ed. "You betrayed yourself so many dom of the gods."

What girlish romance was this? He held her away gingerly, just so far onably," she protested, "I must apthat he could look into her eyes. "Oh, it is true, quite true," she cried, and oh, so thirsty." drawing the locket from her neck. then, that you really did love me?" repeat that wondrous phrase? To- Whether destined to live an hour or gether they bent over the tiny slips half a century, she would never, never of paper. There it was again-"I love leave him, nor, of course could he faced girl. you"-twice blazoned in magic sym- ever, ever leave her. Some things told him how, by mere accident of that they should part.

Jenks brought her a biscuit, a tin It was not very wrong, was it, of meat, and that most doleful cup of to pick up that tiny scrap, or those champagne. other, which she could not help seeing, and which unfolded their simple tale so truthfully? Wrong! It was handing her the insipid beverage, "but so delightfully right that he must kiss under other conditions, it is a wine her again to emphasize his convic- almost worthy to toast you in."

had, of course, an air of grotesque absurdity because indulged in by two word," she cried. "I am simply frizgrimy and tattered individuals crouch- |zling. In these warm clothes-" convention, the conservatory, with its of her garments. wealth of flowers and plants, a sum- "It is not the warm clothing you consider the appropriateness of place down. By the way, what is that." and season a word in even edgeways—well then, by the occasional rustling of the sheet perplexed him. He determined that well above. The corn crop is the best happens now. I suppose it was very Jenks had not allowed his attention ment between them. If they failed spring wheat is excellent. Fruits have your godfather. "No wrigging, plase. Why did you do it?"

slid out unawares."

only as Iris, your Iris?" "Ever since I first understood that tecting shield. somewhere in the wide world was a dear woman to love me and be loved." claimed the sailor. He crept to the name was Elizabeth?"

Advertiser Patterns DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

A MODISH OVER-WAIST.

No. 8261-Ladies' waist. Cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 will require 2% yards of 27inch material. This modish overblouse is quite simple and extremely becoming. It is designed to slip on over the head, but if preferred, an opening could be made under the centre box pleat. Deep tucks at the shoulders give a graceful amount of fulness in front, the back is plain, except for slight gathers at the waistwhich are adjusted by a belt of the material stitched to position in the centre of the back, and tied in front. Taffeta, pongee, foulard, broadcloth and voile are all suitable for reproduction.

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on recipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE ADVERTISER.

Please send the above-mentioned pattern, as per directions given below.

Name	***************************************
Town Province
Measurement: Bust	Waist

Age (if child's or misses' pattern) ...

CAUTION.-Be careful to inclose shove illustration and send size of pat- forts to get one of those poisoned darts way to remove the trouble was to plow tern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure you need only mark 32, 34, or measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever !t may be. If a skirt give waist and length tion, thus inducing the savages to bemeasure. When misses' or child's lieve they had succeeded in inflicting pattern write only the figure repre- a mortal wound, or to wait until the senting the age. It is not necessary to next arrow fell, rush out, and try write inches or "years." Patterns conclusions with Dum-dum bullets are pale, headaches—don't deaden the trouble with drugs, help out the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Safe, of each pattern is 10c in cash or in course. He wished to dishearten his mild and sure are Dr. Hamilton's dealers or Edwards. Barres & Co., Toronto.

"But I knew, I knew," she murmur- those who christened you had the wis-and have treasured them next my Iris was perhaps the first to recognize its quiet certainty.

"As I cannot get you to talk reaspeal to your sympathy. I am hungry,

Now she was filled with new hope. Dear, dear! How often would she There was a fresh motive in existence. With blushing eagerness she were quite impossible—for example,

"It is not exactly frappe," he said

She fancied she had never before All this fondling and love-making noticed what a charming smile he had.

