The Russian Crown.

The crown used by the Russian czar resembles the dome formed patriarchal miter, which was a favorite shape among the Byzantines. Upon the summit appears a cross formed of five beautiful diamonds, which is also supported by a large spinel ruby, polished, but not faceted. This ruby and cross are supported by a foliated arch composed of eleven great diamonds and rising from the back and front of the base of the crown. On either side of this central arch is attached a hoop formed of thirty-eight large and perfect pearls. The spaces on either side of these arches are filled with leafwork and ornaments in silver, incrustated with diamonds, underlaid with the richest purple velvet. The band which forms the base of the crown is of gold and is ornamented with twenty-eight magnificent diamonds.

The Independent Farmer.

Buy a farm, young man. No matter how small it may be, buy a farm and prepare it so that your land will provide you a living. Twenty years from now the man who owns his own farm will be independent and will have at his command the means of a livelihood. The expansion of manufactures cannot go on forever, and there will come a day in this country, as there has in others, when the supply will exceed the demand and the only absolutely sure occupation will be farming. Buy a farm while one may be had.

Rome's Triumphal Crown.

The triumphal crown of Rome was made of laurel leaves and was given to the general who achieved a great victory over an enemy. He entered the city not by a gate, but over a portion of the wall which was thrown down to afford a passage. At his funeral his laurel crown was placed in his bier and buried with the body.

No range can bake so well as the Imperial Oxford, because no other range has the Diffusive Oven Flue that draws in pure air constantly, heats it just as hot as you want it heated, and sends it through every part of the whole oven every second. That flue, found only in this perfect range, keeps that heated pure air—DRY air—constantly moving DOWNWARD through the oven, over the baking food, and out up the chimney. When it enters the oven it's hot and dry; when it leaves it, it's wet air, carries with it all the moisture, all the odors, but NONE of the juices of the food that's being baked.

Please visit any of our stores and see why this is the right range for your kitchen.

Ice and Typhoid.

Typhoid seems to go hand in hand with lake water in all big cities using that source of supply. But Chicago, which has more water than it has since 1893 attributes its epidemic not to the municipal water supply but to impure milk and ice. Owing to the lack of rain, dairymen have taken water from disused wells and stagnant pools, and the ice, it is claimed, because of the crop shortage, utilized the product from polluted ponds. Utizna are warned to eat no food that has come in direct contact with the ice, and to drink no water in which ice has been placed. The advice is of wider application than the precincts of Chicago.

YOU NEED STRENGTH.

Vitality is Lacking and You Must Have a Bracing Tonic at Once.

You are sick and need medicine. Not an emulsion to sicken the stomach, not a "dope" that makes you feel a nourishing tonic that will increase weight, strength and spirits. Try Ferruzone and watch the result. Because it gives instant effect and steadily builds up new flesh, it is used by thousands in ill-health.

No other medicine contains more nutriment, supplies better building material, makes you feel well and strong as quickly as it did Mrs. Charles Benny, of Cloyse, Ont.

HER STATEMENT.

"I was sick. I was broken down had no strength, couldn't eat, I was sleepless. My nerves were irritable. I was thin, bloodless and continually unhappy. I tried Ferruzone. It gave me new energy, force, vim. It brought me comfort, strength—it made me well. It's by making the appetite good, by instilling iron and ozone in the blood by fortifying the system with reserve strength, that Ferruzone accomplishes so much. You'll have new life in a week, in a month you'll be like a new being. Try Ferruzone. It always justifies itself. 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers.

Stabbing is Charged.

Amherstburg, Ont., Oct. 5.—Gay Brown, of Harrow, is under arrest charged with stabbing Percy King, of the Fox Livery Barn here. Brown drove from his home and left his rig in the Fox barn. When he called for it he and King had a dispute about the livery charges. A mix-up followed, during which it is alleged Brown drew a knife and struck King. King's cuts were found on the latter's body. Brown was remanded for one week, and has been removed to Sandwich jail.

The Late Mrs. Truman.

The death occurred at noon on Friday, Sept. 23, at the family residence, east Front street, of Amy Elizabeth Nixon, beloved wife of Mr. Richard Truman, aged 31 years. Deceased had been confined to her bed for some four weeks with typhoid fever, and her recovery was looked for until a few days preceding her death, when an inflammation of the bowels developed and she sank rapidly. She was the daughter of the late Dr. Nixon, who practiced medicine at Napier, and was married to Mr. Truman, then a citizen of Metcalfe township. Some months ago they located in Strathroy. Mr. Truman being interested in the insurance business. Besides her beloved husband she leaves one daughter, Alma, nearly four years of age, who will now live with her grandmother, Mrs. John Truman, Maitland street. She also leaves one brother, Dr. Nixon, of Holloway, Mich., and three sisters, Mrs. Wm. Howden, Watford; Mrs. Wm. Sutherland, of the home; and Miss Victoria Nixon at home. Everything that careful nursing and medical skill could suggest was done, but to no avail. Miss Hume, a trained nurse, was in constant attendance throughout her illness.

