THE SPORTING WORLD

Frask Doyle 'allaa Roger Earle and James Fitz-herring aliae Sparrow Gouldy were tried on Tuesday at Phir Aciphia for the part they took in a prize fight, but were dismissed because it was impossible to prove, that money had been wagered on the result. This seems to open a new point, as, according to 'his Philadeiphia judge, two men can fight all they like and as long as it cannot be proved there was no money wagered they cannot be interfered with.

Fulifames' Fight. For a month says a New York paper, there, has been much bad blood between George Fulljames, the light-weight champion of Teronto, and Paddy Gallagher, the middle-weight champion of Saratogs. They met by appointment on Tucsday evening and agreed to fight with hard gloves for a subscribed purse of $500 at an out of the way place in the city, neither man to have more than thirty mon, including seconds, with him. These provisions were carried out to the letter, and about fifty persons, among whom were brokers, merchants, an aporting men, come by twos and threes to the place named. They paid $10 each for admission. The accommodations were supple. The ring was creeded in the rear of the room, the spectators being scated on becches set up for the occ alons.

Fullyames is 30 years old, stands bleet 42 inches, weighed 143 pounds, and was seconded by Sever Tayloz. Gallagher is 27 years of age, stands 5 feet 10 mehas and weighed 168 pounds. He was seconded by Fiddler Neary. Jack Harris, an old time sport, acted as referce. Beb Frawley umpired Full; james, and Johnny Stake was for Gallagher. The referce also acted as time keeper. He announced that the fight would be according to the London prize ring rules.

Fulljames was the first to appear on the stage. He was followed five minutes nater by Gallagher. They stripped quickly, and at 96 oclock shook hands In the old-fashioned style. Very little time was spent in sparring.

We have not only a living faith in Mrs. Pinkham, but we are assured that her medicines are at once most agreeable and efficacious.

"Dear me!" exclaimed Lucinda, "what a tiresome talker that Dr. Jelker is in His long talks would tire anything!" Whereat her brother, Tom, the wheelwright's apprentice, said: "I'd like to see him talk long enough to tire a wagon wheel!" long enough to tire a wagon wheel!"

Mr. A. Fisher, of the Toronto Globe, says:
"I take great pleasure in recommending Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure to the public. I have suffered with dyspepsis for some time, and have tried several remedies without receiving any benefit. Being recommended to do so, I used one bottle, and must say that I find the result perfectly satisfactory, not having been troubled with this distressing disease since, and would recommend others similarly afflicted to purchase a bottle at once and try it, as I am satisfied they will receive benefit from its use."
