CHURCH SOCIETY.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS'

The Annual Collection for the Widows and Orphans' fund of the Church Society, is appointed to be taken up in October.

There will be a special meeting of the Mission Branch, held at the Church Society Rooms, on Tuesday, the 8th October, at noon, to consider the means of providing for the support of those about to be ordained.

CHURCH SOCIETY.

The absence of the Secretary at Montreal will explain the reason why any collections due at his office, after Saturday, the 7th inst., are not acknowledged in this number.

NOTICE.

The managing committee of the Home District Branch of the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto, will meet on Wednesday, 25th September, at 11 a.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to the Home District Divinity Exhibition at Trinity College, and of transacting other business.

H. C. COOPER, Secretary, H. D.
August 21, 1861.

The Lord Bishop of Toronto will hold his next General Ordination in the Cathedral Church of St. James, Toronto, on Sunday, the 13th Oct. Candidates for Holy Orders, whether of Deacon or Priest, are requested to communicate, without delay, to the Venerable the Archdeacon of York, Cobourg, (the Rev. H. J. Grasett being absent from the country,) their intention to offer themselves; and they are required to be present for Examination in the Library of St. James' Parochial School House, Toronto, on Wednesday, October 9th, at nine o'clock, A.M., with the usual Testimonials and St. Quis attested in the ordinary manner.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

We are requested to call the attention of our readers, and more especially of the Clergy, to the circumstance that in addition to the Scholarships announced in the advertisement, as open for competition to atriculants at Trinity College, in October next, the Cameron Scholarship, lately held by Mr. Girins, now Allan Scholar, will also be vacant. The value of the Scholarship is £25 per annum, it is tenable for three years, and is restricted to the sons of Clergymen.

Drummondville, Sept., 1861.

ANGLICAN SYNOD, DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

(Published at the request of some Subscribers.)

Wednesday, June 26.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Rev. Dr. BEAVEN moved the following resolution:—

"That the Synod desires to express its deep sympathy with our venerable Bishop in his late trials and difficulties in consequence of the imputations cast upon the teachings of Trinity College, and with the Rev. Provost, as the exponent of that teaching, and declares its continued confidence in the College and its administration." (Cheers)

Dr. BEAVEN said he was unwilling to take up the time of the Synod with any lengthened discourse on the subject, especially as he observed that his proposition was so well received. At the same time a few remarks might be necessary to remove scruples and difficulties in the minds of some present, who, he was sure, desired to be well-affected members of the Church of England, and yet had difficulties with regard to a full concurrence in the language of the motion which he had submitted. His attention had been drawn to the subject ever since it had been brought before the public, and he need not say that his feeling had been with his lordship and with the College, throughout the whole controversy. But his attention had been drawn more especially to the subject, when his Lordship, in addressing the Synod assembled in St. James' Church, referred to the continued difficulties connected with the College, and stated how deeply he felt the want of adequate support in the great work in which he was engaged. (Hear, hear.) He then felt that they were bound to respond to the feeling expressed by his lordship, and to show that his lordship was not alone in the work. (Cheers.) At the same time he had thought it well to introduce into his motion the name of another person, the Rev. Provost, the head of Trinity College. He had had the pleasure of the intimate acquaintance, and, he trusted, the friendship of that excellent man, almost ever since the Provost came to this country. He could not deny that at his first coming, he (Dr Beaven) did entertain some slight prejudice against him, but every hour of his
