February 9th is Fisherman's Day—National Fish Day, designed to commemorate the thousands of brave fishermen who daily risk their lives to furnish us with food, and also to develop greater respect for the nutritive and economic value of fish as an item in one's diet. Let everyone whether in the habit of eating fish or not, give it the premier place in the National Fish Day meals.

There is considerable complaint from our Toronto subscribers that they often do not receive their copy of the Guide-Advocate until the Saturday and sometimes Monday after publication. The papers are mailed here on Thursday afternoon and go east on the 5.45 p.m. train and should be in Toronto the next day. The delay must occur in the Toronto postoffice and the inspector of the district should look into the matter.

In the Cong'l church on Sunday the pastor, Rev. T. DeCoursey Rayner, is continuing his series of messages on Real Religion, leading up to the week of special services commencing Sunday, Feb. 13th. Each afternoon at 3 p.m. there will be "Talks on the Lord's Return" and each evening at 8 p.m. an Evangelist service. Keep these dates free. Mr. MacKenzie is a good preacher and a sound Bible Teacher. You should hear him.

THE GYPSY MAID

The audience at the Lyceum on Saturday night was delighted with the musical operetta "The Gypsy Maid," by a Toronto company brought to town by Lambton chapter 149, I.O.D.E. The program from first to last was delightful and varied, and there was not a dull moment during the performance. In their fascinating costumes the dainty dancers charmed their audience, while Miss Pearl O'Neil's brilliant readings brought hearty applause. In the choruses their voices blended in harmony and the operatic numbers from "The Mikado," "Bohemian Girl," "Ziegfeld Follies" and "The Chocolate Soldier" were a rare treat to a Watford audience, and proved that just as good music can be furnished by Canadian artists as that rendered by those imported from the U. S. and the money spent kept in our own country. On Sunday evening a quartette of the company gave a sacred concert in the Lyceum when the audience enjoyed singing rarely heard in a small town.
