YEAR BOOK AND ALMANAC OF CANADA FOR 1868.

THE Year Book for 1863, edited by ARTHUR HAR-VEY, E.q., F.S.S., (London), of the Finance Department, Ottawa, is now in the press, and will shortly be published.

The Year Rook for 1863, if possible, will be made more perior; than that of 1897.

No figur or statement will be inserted which is not directly derived from, or verified at official sources. The object of the Publishers is to make the Year Books as absolutely correct as official records can be considered, or a reliance and guide for political and to "ross nen."

The Year Book will contain, besides the usual Almanae Department, Political, Vital and Trade statistics, Tariffs, Excise and Stamp Duties, and a Record all Public Events of Interest. In other words, it will be a Hand-Book of Common Information, for all the Provinces within the Dominion, 1850 for Newtoundland, Prince Edward's Island, and the West Indies.

The Fear Book, containing this most elaborate compilation, is sold at a nominal price, in order to turnish a Universal Medium of Communication throughout the Dominion.

From the very large circulation which we are enabled to guarantee in all parts of the Dominion, the Year Book offers the greatest advantage to advertisers. No other publication has a circulation so general.

For Merchants and Manufacturers who desire to extend their rolations with the Maritime Provinces it offers particular advantages as an advertising medium.

Also, f r Re all Dealers, ashaving a large circulation in this and other cities, as well as in the country.

All advertisements inserted in all editions, for one year, at a fixed price per square, halt-square, or quarter-square Advertisements that do not reach in time for the first edition of this year, will be inserted in the first edition of the following year.

All orders for the Year Book, from one copy and upwards, accompanied with the money, will be carefully executed by mail, in the order received

An moneys sent by post, of which proof of maning is furnished, will be at our risk. Postage or Bill Stamps may be sent for all orders under one dollar.

tamps may be sent for in.

All setters must be pre-paid