The funeral took place to the Strathroy cemetery Sunday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Conway, of Harrow, officiating conducting the services and the pallbearers being Messrs. Dr. Nixon, Holloway, Mich.; J. T. Truman, London; H. Morgan, Metcalfe; George Field, Napier; Wm. Howden, Watford, and J. W. Cameron, of Strathroy. The members of her family were all present.—Strathroy Dispatch

HOW FAME COMES.

Men Who Became Great Through Accident or Chance.

Accident has played an important part in the making of great men. If Cooper had never been challenged by his wife to write as good a story as an English novel he had been reading he might never have been one of the great novelists.

If Napoleon had persisted in his attempts to be a writer of essays after he left the military academy the world would not have known this great general.

If Shakespeare had not failed as a wool merchant and turned actor and then, becoming disgusted with himself as an indifferent player, applied himself to writing there would never have been the plays of today would have been inferior to what they are.

Cowley became a poet purely through chance. When only a boy he found in his mother's attic a copy of Spenser's "Faerie Queene" and, becoming enchanted by the rhyme, determined to write poetry for himself.

Gibbon tells that it was while he was at Rome among the ruins of the capitol that he was first moved to write the history of the rise and fall of that great empire. Probably had he not taken a walk on that certain sunny day he would never have conceived the work that afterward made him famous.

Cornelle, the French poet, was in the habit of making verses for his friends. Being flattered by their criticism, he gave up his profession as a lawyer and turned writer.

Franklin discovered electricity by accident, and Mollere was turned to writing comedy from the tapestry trade, by a reprimand from his father for leading a dissipated life.

Newton discovered the force of gravitation through a mere chance. When a student at Cambridge he went one day to the country. Being weary with his rambles, he sat down beneath an apple tree, and while he was musing there was rudely aroused by a severe blow from an apple which, falling from the branches, struck him on the head. He was surprised at the force of the blow from so small an object, and this led him to deduce the principle of gravity.

Flamsteed became an eminent astronomer through chance. Because of ill health he was taken from school, and, wishing to have some books to read while in confinement, he borrowed a book on astronomy. He was so much interested in this volume that he procured others and at length adopted the study as a profession.

Pennant, the authority on natural history, received his propensity in that direction through a chance perusal of a book on birds which he found on a table in the house of a friend, and Sir Joshua Reynolds was first moved to his profession of painting portraits by casually reading Richardson's treatise.

Mistakes of Authors.

The author of "Don Quixote" makes the party at the Crescent tavern eat two suppers in one evening. Scott in one chapter of "Ivanhoe" gives the Christian name of Malvoisin as Richard; subsequently altering it to Phillip. Pope makes a vessel eat corn. Kingsley makes John Brumblcombe read the prayer for "All sorts and conditions of men," though in the time of Elizabeth the prayer book did not contain it. Sir Archibald Alison speaks of "Sir Peregrine Pickle" when he means Sir-Peregrine Maitland, and the same author translated "droid de timbre" as timber duty "a howler," which is only equaled by Victor Hugo's translation of "Ejith of Forth," "premier de quatre"—London Academy.

Hard Praying.

This story is told by a clergyman from North Carolina: "An old colored man stole a pig and after getting home with the animal knelt to pray before retiring. His wife heard him praying to the Lord to forgive him for stealing the pig. She went to sleep with Uncle Eph still praying. Later in the night she woke up and saw her husband still kneeling in prayer. At daybreak his supplications had not ceased. 'Eph, why don't you come to bed?' asked his wife. 'Let me 'lone, 'Riah; de mo' I tries to 'plain to de Lord how I come to steal dat pig de wusser I gits mixed.'"

Learned Better.

"My daughter has learned one thing at boarding school," exclaimed the man, "and that is how to write a legible hand."

"How did it happen?" asked a friend.

"She kept writing home for money," said No. 1, "and I sent back word I couldn't read a word of her letters. It soon cured her of that Chinese chirography."

SUNLIGHT SOAP

is better than other Soaps but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Follow directions.

SUNLIGHT WAY OF WASHING

FIRST.—Dip the article to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a washboard and rub the soap lightly over it. Be particular not to miss soaping all over. THEN roll it in a tight roll, lay in the tub under the water, and go on the same way until all the pieces have the soap rubbed on, and are soiled up.

Then go away for thirty minutes in one hour and let the "Sunlight" Soap do its work.

NEXT.—After soaping the full time rub the clothes lightly out on a wash board, and the dirt will drop out. Turn the garment inside out to get at the seams, but don't use any more soap; don't scald or boil a single piece, and don't wash through two soaks. If the water gets too dirty, pour a little out and add fresh. If a streak is hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw the piece back into the tub for a few minutes.

LASTLY COMES THE RINSING, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

For Woolens and Flannels proceed as follows:— Shake the articles free from dust. Cut a tablet of SUNLIGHT SOAP into shavings, pour into a gallon of boiling water and whisk into a lather. When just lukewarm, work articles in the lather without rubbing. Squeeze out dirty water without twisting and rinse thoroughly in two relays of lukewarm water. Squeeze out water without twisting and hang in the open air.

The most delicate colors may be safely washed in the "Sunlight" way.

$5,000 REWARD will be paid to any person who proves that Sunlight Soap contains any injurious chemicals or any form of adulteration.

5c. Buy it and follow directions. 5c.
