenter, was arraigned in the police court Saturday evening on the charges of stealing carpenter's tools from Edward C. Chappe and Grant Henderson to the value of $80. The tools were taken about six weeks ago and the police have been working on the case ever since. Last Saturday P. C. McCallum found the missing tools on Lot 23, Block 3, River Lot 12, in a chest claimed by Miller, and promptly arrested him. The magistrate, C. H. St. John, remanded the case until Monday to give Miller a chance to secure counsel for his defence. The case was retried yesterday and the defendant was committed to stand his trial before the supreme court next month with no admission to bail.

(Wednesday's Daily)

The walls of the separate school are completed and the roof is being put on today.

A. P. McCowell, formerly in the job department of the Department of the Interior, is tomorrow for Camrose, to take the ownership of the Camrose Mail.

The Edmonton hockey club will meet in the young Liberal club rooms on Friday evening at 8.30 p.m. The annual election of officers will take place and plans for a vigorous hockey campaign discussed.

Jack Morton, who lately disposed of the Mariaggi Gate to John Hart, will shortly open up a new restaurant on the corner of Third and Jasper streets in the building erected by A. W. Cameron.

G. J. Macdonald, one of the heaviest mercantile men of Revelstoke, B. C., is in the city today taking a look at Edmonton. He likes the town and may decide to desert the mountain centre for the Alberta capital.

The Canada Permanent Mortgage Association are distributing to their customers a beautiful calendar for 1907. This calendar has a very accurate map of the Dominion of Canada, showing the provinces, recent surveys and other useful data.

Mr. Mackenzie Bowell, Senator, and Mrs. Loughheed left this afternoon for Calgary, by Superintendent Jamison's private car. This forenoon the party was driven about the city, by Mr. S. Gordon-Barnes, of the Imperial Life, of which company Sir Mackenzie is president.

Two more of the baseball fraternity have settled down to a commercial existence. "Deacon" White and Joe Crist have purchased the Club cigar store on Jasper avenue. They will take possession today and contemplate some extensive improvements in the premises.

Mr. Dan Noyes has left at the St. James' hotel a turnip which weighs 22 pounds. It measures 32 inches around the girth and 35 inches the other way, and it is all solid. The big turnip will be shipped east

—B. H. Reed left this morning with a party of five Americans seeking land in the Pacific river country. The basement of the warehouse that is being erected for Telfer Bros. wholesale confectioners on Third street is completed.

The workers' committee in connection with the house to house visitation of the city, to be made shortly, will meet in Queen's Avenue Presbyterian church on Thursday evening of this week at eight o'clock. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance of the members of this committee.

Grading and levelling operations are in progress on Jasper avenue between Fourth and Sixth streets in conformity with the level of the new granite sidewalks. There still remains a ridge in the centre of the street that is higher than the sidewalks, which will be removed when the paving begins.

The fifteen ton steam roller is in use today picking the loose earth.

Last evening about six o'clock another runaway occurred, resulting in the loss of 45 milk bottles, with their contents, and serious, if not fatal injury to one of the horses.

A team belonging to the Prevey Pasteurized Milk company ran away from the Hudson's Bay stores east, on Jasper, and collided with a dray wagon belonging to the City Transfer Co., as it was turning on 6th Jasper from McDougall street. The horse struck the dray with its breast and may die. A nephew of Mr. Prevey was driving the team and left them tied.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

(Tuesday's Daily)

Mrs. Bulver will reside on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6. Mrs. S. B. Woods has issued invitations for a five o'clock tea tomorrow. Miss Hazel Anderson, of Wetaskiwin, has resumed her studies in Alberta College.

Messrs. Marter of Pincher Creek, have arrived to pursue their studies at Alberta College.

Mr. B. G. Hansell of Wetaskiwin, is registered at the Alberta for a few days and leaves shortly for Vancouver, B.C.

Mrs. Tassie arrived last night from Winnipeg to join her husband for a few days, visiting Mrs. A. E. Jackson. Mrs. Tassie will return east over the C. N. R. in a week's time.

Messrs. Lifen and Albert Dubuc, returned yesterday from Winnipeg where they were visiting their parents Mrs. and Chief Justice Dubuc before the latter sail for a year's tour in Europe.

Dr. Donald McElbion sailed a week ago today from New York for Naples. Thence he will proceed to Vienna to pursue his medical studies.

The ladies aid society of McDougall church are holding an AT Home in the church parlors, on Thursday afternoon from three to six. It is the intention of the society to put forth every effort to welcome the many strangers who have lately been attending the services, and it is hoped that all new comers will be present and become acquainted with the members of the Aid and their friends.

(Monday's Daily)

Mr. Tom Kelly returned on Saturday from the north.

Mr. E. Sibbald leaves today for Lac Ste. Anne. Miss Anne is entertaining a number of her girl friends at a "Sn party" tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Wallbridge who has been visiting her brother here for the past two months returned to her home in the east today.

