LONDON PLAYERS FAST

But They Depend on Individual
Rushes—Everybody Suffered From Fatigue.

The Woodstock Express says of the Junior O. H. A. game that Friday night, in which London was beaten 9 to 4: Of the losers it must be said that they have some excellent skaters, and again they displayed speed which kept the locals jumping to catch up, but the hostlers were one they for them, and if they missed one they ran against another before they got very far. In fact, at cover-point, was about the pick of the London aggregation, but Dunsmore and Valden on the wings rendered effective service. Watts, in goal, was all good and stopped several hot ones.

Both teams showed brilliant streaks at times. The Woodstock boys had on their opponents, however, at the very stage of the game and the majority of the London players were regarded to weight, the teams were evenly matched. Although the London players were fairly clean and the majority of the London players were regarded to weight, the teams were evenly matched. Although the London players were fairly clean and the majority of the London players were regarded to weight, the teams were evenly matched.

Numerous off-sides by both teams marred the game to some extent, but when it is taken into consideration that none of the players engaged had had very much experience in O. H. A. games this fault will be overlooked for the time being at least.

The Sentinel-Review looks at it this way: That the Woodstock Juniors are to be seriously reckoned with, before this year's Junior O. H. A. championship, is placed on any grounds, was something that everyone who saw the Baby City team gallop through London, 9-4, last night here, London only provided an exercise gallop for the locals.

There are not many fifteen-year-old players in the Junior O. H. A. Woodstock has one in the person of Glenn Smith, the sturdy rover of the local junior aggregation. Smith, has only lately celebrated his fifteenth birthday, but performs like a veteran, bidding fair to rival the youthful Jack Spratt, of the champion St. Michael's team.

Glenn was always with the puck last night, and participated in almost every bit of the Woodstock combination play. He proved effective in breaking up the London rushes, and sent a number of wicked shots at the London nets.

Both teams were attacked by a slight spasm of stage fright during the first few minutes of play, but the players soon got their bearings. Woodstock certainly has a husky team for a junior aggregation, and they will improve wonderfully with team practice. The London boys did not seem to be quite so well seasoned as the locals, and did not stand the pace as well.

STANLEY COMES AFTER
JOHNNY COULON'S BELTEnglishman Arrives in New York to Do Battle for the Bantamweight Title.

[Special to The Advertiser.] New York, Jan. 9.—"Digger" Stanley, the crack little English boxer, has arrived, and aspiring bantam-weights had better seek the cyclone cellar or come forth and do battle. With a string of victories and glory which makes the ordinary record look insignificant, the Briton is here to force some of the clever little fellows into a match, and, if possible, go back home with the title safely tucked beneath his belt.

Stanley arrived tonight on board the steamship Caronia, from Liverpool, and will make his American debut at an early date. His initial bout will be on Jan. 20 with Frankie Burns, of Jersey City, the engagement to take place before one of the New York clubs.

After Coulon. Stanley is the challenger to Johnny Coulon, the claimant to the title, and if possible he will force the Chicago boy into a championship bout as soon as possible. The weight question can be foregone on this time, for a foreigner can make as low as 112 pounds, so it will be a case of either fight or concede the honors to the light of the challenger, according to report, has already made known his intention to meet anyone at his weight, so Stanley figures that there will be little or no trouble encountered in coming to some sort of an agreement.

A LONG LOST RECRUIT
LOCATED BY DREYFUSSSherrod Smith, Twister, Told by Jacksonville Management, He Had No Right to Negotiate.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Smith, the long lost Jacksonville baseball pitcher, has been found. He was located at Marietta, Ga. Numerous letters sent by the Jacksonville club were unanswered until today, when Smith sent in a signed contract. Smith is a native of Jacksonville, and has been in the Jacksonville club since he was 18 years old. He was a pitcher, and was known as "Twister" Smith. He was a long lost recruit, and was located by Dreyfuss.

