7TH VETERANS SHOOK HANDS AGAIN chise to

Banquet at the Tecumseh House was hoped that a deeper and more abiding interest would henceforth be Last Night Was a Splendid Affair.

Some Funny Doings Were Recounted -A Silent Toast Drunk to Honored Dead-The List of Guests.

With many reminiscences and stories, grave and gay, and good-fellow-ship predominant, the veterans of the Seventh Regiment field force celebrated the 25th anniversary of their depar-Riel Rebellion, by a banquet at the Tecumseh House, last night.

being present from far and near. They were a fine body of men, even after the lapse of 25 years. There were few who showed signs of age. The majority were sharp, keen businessmen, in the best of health and spirits, and looked fit to again answer.

Drifted Different Ways. Some of them had followed the profession of war since the rebellion, Adjt., Capt. Butler, Dr. Niven, Lleut. Many had moved to other parts of the Pope, Lieut. Bapty and Lieut. Chiscountry; in fact, the boys of the Old Brigade were scattered from New York to San Francisco, and from Quebec to Vancouver. The majority of them had done well. As a matter of fact, a

The banquet was a splendid affair. beef and hard tack. These forceful reminders of other days should be given credit for a chain of reminiscences, because whenever a soldier looked at them, he recalled some deed of valor performed by some comrade to scape the dire necessity of eating the stuff.

A Business Deal. "Billy" Mills, the businessman, sold six cans of corned beef for a pound of butter, and declared it was one of the best bargains of his life. Capt. Dillon told bow Ptc. George Apted won his reputation as the greatest forager in the regiment, all because of the hard tack.

Pte. Ab Somerville revealed the story of the oatmeal, that was always so plentiful in his cook shanty. Scores of others had stories of valiant efforts to escape the punishment of the excellent meal prepared by Mine

Host O'Neil. Grave and Gay.

There were stories told beyond computation. Many of them were funny, some were pathetic, all were good. The swered the last roll call, or were pre-vented from attending, were kindly remembered, and the best of good-fel'ow-ship prevailed.

Col. W. M. Gartshore presided. It should do the honors, but he was detained by illness, much to his regret.
"He informed me of his condition, and I suggested that I send someone over to solace him," said Col.Gartshore. "He answered that he would stagger through alone."

"A good soldier," shouted one of the hoys, and the party joined in the compliment. Boys Welcomed.

the boys to the banquet, and expressed the great pleasure he and his brother officers felt in the excellent attendance at the reunion. It was a case of mutual satisfaction, and he declared that such gatherings would tend to foster the fine spirit so pronounced in the regiment of other days. Thirteenth Regiment, Hamilton. gave a very interesting and well pressed resume of the history of the by his excellent singing. Canadian militia, and traced its history in war. The record was a creditable one, whether in 1812, 1867, 1885, or at other times. He regretted the apathy of Canadians to things military, and declared that it was time Canadians roused themselves, and took a deeper interest in the defence of their

Every Man a Soldier. "Every man in Canada should serve by the men present. His memory is makes bonnie bairns

them strong and healthy.

children love it. The new

General Stores.

of OXO.

Growing children need the very best of

A cup of OXO before they start for school

OXO stimulates the digestion and supplies

OXO has the satisfying goodness that makes the contain all the flavour and food value of bottle OXO in a most convenient form. Each cube makes one good cup.

boxes of 4, 10 and 50 cubes, by Grocers, Druggists and

Prices of OXO cubes:

OXO is sold in 1, 2, 4, 8 and 16 oz. bottles and in food. That's why they should have plenty when they come in tired from play—at meal time—at bedtime—will help to make and keep material for blood, bone and muscle.

Saves ladling out-measuring-wasting.

three years in the militia, whether he broke stones or was a millionaire, said Major Labatt. "No man should be given the right to exercise the franchise unless he had served three Major Labatt declared that a National Defence Association was forming in Canada to foster loyalty, and it taken in regimental matters.

Lieut.-Col. A. A. Campbell, officer commanding of the Seventh, honored the toast to "The Seventh Fusiliers." He, too, referred to the apathetic con-CRAVE AND GAY STORIES ditions in Canada, especially in London, towards the militia. There was don, towards the militia. There was no danger whatever of militarism in Canada. It was necessary, he declared, to have trained men in case of war, and likened the present condition to the foolish virgins spoken of in the Scriptures. When Canadians had national self-respect they would be respected, he declared.