Ing beneath a tarpaulin on a rocky ledge, and surrounded by bloodthirsty savages intent on their destruction. Such incidents require the setting of convention the convention of her remembered the manner mer wood, a Chippendale drawing- feel so much as the want of air," exroom. And yet, Got wot, men and plained the sailor readily. "This tarwomen have loved each other in this paulin has made the place very stuffy, grey old world without stopping to but we must put up with it until sun-

ear. Iris, glad of the diversion, told him with a wistful smite. "Robert-I must call you Robert him she had heard the noise three or now-there, there, please let me get four times, but fancied it was caused rehearsed the hopes and fears which to the average while a good many rate wicked and foolish of me to speak as to wander altogether from external I did before—before you called me events. Since the Dyaks' last escap- Dyaks maintained a strict siege of the apples have been somewhat disap-Iris. Now tell me at once. Why did ade there was no sign of them in the rock throughout the whole of next pointing. The C. P. R. strike convalley or on either beach. Not for day, well-they might survive-it was tinues, but there have been several "You must propound that riddle to trivial cause would they come again problematical. Best leave matters in moves towards a peaceful solution of They waited and listened silently.

Another tap sounded on the tarpaulin "Because I could not help myself. It in a different place, and they both concurred in the belief that something stage in their sufferings. "How long have you thought of me had darted in curved flight over the ledge and fallen on top of their pro-"Let us see what the game is," ex-

"But at one time you thought her back of the ledge and drew himself

There are no less these things sticking in the canvas," he said. "They don't look very terrible. I suppose that is what my Indian friend meant by warning me against the trees on the right." He did not tell Iris all the Mahemmedan said. There was no need to alarm her causelessly. Even whilst they examined the curious little missile another flew up from the valley and lodged on the roof of their shelter. some extremely hard wood, was about bubbles danced on the surface and ten inches in length. Affixed to it was raced joyously together in the suna pointed fish-bone, sharp, but not shine; then they were broken-did it barbed, and not fastened in a manner matter how, by savage sword or linsuggestive of much strength. The ar- gering allment? They vanished—abrow was neither feathered nor groov- sorbed again by the rushing watersed for a bow string. Altogether it and other bubbles rose in precarious seemed to be a childish weapon to be iridescence. It was a fatalist view of

"How do they fire it?" asked Iris.

"Do they throw it?" "I will soon tell you," he replied, reaching for a rifle. "Do not go out yet," she entreated him. "They cannot harm us. Perhaps we may learn more by keeping quiet. They will not continue shooting these things all day."

fell short. Missing the tarpaulin, it day and complained to the police that almost dropped on the girl's outstretched hand. She picked it up. The fish-bone point had snapped by contact with the floor of the ledge. She sought for and found the small

"See," she said. "It seems to have been dipped in something. It is quite quest of the thieves, but was unable to Jenks frowned peculiarly. A startling explanation had suggested itself he made another search, when he came to him. Fragments of forgotten lore were taking cohesion in his mind. "Put it down. Quick!" he cried.

eyes. He spilled a teaspoonful of champagne into a small hollow of the of the money. rock and steeped one of the fish-bones in the liquid. Within a few seconds the champagne assumed a greenish tinge and the bone became white. Then he knew.

"Good heavens!" he exclaimed, "these are poisoned arrows shot through a blowpipe. I have never before seen one, but I have often read had the city snowplows at work at about them. The bamboos the Dyaks Courtenay Bay yesterday and today. It carried were sumpitans. These fish- is rather early in the season to get bones have been steeped in the juice out the snow-removing apparatus, but save you." killed, whilst his venomous fangs that vicinity. Complaint was made to would only be used in self-defense. thrice-welcome covering. Evidently gate. The director, after looking over would be better to create a commo-and could visit their every effort with a deadly reprisal.

Iris, of course, protested when he ned his project. But the fight, ing spirit prevailed. Their love idyll st yield to the needs of the hour. He had not long to wait. The last arrow fell, and he sprang to the extreme right of the ledge. First he looked through that invaluable screen times. You wrote your secret to me, and though you did not tell me, I found your dear words on the secret to the secret through that invaluable screen of grass. Three Dyaks were on the ground, and a fourth in the fork of true they loved one another that the found your dear words on the sands, fact was becoming venerable with age. a blowpipe. He in the tree was just fitting an arrow into the bamboo tube. The others were watching him.

warrior in the tree pitched headlong ed a companion on top of him. One The girl had hardly eaten a morsel man jumped into the bushes and got sailor then amused himself them. He came back to the white-

"I fancy that further practice with blowpipes will be at a discount on Rainbow Island," he cried cheerfully. But Iris was anxious and distrait. "It is very sad," she said "that we are obliged to secure our own safety by the ceaseless slaughter of human beings. Is there no offer we can make tempt them to abendon hostilities?" None whatever. These Borneo strangers and defenseless is to court pillage and massacre at their hands. "But, Robert, dear, how long can we hold out?" "What! Are you growing tired of me already?"

