

Lloyd's Latest Comedy
Veritable Riot of FunAUDIENCE CONVULSED LAUGHING
AT COMEDIAN'S LATEST PICTURE.

Yesterday it looked as though it might become necessary to summon an ambulance to the Nickel Theatre after the first showing of Lloyd's latest feature Pathécomedy, "Girl Shy," which will be there for an indefinite run. Some of the patrons were so convulsed and weakened by mirth that the reviewer doubted their ability to reach the open air. Just as you begin to think that there is nothing new in the movies, along comes a Lloyd comedy and immediately life takes on a rosy hue again.

For every Lloyd comedy is distinctive from all angles and in all respects except one, and that's laughter. It seems that in each one you find laughs coming more and more rapidly than in the preceding one. And "Girl Shy" is no exception. While Lloyd has successfully undertaken one of the most novel and difficult characterizations he has ever attempted, it is entirely different from any of his predecessors except for the fact that it is even more funny than the other types he has portrayed. Truly this young man with the horn rimmed glasses can lay claim to the title of being America's greatest comedian.

Little Jobyna Raiston, who made such a hit in the last Lloyd Pathécomedy, "Why Worry?" is again seen playing opposite Harold, and she gives an excellent account of herself in a rather difficult part. Richard Daniels, the uncle of freckle faced "Mickie" of "Our Gang" fame, is cast as Lloyd's uncle, and helps to win a lot of sympathy for the star. Carlton Griffin completes the cast in the role of a wealthy young idler.

"Girl Shy" as directed by Fred Newmeyer and Sam Taylor from a story by Taylor, Ted Wilde, Tim Whelan and Tommy Gray. The latter also wrote the amusing titles. Miss Marjorie Hutchings again delighted patrons of the Nickel by her excellent renditions. Her three songs had all the charm and vivacity imaginable. The accompaniments were played by Newfoundland's inimitable pianist Prof. P. J. McCarthy.

T. A. Juvenile Society

HAD ENJOYABLE OUTING.

The annual outing of the T. A. Juvenile Society took place at Donovans yesterday. Upwards of 300 children went out by special train at 11 a.m. Following their arrival at the grounds various forms of amusement were indulged in, and at 5 o'clock the children were treated to a bountiful spread, provided by the ladies of the Auxiliary, which was heartily partaken of by all. Among those present were the Hon. W. J. Ellis, President; Geo. W. Coughlan, Secretary, and J. J. Spratt, Chairman of the Club. The day was well spent and thoroughly enjoyed. Return to town was made at 8.30 p.m.

At night the older folk participated in a dance, the music being provided by the C.C.C. Band. The programme was an excellent one, and was much enjoyed by the 150 people in attendance. The catering at this end was looked after by Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, of the Hotel, in their well known style. Return was made to town at one o'clock this morning.

Portugal Cove Garden
Party To-Morrow

The parishioners of the R.C. Church at Portugal Cove, are holding their annual Garden Party to-morrow, and as the proceeds of the day are being devoted for the upkeep of the school, it is hoped that large numbers from the city and elsewhere will patronize the affair. A series of boat races have been arranged to take place at Round Pond, at the head of Winsor Lake, and this part of the programme should also prove a big drawing card. The races were very successfully conducted last year, and it is an assured fact that they will be equally as successful to-morrow. Tea and refreshments will be served on the grounds, while the Mount Cashel Band will be in attendance to render all the latest musical hits. Busses will leave Rawlin's Cross at 2 p.m. With a fine day the success of the garden party is assured.