Northwest Field Force.

Capt. John Graham introduced the toast to the "Officers and Staff of the ture from London to take part in the Northwest Field Force." He named Riel Rebellion, by a banquet at the many of the officers: Col. Williams, Col. Smith, Col. Gartshore, Surgeon-It was a unique gathering, visitors leing present from far and near.

They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even There They were a fine body of men, even They were Harry Bapty, Lieut. Charles Bazan, Capt. Frank Butler, Lieut. Chisholm, Capt. Tracey, Lieut. Hesketh, Capt. Dillon, Major Beattie, Capt. Peters, a call to duty, if there was occasion.

Bugler Smith, of London, and Bugler
Robert Coughlin sounded the rollcall and the vatering lines up in the call, and the veterans lined up in the retunda and marched to the grill- trip to the west.

The toast was responded to briefly by Col. Gartshore, Capt. Dillon, Capt. Ed. Mackenzie, Capt. Geo. M. Reid.

A Happy Family.

Capt. Dillon, of Oshawa, grew remdone well. As a matter of fact, a iniscent in his speech, and told of the larger percentage than is the average valiant deeds of Sergt. Apted, the had "made good" in their line after greatest forager of them all. He rethey had returned from service in the ferred to his company as a happy family, and never knew in his experience so well-behaved a battalion as the On the table were piled cans of corned Seventh. He spoke of the reasons that impelled him to go to the front-the death of a son of Judge Elliot, the first man to fall at Duck Lake. He had known Mr. Elliot for some years, and had been associated with him for some time in a rifle club in the city. Capt. Dillon also spoke of his experience on the Wimbledon team, in which he represented the city of London. He conveyed to the veterans the kindly greeting of Major-General Laurie, who still remembered them with the kindest feelings. He thought these re-unions should be held annually, as he number of veterans was gradually

An Annual Banquet. Capt. Ed Mackeizie followed, and strongly advocated an annual banquet. Col. Gartshore paid a tribute to the of eating those things.

Of course, they were kept as souvenirs last night. None of the boys had nerve enough to eat them, in face the best adjutant the Seventh ever value of Capt. Mackenzie as an officer the best adjutant the Seventh ever had, recounted the days gone by, and spoke of many of the boys who were missing from the reunion. It was the intention to keep in touch with the boys, and when possible another reabsent members, whether they had an union would be held. He had received many telegrams and messages of re-gret at the inability of some of the boys to be present, but the gathering was a success beyond their fondest ine Honored Dead. Capt. Butler spoke briefly, as did

Lieut. Pope, Lieut. Bapty and Lieut. Chisholm. Sergt. Mills then read the list of honored dead, those present honoring it by standing while it was read. It was an imposing list-50 men out of the 252 who went west. The toast to the non-commissioned officers and men brought responses from Sergt.-Major Borland, R. C. R.; After the health of the King had been drunk, Col. Gartshore welcomed pin), Corp. Gould (Toronto), Pte. S. O. Lancaster, Pte. Chapman (Galt), and others.

Permanent Organization. Pte. Lancaster suggested a permanorganization of the veterans of London, and declared that the men should receive more recognition from the militiamen of the city. During the evening many songs were The first toast honored was that to "The Canadian Militia," and was responded to by Major Labatt, of the ability. Pte. Walter Wright sang a that was a real treat, while others contributed to the musical part of the deed a treat.

The Regrets. evening's enjoyment. Mr.W. A. Bleuthner made an ideal accompanist.
The toast, "Our Departed Comrades,"

Late Lieut. Cox. A tribute to the memory of Lieut. Charles F. Cox, the soldier who wrote the songs on the programme, was paid

AND STILL THEY COME

The new goods, the choice of the very cream of six of Canada's most progressive wholesale tailors, are pouring in every day by freight and express. We've some very exquisite things in Young Men's Suits for the spring season, new features in the cut and tailoring. We've some extraordinary values in the $18.00 Hand-Built Suits for $14.50

SATURDAY AND MONDAY.

78 Men's Handsomely Hand-Tailored Suits, and while we call them $18 Suits, most of them were made to sell at $20 and over. Come in Saturday. You can save enough on your Suit here to supply your Hat and Furnishings.

46 Sixteen-Dollar Suits for $10.80

ALL THIS SEASON'S BEST PATTERNS.

