She is clad in garments of beauty for more conductive to the control of beauty for men, and age does not soil them nor years make them cheap and tawdry. Her tongue is without guilt, having never been the messenger of a lie. It is seventeen years since her soul went home to God, and her fingers became for me the fingers of an angel, but I have not forgotten all she said. She told me there was a Santa Claus, and I believe her. He brings me no longer drums and fifes. But he still brings to me the vision of my mother and the music of that angelic chorus which sang at creation's dawn and at the hour of man's redemption."
