Words of the Wise.

ONE of the greatest blessings you can enjoy is a tender, honest, and enlightened conscience.

LIVE by the day: you will have daily trials, and strength according. Leave tomorrow to the Lord.

Do not waste far out into the dangerous sea of this world's comfort. Take what the good God provides you, but say of it: 'It passeth away; for indeed it is but a temporary supply for a temporary need.'

It is they who glorify who shall enjoy Him; they who deny themselves who shall not be denied; they who labour on earth who shall rest in heaven.

I FEEL more and more that I must give up my will and my plans, and I think I more and more rejoice to do it. It is a part of my prayer that God will treat me so as to bring me closest to Himself, and most establish me in the health of the soul, so that I may say, 'Who is the health of my countenance and my God.'

GRATITUDE is a means of grace. Many a mortal would be consoled in his mere annoyances could he get a glimpse of the real trouble from which God saves him.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water; He turneth it whithersoever He will.

PUTTING THE CHIEF ON HIS FEET. The Hamilton, Ont., Fire Department, under the training and supervision of Chief A. W. Aitchison, is not excelled in efficiency by that of any other city in the Dominion.

ST. JACOBS OIL, the panacea that comes to the relief of the fireman for rheumatism, burns, etc., served me in my trouble and cured me quickly, completely, and permanently.
