

“Towards the middle of August I wrote to you asking a particular intention in your prayers, so that I might obtain a grace, most ardently desired. Glory be to the Precious Blood of Jesus ! I have obtained more than I dared hope for.”

“I have promised publicly to thank the Blood of Jesus, by means of insertion in The Voice of the Precious Blood, for the favor of a situation having been given to a young man after a Novena had been made at the Monastery of the Precious Blood at St-Hyacinthe.

I rely on your kindness to make known, through the pages of your journal, the amount of gratitude and love which I owe to Jesus Crucified and to His holy Mother for their having answered our prayers in so providential a manner.”

“A cousin of mine somewhat advanced in age, had broken his leg on his arrival from a long journey. In despair at what had occurred, he did not know to whom to have recourse. How could we speak of prayer to one who had abandoned God and all practices of religion ? One day, however, I ventured to ask him if he would not ask his cure of the Precious Blood. Out of deference to me he consented and, on the fourth day of the Novena, our poor lame man could walk, though previously he could not even rise at all. All praise be to the Precious Blood ! Other favors were likewise obtained by the same person, always after having invoked the Adorable Blood.”