He hoped to divert her thoughts from this constantly recurring topic. Twice within the hour had it been will result in the placing of good broached and dismissed, but Iris orders All lines of groceries are mov-A light tap on the tarred canvas di- would not permit him to shirk it again ing well and the volume of hardware After a delicious pause Iris began rectly over his head had caught his She made no reply, simply regarding there should be no further conceal- in years, and in mist districts fall and to secure water that night, if the been good, although peaches and

With feminine persistency she clung to the subject, detecting his unwill- steady. Hides are about steady, and ingness to discuss a possible final "Robert!" she whispered fearfully, power of the chief, will you " "Not whilst I live." "You must live. Don't you under-up until he could reach over the sheet. you. But I would have died-by my stand? I would go with them to save "A delusion, a mirage! That is why He returned, carrying in his hand a own hand. Robert, my love, you must ery trade has opened out surprisingly well. The harvest is rushing on todo this thing before the end. I must be the first to die."

He hung his head in a paroxysm of silent despair. Her words rung like a tocsin of the bright romance conjured up by the avowal of their love. It seemed to him, in that instant, they had no separate existence as distinguished from the great stream of human life-the turbulent river that flowed unceasingly from an eternity of the past to an eternity of the future The shaft of the arrow, made of For a day, a year, a decade, two frail used by men equipped with lead and life, a dim and obscurantist groping after truth induced by the over power-Jenks could not understand the ap- ing nature of present difficulties. The

(To be Continued.) ROBBED AN ITALIAN

Trunks Containing $2,500 Taken From Roomer at Harvey Junction.

Again a tiny arrow travelled toward Italian who keeps a general store at them in a graceful parabola. This one Harvey Junction, arrived in Quebec tohe had been robbed of $2,500 in cash, He said he was tending in his store, and his brother, who was associated with him, was out driving. In the meantime some persons entered his private apartments and carried off two trunks, one of which contained his wealth. Later he discovered the robbery, and went out in discover their whereabouts on account of night having set in. The next morning across the two trunks, but they had been broken open and the money was gone. The police are under the im-Iris obeyed him, with wonder in her ted by two of Stiffany's former boardpression that the robbery was commiters, who had studied his habits and knew of the upas tree. Iris, my dear girl, the conditions are unusual. In this inif one of them had so much as scratch- stance it is fish that are being plowed. ed your finger nothing on earth could For some days the tide has been washing up countless thousands of small She paled and drew back in sudden herring along the sheres of Courtenay herror. This tiny thing had taken the Bay, and great quantities have been left horror. This tiny thing had taken the high and dry by the tides, so that dursemblance of a snake. A vicious cob- ing the past few days they have been ra east at her feet would be less decomposing, and the odor has been alarming, for the reptile could be anything but agreeable to residents of Mayor Bullock, and Ald. Elkin and Di-Another tap sounded on their rector Peters were instructed to investithe Dyaks would persist in their ef- the ground, decided that the quickess the fish back into the bay, whence they Jenks debated silently whether it adopted. The shore from the breakcame, and accordingly this method was water northward was literally covered

SOUNDS FISHY

Herring So Plentiful That Snowplow

When your liver is wrong cheeks assallants, to cram down their throats Pills, Buy a 25c box.

Conditions in All Parts of Dominion.