A reliable, progressive manufacturer anxious for an opening account in our London store, offered our firm these as a bait, and we dipped in heavily for both stores, and we're giving the advantage to our customers. See that you are one.

Black and Blue Hand-Tailored Suits

Undoubtedly they are values that owing to the advance in the English woollen market cannot be duplicated. We secured over fifteen hundred yards of the Cloths before the advance. We're building a trade here for reliable goods, and goods that are not equalled by any other house in $6.90, $9.80, $12, $14, $17, $20, $21, $24, $25.

22 Boys' $7.50 High School Cadet Suits

SATURDAY AND MONDAY, $4.90.

Purchased for ready cash at a clearing price, and marked by us at a price that will keep them on a quick move. Sizes, 28 to 33.

coats at $10.80

Fine Dressy English Cheviot in black English mohair linings.

Other lines at $6.90, $9.80 and $13.50. All marked in plain figures.

Silk Faced Over- | Men's $6.50 Work Suits $3.90 Only 58 Suits in the lot; strong, durable cloth, well tailored.

They're certainly a surprise in clothes values. Come and sec.

Work Trouser Bargains

Best $2.00 Worsted Trousers. $1.69 $3.50 English Worsted Trousers...

$2.75 keenly priced.

Fine Dress Trousers

200 pairs best $1.50 Trousers...$1.19 $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, Best $1.00 Mole Trousers.....65¢ $3.50, $3.75, $4 to $6.50.

We carry all sizes, 30 to 50-inch waist. Handsome English worsteds.

Dowler Reliable RAINPROOFS

AT $4.95, $6.50, $8.50, $10, $12 TO $18.

You will certainly be pleased with our garments, and save dollars in the

Boys' Wash Suits

Direct from New York, all new styles and fast colors, on display in Boys' Department.

A Large Shipment of Boys' Norfolk Suits

In reliable cloths, the kind that give a boy a test to wear, arrived today for Saturday's trade.

OUR FURNISHING DEPARTMENT IS BLOOMING OUT IN ALL THAT IS CORRECT FOR SPRING

CLUET'S MONARCH SHIRTS placed in stock today White Pleated Shirts-Over one hundred dozen of the new patterns, many of which are exclusive. •

$1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75

18 DOZEN FINE NEGLIGEE SHIRTS AT 48c

All new patterns, in stripes

"DOWLER" 3 PAIRS FOR | DENT'S ENGLISH GLOVES $1 HOSE, we're told, are the best in London, and we be-

100 DOZEN BEST 25¢ English Cashmere Hose, Saturday and Saturday night.. 19¢ JUST ARRIVED

75¢, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 ings for the particular young and $1.75.

SPRING CAPS—Four large shipments have been stocked. In the gray suedes and capes. All the new shapes and color-

Extra salespeople, extra hands in our alteration shop, extra facilities and an immensely increased stock of bright, new goods for Saturday's selling. Do not pay out one dollar for your spring outfit till you examine our values and try on our goods. Remember the name, "Dowler." Remember the place, London's largest clothing store, 176 and 178 Dundas street. A style book for the asking.

R. H. & J. DOWLER, LONDON AND ST. THO

Pte. Thomas Martin sang a song enthusiasm displayed by the old vet-was drunk in impressive silence.

apparently very fresh among the men, John L. Martin, Thomas C. Mills, apparently very fresh among the men.
The menu card was a unique souvenir. It contained references to the many stops along the road, all of which called forth memories, more or less pleasing.

Several songs were printed, and the Saveral songs were printed, and the Saveral songs were printed, and the source of the Lake Martin, Thomas C. Mills, J.

Source of the Lake Springeld police department, and details on a detailed forth memory between the Lake Saving that he would see all the news-saying that he would see all the new ability. Pte. Walter Wright sang a song well. Lieut. Harry Bapty showed how he entertained the boys in camp pleasing.

many stops along the road, all of which camp don), R. H. Labatt (Hamilton), A. A. Campbell, W. M. Gartshore (London), R. Dillon (Oshawa), L. H. Hyttenrauch, R. Dillon (Oshawa), L. H. Hyttenrauch, R. Dillon (Oshawa), L. H. Garden) Several songs were printed, and the erans in singing these songs was in-