R. UNHOLZ SAYS
PAPKE WAS SICKBoer Blames Yellow Jaundice for Defeat of "Thunderbolt."

[By Associated Press.] San Francisco, Jan. 8.—That Billy Papke was suffering from yellow jaundice on the day he lost on a foul to Dave Smith in Australia is the information brought here yesterday by the "Boer" (Boer) team. Unholz, who arrived on the steamer Ananias after two years spent in the Antipodes, said that Papke was sick a few days before the fight.

"He must have been pretty bad to have lost to Dave Smith," said Unholz. "The latter is a young fellow and appears to have a future, but he has not been long in the game."

THE BUSHY WHO DIDN'T MAKE GOOD TELLS HIS STORY AROUND THE HOT STOVE CIRCUIT

"Them old-timers in the big leagues git sore when one of us bushers breaks in and shows 'em up and the papers print nice things about us. It hadn't been for a bunch that stood in with the manager I'd have stuck. I made good all right, all right. I'll show 'em yet."

NEW YORK NATIONALS

EASTERN LEAGUE IS NOT
LOOKING FOR TROUBLEPresident Barrow Says Stories of War on Majors is Unsubstantiated.

[Associated Press.] New York, Jan. 9.—The Eastern League, according to an official statement made today by President Edward Barrow, has no intention of making war on the major leagues and the National Association.

President Barrow says that the club owners of his organization desire certain concessions from the national commission, and shortly will make their requests to the governing body. "Although I intend to look after and protect the interests of the Eastern League in every possible manner," said President Barrow, "I do not plan to advise or try to lead its members into a warfare on organized ball. I always have been an advocate of organized ball, and I believe the great advance the game has made in the past has been due to air-tight organizations."

RECEIVER APPOINTED
FOR FAMOUS JOAN, 2:03 3-4Owners Wrangle Over Trotting Mare's Winning and Season's Expenses.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Cleveland, O., Jan. 9.—Upon application of A. M. Hamilton, of Wheeling, W. Va., Judge Keeler today appointed Vance Kneeling, the well-known Cleveland horseman, receiver for the famous trotting mare Joan, 2:03 3/4, and granted a restraining order preventing David Shaw, the Pittsburgh millionaire, from interfering with the horse. The court's action today developed the fact, according to Mr. Hamilton's petition, that Mr. Shaw is not sole owner of the horse, but that Hamilton owns a quarter interest. According to Hamilton's petition, Joan's winnings the last season were $10,000, and he asserted that when he and Shaw came to a settlement, Shaw refused to pay him a bill of expenses of $6,701. A dispute arose over some of the items in the bill.

FEATURE CONTEST

In One Town Referee Did Not Know the Rules and Called a Draw—
Two Suspensions.

The Toronto Sunday World: The closing of the first week of the New Year series of the O. H. A., in their three different series, have already played 48 games, a considerable number of which have been decided by the closest of margins, and on a couple of occasions it has been necessary to play overtime. In a game between Wellesley and Ayr a draw was declared, this was on account of the fact that the referee, who was a member of the O. H. A., called a draw. The two games played in the senior series were excellent contests, though Parkdale had somewhat of an easy time with Stratford, who only came into the senior series at the last moment. The game between the two teams was a very close one, and the referee, who was a member of the O. H. A., called a draw. The referee, who was a member of the O. H. A., called a draw. The referee, who was a member of the O. H. A., called a draw.

Seaford Going Ahead. Seaford in the junior series are making great strides towards winning their group, having tucked away three wins without losing any so far. Peterborough and Seaford have yet to be beaten, and have each won two games. Peterborough's defeat of Lindsay on Friday night by the big score of 17 to 3 was a surprise, as these two towns generally play very close games. The latest result of the season so far was Ingersoll 2, Seaford 1.

In the intermediate series Drumbo have won all three games they have played, while Markham, Stratford, Chatham and Watford have each won two without a defeat. Collingwood, last year's champions, won the only game they have played so far this season. Broadview's defeat of Latons by 6-4 was somewhat of a surprise.

SENIORS.

Dates for the group may be re-arranged on account of Kingston dropping out.