Mr. W. W. Collyer gave a very large "AT Home" Saturday afternoon, between the hours of four and six, in her spacious new home on Fourteenth street. The hostess wearing a pretty gown of black velvet, received her guests at the entrance to the drawing room, assisted by her sister, Mr. Smith of Winnipeg, who wore a lovely black lace over taffeta.

The young daughter of the house, Miss Sutter, was in white gown d'empire, and the second, Mrs. Sutter, wearing a pale lavender gown with tail to match had charge of the tea.

(Wednesday's Daily)

The Moose Jaw board of trade are asking the C.P.R. to build a $100,000 hotel in that place.

The C.N.R. have completed the erection of a new station at Prince Albert.

The Moose Jaw board of trade are asking the C.P.R. to build a $100,000 hotel in that place.

The C.N.R. have completed the erection of a new station at Prince Albert.

The Moose Jaw board of trade are asking the C.P.R. to build a $100,000 hotel in that place.

The C.N.R. have completed the erection of a new station at Prince Albert.

The Moose Jaw board of trade are asking the C.P.R. to build a $100,000 hotel in that place.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West.

Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Provinces, excepting 8 and 28, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person, the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry or inspection must be made in person by the applicant at the office of the local Agent or Sub-Agent.

An application for entry or inspection may be made at any Sub-Agent's office may be wired to the local Agent by the Sub-Agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied for is to be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

A homesteader whose entry is in good standing, and not liable to cancellation, may, subject to the approval of the local Agent, relinquish in favor of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

Applications for inspection must state in what particular use the homesteader is in, and if subsequently the statement is found to be incorrect in material particulars, the applicant will lose his right of entry, should the land become vacant, or if entry has been granted it may be summarily cancelled.

A settler is required to perform the conditions under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year, ending on the 31st of March.

(2) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(3) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(4) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(5) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(6) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(7) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(8) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(9) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(10) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(11) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(12) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(13) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(14) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(15) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(16) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(17) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

The Mark of Winter Comfort

Elmira

WHEN you buy Felt Shoes and Slippers, see for yourself that you get ELMIRA FELTS. THIS TRADEMARK appears on the SOLE of every GENUINE Elmira Felt Shoe and Slipper. Look for it, and take none without it.

It is the sign of quality—the guarantee of warmth and wear.

For foot comfort in cold weather, there is nothing to equal ELMIRA FELTS. SOLD BY LEADING DEALERS

A homesteader whose entry is in good standing, and not liable to cancellation, may, subject to the approval of the local Agent, relinquish in favor of father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

Applications for inspection must state in what particular use the homesteader is in, and if subsequently the statement is found to be incorrect in material particulars, the applicant will lose his right of entry, should the land become vacant, or if entry has been granted it may be summarily cancelled.

A settler is required to perform the conditions under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year, ending on the 31st of March.

(2) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(3) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(4) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(5) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(6) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(7) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(8) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(9) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(10) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(11) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(12) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(13) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(14) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(15) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(16) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

(17) If the settler is a homesteader, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead, and if he is a settler, he must reside on the land in the vicinity of his homestead.

The Big Store

FURS! FURS!! FURS!!!

Our stock of Fur Ruffs, Stoles, Collarettes, Muffs, Mitts, Gauntlets, Fur Lined Garments, Fur Coats and Jackets, is the best assorted and most up-to-date styles we have ever offered.

MEN'S FUR COATS

are shown in all the popular furs, are made and guaranteed by best manufacturers. We are in best position to offer you choice quality at closest prices.

To anyone thinking of purchasing furs we would suggest don't hesitate, buy now before styles and sizes are broken. It is a pleasure to show you our many lines.

Store Closes Evenings at 6; Saturday's at 10.

McDOUGALL & SECORD

Phone 36

Wilson's FLY PADS

ONE PACKET HAS ACTUALLY KILLED A BUSH OF FLIES

Sold by all Druggists and General Stores and by mail.

TEN CENTS PER PACKET FROM ARCHDALE WILSON, HAMILTON, ONT.

Builders' Supplies, Sash and Door Manufacturer's

9th St., Edmonton

Phone 37 9th Street, Edmonton.

W. H. CLARK & CO., LIMITED.

LUMBER DEALERS.

Builders' Supplies, Sash and Door Manufacturer's

9th St., Edmonton

Phone 37 9th Street, Edmonton.

W. H. CLARK & CO., LIMITED.

LUMBER DEALERS.

Builders' Supplies, Sash and Door Manufacturer's

9th St., Edmonton

Phone 37 9th Street, Edmonton.

W. H. CLARK & CO., LIMITED.

LUMBER DEALERS.

Builders' Supplies, Sash and Door Manufacturer's

9th St., Edmonton

Phone 37 9th Street, Edmonton.