> Capt. Butler, the secretary of the committee, read letters of regret from the following: Lieut. Wilson Owens, of Toronto; Pte. Bert Lee, Strathroy; Bugler Charles W. Channer, Detroit; Pte. J. F. Grey, Vancouver; Sergt. H. Pte. J. F. Grey, Vancouver; Sergt. H. Rowland; Cupertino, Cal.; Pte. T. R. Harwood, Stettler, Alta; Sergt. A. Leslie, Port Dalhousie; Pte. R. A. Smith, St. Paul, Minn; Pte. C. A. Allison, Chicago; Pte. W. H. Hodgins, Granby, Que.; Pte. R. J. M. Webbe, Knowlton, Que.; Sergt. J. W. McLintock Toyonto: Pte R. M. Humble Victor tock, Toronto; Pte. R. M. Humble, Vic-B. C.; Dr. Gibson, Moosejaw Pte. Fred R. Pickles, Santa Anna, Cal.;
> Pte. George R. Westland, Innisfail,
> Alta.; Bugler T. Coughlin, Detroit;
> Pte. John W. Cowan, Seattle; Pte. John Macdonald, Winnipeg; Lt. J. A. Hesketh, Winnipeg; Capt. Frank Peters, Winnipeg; Sergt. D. Dyson, Winnipeg; Winnipeg; Sergt. D. Dyson. Winnipeg; Lieut. Alfred Jones, Haileybury; Sergt. J. J. Lynch, Harvey, Ill.; Pte. Stanley Pettit, Toronto; Lieut. C. B. Bazan. New York, and Pte. George Lovell, of

West Branch, Mich. Capt Reid read regrets from Major Beattie, M. P., Ottawa; Ed Gower, of at the banquet. Windsor; L. H. Wright, Vancouver; G. "He was a fin wingsor; L. H. wright, validatively, Armstrong, Chelmsford, Mass; J. O'Brien, Toronto; H. B. Dignam, of Brooklyn, and others.

Those Present.

Those present at the gathering

Corp. W. P. Essex (Tamblings Corners), J. E. Crawford (chief of police Sarnia), Lance-Sergt. W. D. Mills (London), Pte. J. P. Moore (London), great fun in the regiment. F. Westaway (St. Thomas), A. McNamara (London), A. E. Somerville (London), W. D. I. Wright (London), Herbert Macbeth (Toronto), James Mich., sent his regrets, but when Smith (London), George Lovell (North the time came he simply could not Branch, Mich.), Uri McRoberts (London), George McComb (Masonville), Color-Sergt. Alex. Borland (Woodstock), Corp. H. Clark (West London), Joseph Dickens (Stratford), J. B. Walton (London), D. Steele (London), J. D. Jacobs (London), W. A. Hayden (London), N. A. Meyer (Granby, Que.), T. Bayley (London), Bugler (London), James Robert Coughlin Color-Sergt. Grant (London), Jacobs (London), H. Arbuckle (London), George Davis (London), Sergt. Michael Collier (London), Capt. Geo. M. Reid, J. K. H. Pope, Ed. W. Har-rison (London), H. J. Armstrong (Science Hill), George Terry (London), W. Smith (London), W. R. Pate (London), S. McCoy (London), R. H. DeGreau (London), John Graham, A. G. Chisholm, Harry Bapty, F. H. Butler, J. S. Niven, M.D. (London), J. Muirhead (Toronto), Color-Sergt. A. Jackson,

M.D. (Appin), W. Smithson (London),

tant George M. Reid, Capt. E. Mackenzie, Capt. John Graham, Lieut. A. G. Chisholm, Lieut. J. K. H. Pope, Lieut. Harry Bapty, Lance-Corp. W. D. Mills, Ptes. W. D. I. Wright, A. E. Somerville, J. P. Moore, R. H. Dignan and C. H. Gould. Some Soldier Tales,

"Do you remember?" These words by actual count were the most frequently used at the bansomething he wanted to call to mind, what he says about it himself: and he generally succeeded. The Advertiser representative in the field, the late Mr. Ed. Hutchinson, brother of Dr. T. V. Hutchinson, M. H. O.,

"He was a fine boy," said Dr. Hyt-"He was the only man in tenrauch. the regiment I could beat playing checkers." The genial doctor told of Ed.'s enor-was remembered by many kindly words

"hailstone," with which he mous fooled Chaplain Ball and Surgeon-Major Fraser. It happened to be the last remnants of Ed.'s candle, and the story created

One of the Boys. Pte. George Lovell, of West Branch stay away, and was one of the boys at the banquet. He told how he snared gophers, and afterwards turned them loose in Chaplain Ball's tent, much to the discomfiture of the latter. When he finished slaughtering gophers in the dark, the place resembled a slaughter-house.

