"ST. AUGUSTINE" Sacramental Wine.

The REV. DR. COCHRANE writes:—
BRANTFORD, May 23rd, 1895.

MEASRS. J. S. HAMILTON & CO.
GENTLEMEN,—The St. Augustine Wine used in my own church on sacramental occasions, as well as in many other churches, I have always heard spoken of in the highest terms and is admirably suited for the purpose. Its deservedly high reputation for purity can be relied upon. The fermented grape juice also commends itself to those who prefer that the wine should not be fermented and should have a large and increasing sale in our Presbyterian and other Churches.

WM. COCHRANE.

For the first time in 15 years since settling in St John's Wood, London, Dr. Monro Gibson was prevented by indisposition from occupying his pulpit on a recent Sunday. Happily the illness which was occasioned by overwork, has not proved serious, and Dr. Gibson has already resumed work again.

Rev. John McNeill commenced a twelve days' mission in Cardiff on a recent Sunday, in the evening preaching to an audience of close upon 10,000 persons in Rosebery Hall, said to be the largest congregation ever assembled together in that town. Mr. McNeill has accepted an invitation from the Y.M.C.A. to conduct a mission in Sheffield at the beginning of February.

A BROAD-MINDED DOCTOR.

RELATES SOME EXPERIENCE IN HIS OWN PRACTICE.

Believes in Recommending Any Medicine That he Knows Will Cure His Patients Thinks Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Great Discovery

ARTHUR, PA., April 24th, '95.

Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.

GENTLEMEN,—While it is entirely contrary to the custom of the medical profession to endorse or recommend any of the so called proprietary preparations, I shall, nevertheless, give you an account of some of my wonderful experiences with your preparation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The fact is well known that medical practitioners do not, as a rule, recognize, much less use, preparations of this kind, consequently the body of them have no definite knowledge of their virtue or lack of it, but soundly condemn them all without a trial. Such a course is manifestly absurd and unjust, and I, for one, propose to give my patients the best treatment known to me, for the particular disease with which they are suffering, no matter what it is, where or how obtained. I was first brought to prescribe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills about two years ago, after having seen some remarkable results from their use. Rouben Hoover, now of Reading, Pa., was a prominent contractor and builder. While superintending the work of erecting a large building during cold weather he contracted what was thought to be sciatica, he having first noticed it one evening in not being able to ralse from his bed. After the usual treatment for this disease he failed to improve, but on the contrary grew rapidly worse, the case developing into hemiplegia, or partial paralysis of the entire right side of the body. Electricity, tonics and massage, etc., were all given a trial, but nothing gave any benefit and the paralysis continued. In despair he was compelled to hear his physician announce that his case was hopeless. About that time his wife noticed one of your advertisements and concluded to try your Pink Pills.

J. D. Albright, M.D.

He had given up hope and it required a deal of begging on the part of his wife to persuade him to take them regularly.

He, however, did as she desired, and if great appearances indicate health in this man, one would think he was better than before his paralysis.

"Why," says he, "I began to improve in two days, and in four or five weeks I was entirely well and at work."

Having seen these results I concluded that such a remedy is surely worth a trial at the hands of any physician, and consequently when a short time later I was called upon to treat a lady suffering from palpitation of the heart and great nervous prostration, after the usual remedies failed to relieve, I ordered Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The result was simply astonishing. Her attacks became less frequent and also less in severity, until by their use for a period of only two months, she was the picture of health, rosy-checked and bright-eyed, as well as ever, and she has continued so until to-day, more than one year since she took any medicine. I have found these pills a specific for chorea, or, as more commonly known, St. Vitus' dance, as beneficial results has in all cases marked their use. As a spring tonic any one who, from overwork or nervous strain during a long winter has become pale and languid, the Pink Pills will do wonders in brightening the countenance and in buoying the spirits, bringing roses to the pallid lips and renewing the fountain of youth.

Yours respectfully,
J. D. ALBRIGHT, M.D.
