

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE EXHIBITION IS EXPECTED

Two Special Trains Will Be Run From North and Two From South of Province

Four special trains will run into Calgary during exhibition week, two being from north, starting at Red Deer and the other two from south, starting at Lethbridge. The trains will arrive here on the same days, July 1 and July 4, being the national birthday and the big day of the year for our friends from south of the line who are now in Alberta. The fare from Lethbridge is $3.25 and from Red Deer $2.85, with correspondingly cheap rates from all intervening points. It has been arranged to have the trains leave the starting points at very early hours, the crowd starting at Lethbridge at 8 in the morning and making the run to Calgary by 10.40. The Red Deer train will start at 7.30 and arrive at 11. There will be special trains north and south the same evening as the specials come in, but those who come down on the excursion will be able to return at any time up to July 8.

The three transcontinental railways have jointly agreed on special rates to Calgary for the exhibition, which will be single fare from stations where the fare is 44, plus one cent per mile in each direction from stations beyond, except west of Calgary and Lethbridge, where the rate is one and one-half cent.

SMITH, OF FERNIE, IS PROBABLE HEAD OF U. M. W. OF A.

Has Lead of 500 Over Stubbs It Is Not Thought Insurgents Have a Chance

Lethbridge, June 10.—The election of H. Smith, of Fernie, as president of the U. M. W. of A. is practically assured. The following are the figures so far received:

City	Smith	Stubbs
Fernie	483	70
Edmonton	215	61
Regina	148	43
Calgary	148	43
Lethbridge	38	54

There are still to hear from: Diamond, T. Baker, Bankhead, and Canmore. Every one of them is an insurgent. These will more than offset the majority Stubbs may get in the home favorable to him, such as Kipp, Campbell, Kilmurray, Carleton, Carbon, Frank, Maple Leaf, Burns, and other Creek, which are all small. Some of these are expected to pull an almost solid vote for Stubbs, but not enough to cut down a 500 lead.

DUCHESS PEACEFUL WORE NO PEARLS

Berlin, June 10.—At a recent royal wedding the Duchess of Cumberland did not wear the famous crown of St. Edward, as the duke desired the should—and thereby hangs a tale. The duchess has been a thorn in the side of the British sovereigns since the death of the salacious William IV. Victoria claimed the pearls, so it is claimed, did King Ernest of Hannover, he uncle—Lord Melbourne, then the British prime minister, supported the duchess. A commission of inquiry was appointed to investigate the matter, and it was not until 1857 that the decision was given against Queen Victoria's claim. There was a basket of gems which had been brought from Hannover during the reign of George III, but the pearls were the great prize of the collection. The lot was valued in 1857 at $100,000. Queen Victoria and Prince Albert were very much put out at being obliged to give up the jewels to the king of Hannover. The queen is said to have cried with vexation.

FAMOUS THEOLOGIAN DIES AT NEW YORK

New York, June 10.—The Rev. Dr. Charles Augustus Briggs, one of the best known theologians of this country, died yesterday at his home in this city, aged 72. Death followed pneumonia with which he was stricken a month ago. Dr. Briggs' home was in the Union Theological seminary, where he had just completed his forty-fourth year as a teacher. The greater part of his life had been devoted to the ministry. Dr. Briggs was a professor at Union Seminary when it was a Presbyterian institution. He was accused by the New York Presbytery of heresy in 1902, but in the general assembly of the church reversed the decision and suspended him from the ministry. He then withdrew from the church. In 1908 Dr. Briggs was ordained in the Episcopal church. He was the recipient of degrees from various universities, among others of Oxford, which made him LL.D. in 1905. He was the author of many works on theology.

SAVED BY HIS PIPE

Paris, June 10.—At Corbeil, yesterday a man was saved from drowning by his pipe. His name is Buxte, and he was fishing from a punt with a rod when the boat was overturned. Buxte, who was unable to swim, held the pipe, which he retained in his mouth when the punt capsized. His friend seized the pipe, which the man gripped with the energy of a desperado, and the pipe, holding under the strain, M. Buxte was safely towed to the bank.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is free from alum and lime phosphates. Made from grape Cream of tartar and absolutely pure. Its use is a safeguard to health, for it actually aids digestion, and relieves from all anxiety as to the wholesomeness of the food.

On the other hand each attempted imposition of an alum baking powder upon the consumer is a covert attack upon the health of the family. Of course, no grocer would knowingly sell injurious food to his customers; but he has himself been deceived as to the true character of the cheap powders by their manufacturers.

Forewarned, and solicitous for the health of her family, the housewife will be influenced to a constant watchfulness and a stubborn resistance against the danger.

Baking Powders sold at a lower price than Dr. Price's are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore inferior, and prejudicial to health.