Montreal reports to Bradstreet's say Jenks raised his rifle, fired, and the There has been some improvement in to the ground. A second shot stretch- trade here during the past week. the volume of wholesale and retail "Don't you recognize your own handfor her midday meal. Then she was away, but the fourth tripped over his is somewhat more active. Orders for unwieldly sumpitan and a bullet tore fall and winter drygoods are fair to good although they are still behind breaking the bamboos by firing at last year. Groceries are fairly busy the volume of business of this time and wholesalers report a better tone to collections. Sugar is about steady at the recent decline and the demand for teas and coffees is brisk, There has been a rather better demand for general hardware and a good trade is looked for in sporting goods. The demand for supplies for the lumber camps is moderate. It is understood them, no promise of future gain, to this year's cut will be considerably less than that of last. Country trade is still on the quiet side but collections Dyaks are bred from infancy to prey are fair. Receipts of butter and cheese on their fellow creatures. To be are good and prices are steady. The demand for provisions is good at steady orices. Toronto reports say: Business here continues to reflect improved conditions in all parts of Canada. Good fall and winter orders are coming in for drygoods and the fall millinery trade is already brisk. The annual Industrial Exhibition is now on and large numbers of country retailers are in the city. It is expected these visits business moving is about normal. The Government report shows that all So Jenks sat down by her side, and crops have this year yielded well up the difficulty. Produce is coming for ward well, and prices are generally wool is unchanged.

Winnipeg reports say fall supplies are being rushed forward in all direcyou will never let me fall into the tions in order that they may not later be held up during the grain movement. Wholesale trade is brisk and expectations for a big fall and winter trode seem to be general. The drygoods well. The harvest is rushing on trade all along the coast holds brisk. and prices are good. Collections are associatison always fought. Colonel tinues to show increased activity.

in wholesale trade and not likely to be until the season is more advanced. Orders to hand are more of a sorting Ross rifle. And he had been triumphwhich is usual at school opening, local industries continue quiet. The shipping trade so far is dull, but is expected to improve somewhat before grudged the annual payment of eighty Hamilton reports to Bradstreet's say there has been little change in trade the cadet movement, and announced Jenks could not understand the appearance of this toy. Evidently the famous Tentmaker of Naishapur ing orders are fair and prospects for blindly sought the unending purpose future business continue good. Geninto by the department of militia and into by the d eral lines are going forward well but the Government of Nova Scotia, which Retail trade is rather brisker, but tia shall furnish all the instructors, the reservoir supply is completely ex-sale lines are meeting with a rather and rifle shooting. In turn the educabetter demand and the outlook for tional authorities of Nova Scotia are trade has improved accordingly. Crops required to adopt a compulsory reguin this district are about average, al- lation that a teacher before securing though some are hardly up to this his license to teach in the schools of standard. The lumber trade is still the Province shall be compelled to pass forbidden the starting of outdoor fires

THERE WILL BE NO DELAY

The Transmission Line Contract to Be Signed Next Week.

struction of the high voltage trans- services. mission line will be signed early next week, probably on Tuesday or Wednesday. The officials of the hydroelectric commission ridicule the idea that nothing will be done until the writs of injunction have been disposed of. Mr. W. K. McNaught, M. P. P., stated yesterday that the contract is now in the hands of the solicitors for both parties, and that it will probably be signed immediately after Mr. Beck's able programme of races was carried negroes they quickly succumb to it.

In Jamaica tuberculous disease is 24-hours' fast the prisoners on the top floor promised to cease rioting if they were given something to eat. Food and return to the city in the beginning of out, which resulted as follows: the week.

In spite of writs and murmurs of legal war things are steadily moving in connection with the city's electric power scheme. Mr. Alexander Dow, the Detroit engineer who has been appointed consulting engineer by the city, arrived in Toronto yesterday. He will confer with City Engineer Rust and Mr. K. L. Aitken, the head of the new city electrical department. The engineers are now engaged in sketching out the plans upon which the distribution plant will be constructed, Gillies. but some time must necessarily elapse submission to the board of control.

North Grey Liberals in convention at Owen Sound, by a unanimous vote, nominated Wm. P. Telferd, M. P., for the Federal House.

White Batiste Corsets, 59c

We have just purchased 158 pairs of the Irene and Geisha White Batiste Corsets from the Parisian Corset Company, of Quebec, at a great bargain price. To move them quickly we have marked them 59¢.

This offering will be vastly interesting to women who are particular about their figure, as these Corsets are built along the latest style lines.

Batiste Corsets, steel-filled, bias cut, long hip, with supporters attached, "Geisha,"

The Irene Girdle Corset, with fine clasp, steel-filled, supporters attached. In white

You shouldn't miss this great Corset-buying opportunity. We have your size now, but the range will soon be broken; so come early.

Corset Sale Tuesday at 9 a.m. See window display.

