

Every Methodist School Should Use the New Uniform S. S. Records

A new series of Sunday School Records, for general use in Methodist schools, has been prepared, which embody a number of new and valuable features.

The Class Register provides a place for the scholar's name, age, residence, date of admission, whether member of church or not. Columns are supplied for recording "attendance," "church attendance," "Bibles brought from home," "home study," "verses learned," and "offering." Provision is also made for quarterly and yearly summaries. Altogether the book is the most comprehensive and up-to-date that has ever been issued. Price, 75c. per dozen, postpaid.

Secretary's Record. A Secretary's Record Book has been prepared to harmonize with the Class Register, which gives the fullest information concerning each session of the school. It is substantially bound in cloth, and will last for three years. Price, $3.00 each; by mail, postage 25c. extra.