Lynne' the night we were ordered out," said Billy Mills. It may be added that this play is still being presented for the first time. A Sugar Thief. Pte. Lancaster told very feelingly of

"I saw a performance of "East

Continued on Page Twelve. Boston, April 6.—The death of A.
Brown, president of the Hotel and Rallroad News Company, occurred at his home in Brookline today. Mr. Brown was born in Greenock, Scotland. 54 years ago,

CONFESSES TO MURDER

George Chapman (Galt), S. O. Lancaster, George F. Apted, James E. Goold (London), James Harding, Major Borland (London), and others.

The Committee.

The committee, to whom credit is due, was composed as follows: Col. M. Smith (chairman), Capt. F. H. Butter (corretains), Light Col. M. Springfield in a panic condition for a long series of masked burglaries, which have kept the residents of Springfield in a panic condition for a long series of maked burglaries, and her special trip vesterday afternoon had her special trip vesterday afternoon and her special trip vesterday afternoon had her special trip vesterday afternoon and her special trip vesterday afternoon had her special trip vesterday afternoon and her special trip ves further to withstand the merciless grill-M. Smith (chairman), Capt. F. H. Butler (secretary), Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, Major Thomas Beattie, Surgeon J. S. Niven, Capt and Adjutant George M. Reid, Capt. E. Mac-

3 YEARS INDIGESTION

3 Boxes Little Digesters-Entirely Cured

It was a lucky day for Mr. Payn, whose portrait appears below, when he "Little Digesters" advertisesaw a ment in the paper, for it marked his quet of the veterans. Everybody had first step on the road to health. Read

THE COLEMAN MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen,

Having suffered for three years with Indigestion, nothing could relieve me, having seen your advertisements in the paper for "Little Digesters," took three, was entirely cured. I feel convinced that anyone suffering with same will not fail to try "Little Digesters." PHILIP PAYN, Junior.

tablets compounded of the purest and best ingredients for the relief of stomach troubles. They are positively guaranteed to cure even chronic cases of Indigestion or Dyspepsia or money In little red boxes-25c. from you burglar who entered the Dow home early on yesterday's trip, No one is at present engaged in ev porting hard woods from Ecuado

Port Huron, April 6.—The new passen-ger steamer Rochester, built by the De-troit Shipbuilding Company for the Rich-the American News Company, celebrate elieu and Ontario Navigation Company, his 97th birthday a few days ago in New had her special trip yesterday afternoon York.

F. G. L. MOORE, Wholesale Fruits, Fish an Oysters. 1 Market Square Distributo of Violet Brand Sunkist Oranges and Lemons

Only Gloved Hands Pick "Sunkist" Oranges

We use great care in picking the famous "SUNKIST" ORANGES.
"CULLUST" ORANGE is picked from the tree and packed in the box by a gloved hand. No orange that falls to the ground is packed under the "SUNKIST" label.

"Sunkist" Navel Oranges Are Seedless We grow 60% of all the California oranges. Three-fourths of all the lemons. Most of them are sold in bulk, but the choicest selections of this great quantity are wrapped in the "SUNKIST" label, so that if you would be sure that you get the choicest pick, insist upon the "SUNKIST."

Beautiful Orange Spoon FREE

Some dealers may claim the oranges they sell are the famous "SUNKIST," but that they have removed the wrapper. Insist on your dealer giving you oranges and lemons on the "SUNKIST" wrapper. If you do this we will give rou a beautiful orange spoon—one of Rogers' best standard AA quality. Just send us twelve "SUNKIST" orange or lemon wrappers, with six 2c stamps to pay postage, packing, etc., and receive one of these beautiful spoons by return mail. The choicest quality of lemons also go under the "SUNKIST" label. You can easily secure a whole dozen of these beautiful orange spoons. Get a dozen "SUN-

Send to California

Fruit Growers' Exchange

"Little Digesters" are dainty little druggist or by mail from Coleman Medi-KIST" oranges or lemons today.

Tin of 4 cubes, 10c; of 10 cubes, 25c; of 50 cubes, $1.15.