ACCUSED ANOTHER TO WREAK VENGEANCE ON GUILTY MAN

Brothers Take Strange Course for Revenge for Murdered Brother

Cairo, June 10.—A remarkable instance of an innocent man being condemned to death for murder and having his innocence proved almost at the foot of the gallows, is reported from Upper Egypt. A rich landowner was found dead on his doorstep. An inquiry was opened, Omran Mahmoud and his son were the crime, which they swore they saw them commit. The accused men declared their innocence, but, despite the desperate and eloquent efforts of their advocate, Omran Mahmoud was sentenced to death and his son to imprisonment for life, and the date of the execution was fixed. The advocate sent in a petition for the commutation of the death sentence to the Khedive. Time passed, and he heard nothing as to the fate of his petition. The day before that fixed for the execution the advocate determined to approach higher quarters. Just as he was about to proceed on this errand two men were shown into his office. They were the brothers of the murdered man. They had come to confess to him that their evidence had been false, and that Omran Mahmoud and his son were innocent of the murder of their brother. They had merely accused them of the crime because they wanted to keep the authorities from suspecting the true murderer, on whom they intended themselves to take vengeance. The real criminal was at once arrested, and on the eve of the execution Omran Mahmoud and his son were advised of what had happened. This incident is illustrative of the lengths to which the native desire for revenge will go. It is, of course, not unusual for one man to accuse another of a crime to avenge some long-nursing grudge, but it is unique for innocent men to be accused of a murder because the family of the murdered person wish to avenge their loss themselves on the murderer.

SLEPT IN DUST BIN BUT ESCAPED FURNACE

Reuen, France, June 10.—A Reuen resident has just had a narrow escape from being burned alive in the city dust destructor. In this city the disposal of house refuse is carried out under the most modern conditions. After having been collected, the dust bins are taken in the early morning to the destructor outside the city, and placed on a "conveyor," which lifts them to the top of a furnace and tips the contents in. A workman is stationed at the top end of the conveyor, and watches each dust bin as it is tipped up. A day or two ago he noticed a remarkably good pair of trousers protruding from one dust bin, and thinking that they would be better on his legs than the old ones, he stepped on the conveyor and went to retrieve the trousers. To his surprise he found them already occupied by a man fast asleep. The workman at once aroused him, and took him out, half-suffocated. The explanation of his presence in the dust bin is that on the previous evening he had been one of a merry party of friends. On the way home this particular reveller dropped asleep, and some of his companions conceived the idea of putting him in a dust bin to pass the night. They did, but the victim did not wake up as they expected he would, and was nearly shot into the furnace in consequence.

BIRTHS ARE FEWER; MARRIAGES MORE

London, June 10.—The returns for the first quarter of 1913 show that the births in England number 216,296, which is at the rate of 23.8 a thousand, a decrease of 31 below the average of the last ten years, and the lowest on record. The deaths number 146,596, which is at the rate of 16.1 a thousand, a decrease of 1.1. The marriages are at the rate of 17.5 a thousand, which is an increase of 0.8.

It was among the loveliest customs of the ancients to bury the young at morning twilight; for as they strove to give the softer interpretation to death, so they imagined that Aurora, who loved the young, had stolen them to her embrace—Richter.

Full, Bounding, Joyous Health by the side of the Mighty Pacific

500 happy mortals are spending this summer where they can taste the salt of the world's greatest ocean

Tent after tent, cool, healthful, cleanly, enjoyable, extending along the upper edge of a silver-sanded beach; behind, the spicy, conifer forest redolent of pine-smell mingling with the delicious odor of Indian Sweet Grass and Briar Roses; before, the restless, endless expanse of the glorious Pacific set with great steamers and white-winged sailing vessels; to right and left the rush of ocean-bound rivers, the tinkle of wood brooks where the trout lie—there, in a flash, you have an imperfect picture of the 1912 Tent City at Canada's Greatest Pleasure Resort where more than 800 people who have bought lots at starting prices of from only $100 to $250 each on easy terms, are now cashing in AHEAD OF THEIR GUARANTEE

They bought Lots -- as YOU should do -- in

Canada's Greatest Pleasure Resort WEST COAST OF VANCOUVER ISLAND British Columbia

We said that these fortunate people were "cashing ahead of THEIR GUARANTEE." That is the solid fact. Lots in this resort were sold on the understanding that purchasers could not expect improvements sufficient for residence for from two to three years. But, after a few dozen buyers of lots—largely Doubting Thomases, too—had been taken to see the property, the story of its magic charm spread until we were inundated this spring with requests for permission to camp there this summer. Well, we got a hustle on and fixed things, WITH THE RESULT THAT THE 1913 TENT SETTLEMENT WILL NUMBER MORE THAN 500. Last year a wilderness, this year a tent city full of life, next year a permanent settlement—a few years hence one of the greatest pleasure resorts on the North American Continent.

Now, reader, get busy; don't lose YOUR opportunity through unreasonable doubt or procrastination. Most men fail because they are over-cautious. That's a fact—figures prove it. You can test our offer in a hundred ways, but YOU MUST ACT QUICKLY IF YOU WANT TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF PRESENT LOW PRICES AND TERMS. Talk it over with your wife and family and then read the last paragraph in this advertisement. We don't promise that you'll make a fortune on your lot, as many first purchasers have done in large American resorts. WE DO PROMISE that you'll make a profit if you want to, and we'll wager that when you see the property YOU WON'T WANT TO SELL.

Approximate quarter acres in this resort are selling now at $100, $150, $250 each; 10 per cent. cash; $15 on issuance of contract and $15 a month thereafter. The easiest, safest buy you could make.

We are having printed a neat, brief, new folder describing the Tent City of 1913 and illustrated with photographs. This folder will contain the voluntary statement of a number of purchasers who visited the property this spring, and it's worth reading. The folder will be illustrated with photographs taken on the property. There is a copy of this folder for you. Send the coupon attached TODAY and your copy will go forward next mail, together with other literature of interest.