@ PARKER PHONE 1182 150 DUNDAS ST., and CARLING ST

NSTRUCTORS FOR INO RAIN IN THE BOY SOLDIERS LAST FIVE WEEKS

To Be Supplied From the Permanent Force, Sir Frederick Announces.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.-The president's luncheon, a regular feature of each D. R. A., was given at Rockliffe by suspension of manufacturing, with at-ped in small quantities, and are yieldwards completion, and it is expected erick Borden, minister of militia, was pleting destruction of crops, and lack full crop for fall apples, and below a collections will soon begin to show on the right of Colonel Hughes, and on of water for live stock, such as prob- medium crop for winter apples. Qualthe left Lord Aylmer, inspector gen-Vancouver and Victoria reports say eral. In responding to the toast in his Demands for wholesale lines are active honor Sir Frederick Borden said above ties in Ohio. and prices generally show a firm tone. all other things he admired the fair The fruit harvest promises to be heavy manner in which the president of the Sam Hughes had never showed great-

Quebec—No improvement is noticed the face of his own party and fought an honest and straightforward fight on dinary hygienic rules. the issue of the introduction of the antly vindicated. Sir Frederick, in dethe militia force, said he did not beor ninety cents per head on the milibusiness in the country is still report- the snan furnish and the permanent forces hausted, and people are carrying water Scotia as instructors in drill training the town. quiet and a light cut for the coming an examination in physical training and drill. Sir Frederick announced poses. that another order in council has been adopted giving the department of militia authority to make similar agreements with all the other Provinces. It was proposed that if the movement became general throughout the Dominion the permanent force would be transferred largely into teaching corps, Toronto, Sept. 5.—It is expected that and the instructors so sent out would, the McGuigan contract for the con- of course, receive better pay for their

EVENING PICNIC OF

The ladies of New St. James' choir entertained their friends at Springbank Guessing number of beans in a bottle-1 J. L. Galbraith, 2 M. Messen. 100 yards dash, ladies-1 Miss N. Snell, 2 Miss M. Laidlaw, 3 Miss L.

Gillies.

Half-mile run, men-1 M. Messer, 2 strikes. J. Imrie 3 A. McDonald. Eating soda biscuits-1 Miss E. Guy, Miss L. Dickie, 3 Miss L. Milroy.

before the plans are ready for final McKenzie, 2 J. Imrie and Miss I. Gray, using the second bottle of your Par-3 J. L. Galbraith and Miss Dickie. Miss Decker, 3 Miss L. Gray.

KILLED BY PLAYMATE.

Montreal, Sept. 5.-Resulting from a ent Gravel, 13 years old, was fatally ent Gravel, 13 years old, was fatally injured, a charge of manslaughter has been entered against Joseph Tourgeabeen en the fatal stone. This is the outcome druff, stop falling hair, and cure all of an inquest held at the morgue yes- diseases of the scalp, or money back. his weeping mother.

Western Pennsylvania's Crops

Shut Down. Pittsburg, Sept. 5.—Suffering from ably has never before been experienced, ity good. is reported from every county in West- Pears.-Clapp's and Bartlett's have ern Pennsylvania, and the border counstagnant water, or the lack of water ed a medium crop. Yellow St. Johns Probably the most serious conditions fending the increased expenditure on matory burned to the ground because that city last night the municipal cre- of Ontario.

Only one of three reservoirs used to supply the town contains water, and crop. this and the creek that supplies it, is rapidly being depleted.

The health authorities are from day to day putting closer restrictions upon from springs in the hills ar beyond Johnstown authorities have stopped the running of elevators using water, and suspended operations in plants to burn rubbish, or for any other pur-The mines of the Berwind-White Company in Cambria County have been suspending one by one, until between 2,000 and 3,000 miners are idle. Yesterday the compay's car repair shop at Hollidaysburg shut down, capitulate. They were not overcome throwing out an additional 150 men, At Barnsboro, and Raton, wells are being sunk in hope of relief. In Washington and Greene counties, the corn gan to shout revolutionary cries, tore crop, already blighted, is threatened with complete destruction. There has been no rain for five weeks. In Clearfield County no rain has fall-ST. JAMES' CHOIR en for four weeks, and the buckwheat a company of infantry was sent for. crop, one of the staples of this territory, will be almost a total failure.

