Chicago Horse Market.

Jan. 25th. - Receipts are abnorm. Hy heavy, but the large attendance of buyers is preventing any congestion of the market. There has been freer buying on export account and farm chunks are ruling stronger. The draft classes of medium weights, 1,200 to 1,500 lbs. are meeting with a better inquiry than very heavy weights, and selling relatively to better advantage.

Nuggets of Gold in the Harvest Field.

STORY OF THE SUCCESS OF THE FROST AND WOOD COMPANY, LIMITED, OF SWITH'S FALLS

The receipt of the handsome estalogue, prothe receipt of the handsome extalogue, pro-fusely illustrated, embracing 48 pages and cover, is suggestive of the extent and growth of the business of the Frost A Wood Co., Limited, of Smith's Falls.

This from are makers of a most all kinds of harresting machinery, and how well their goods are liked in the harvesting field is shown in the extensive business done during the past year, making necessary the enlarging of their premises and the increase of their plant fully three times over that of a year ago. The new three times over that of a year ago. The new building is four stories high and 60x150 feet long.

The firm tell us that their output for 1890 was the largest in the history of their business and then the demand exceeded the supply by hundreds of machines. It is never pleasant to disappoint customers, who, influenced by the superior qualities of an article, want it and no other. The determination of the Frost & Wood Co. is to avoid trouble of this kind in 1900, and with their added equipment they do not anticipate any difficulty in filling all orders that may come to them.

The greatest care is given to the manufacture of every article that bears the name of this firm. Emphasis might be placed on the completeness of what is known as the Frost & Wood New Mower, No. 8, which stands in very large (ayer among farmers in all secin very large favor among farmers in all sections of the Dominion. In the catal gue which is on our desk a full description is given of this mower and we would suggest that readers of FARMING drop the Frost & Wool Co. a line, and, in mentioning this paper a copy of their catalogue, in which the mower is described with many illustrations, will be sent

The Frost & Wood Co. have very happily named the catalogue "Nuggets of Gold in the Harvest Field." Just how much gold the farmer will take out of his harvest will detarmer will take out of his harvest will depend in large measure on the class of machinery that is used in harvesting his crop. There will hardly be any mistake made in the implements used if bearing the name of Frost & Wood Co., Limited, Smith's Falls, Ont. The company have branch offices and warerooms in Toronto, London, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, N.B., Truro, N.S., and Winniper, Man. nipeg, Man.