In Jamaica tuberculous disease be signed immediately after Mr. Beck's able programme of races was carried negroes they quickly succumb to it. old age pension scheme is rather peculiar. The pension is forfeited if the lowered half of the provisions by a workman does not work 48 or 49 weeks cord to their comrades on the lower out of the 52 on an average, and this provision has been a deterrent to fied all the convicts recommenced their

HARRY REID KNOWS

Carrying beans on knife-1 Miss life left in the roots of your hair, Par- treated and insufficiently fed. Mackintosh, 2 Miss I. Gray, 3 Miss L. Islan Sage will stimulate the hair bulbs and cause your hair to grow Chum race—1 M. Mills and Miss A. again. Here is one case. "I am now turers of Mattresses, Feather Pillows, Cushions and Spring Beds. Brass and Iron Beds, $3. Stoves, Furniture, Camp Beds, at the Feather Bed, Pillow and Spring Beds, at the Feather Beds, at the F Consolation race—1 Miss E. Dickie, of hair appearing. I am glad to say Mattress Cleaning Factory. J. F. HUNT Miss Decker. 3 Miss L. Gray. it is a darker color than my hair was before I became bald," Harry Reid, 10 Manhattan street, Rochester, N. Y. has been used for over THIRTY YEARS

Don't wait till you're baid before by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their using Parisian Sage, use it now. Kill CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with stone-throwing battle in which Laur- using Parisian Sage, use it now. Kill CHILDREN WHILE PERFECT SUCCESS. hair soft, fluffy and beautiful.

FRUIT RIPENING EARLY THIS YEAR

Ottawa. Aug. 31-The department of agriculture has issued the following Ruined-Manufacturers Have fruit crop report: Weather conditions have been favorable for the fruit crop during the month of August. All fruit is ripening earlier than usual. Apples.-Duchess apples have been moving freely from Southern Ontario lack of water for domestic purposes, verts and Alexanders have been shipended loss of wages, blighting of com- ing a full crop. Indications show been exported in small quantities. The prospects in Southern Ontario are for There is imminent danger of loss of a medium to full crop of pears. Everylive stock, much of which is already where else a light crop is expected, being driven many miles to running except in British Columbia, where the streams. There are also grave fears of prospects show a medium crop. disease epidemics through the use of Peaches.-Early peaches have prov-with which to observe the most or- are now being harvested. Late peaches are reported a light crop. prevail in Johnstown and vicinity. In British Columbia and small portions Plums are light generally, except in

Grapes are reported a full crop. the fire department could find no water Moore's Early and Champions are now on the market Tomatoes are proving a medium Insect and Fungus diseases are no so prevalent as usual. The United States crop reports show winter apples about the same as last year. Peaches a full crop and other fruits

Great Britain-The prospects for tree fruits offer less than a medium crop, and not as good as last month.

CONVICTS IN REVOLT using water motors. They have also Rebellion in French Prison Lasted Two Days. Paris, Sept. 5. - After a rebellious manifestation which lasted two nights and a day the inmates of the Central Prison of Riom, in the department of the Puy de Dome, have been obliged to without considerable trouble.

The revolt started at bedtime at night, when a number of convicts bethe bars from the cell windows, and threatened the warders and the prisonsurgeon. Next morning, as the warders were incapable of restoring order, The troops arrived with loaded rifles and surrounded the prison. It was decided to bring about the submission of the convicts by starvation. After a One of the effects of the German drink were distributed, but as soon as the convicts received the rations they former tactics, and the prison became a veritable Bedlam.

At last, after days, the revolt appears W. T. Strong, the druggist, does not to be at an end. The authorities have Nail driving-1 Miss I. Gray, 2 Miss guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair decided to investigate the complaints M. Laidlaw, 3 Miss A. MacKenzie. on every bald head, but if there is any of the convicts that they are badly terday, after which young Tourganeau Parisian Sage is a delightfully invig- holiday-Animal Day-which was celwas sent to the court, accompanied by orating hair dressing; it makes the ebrated on April 29. One of the features was the liberation of 500 pigeons.

Feather Beds, Pillows and Mattresses

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.