CATHOLIC NEWS.

M'lle Dupont, cousin of the President of the French republic, has become a nun.

Bishop Gabriels and Father Edwards of Ogdensburg, N.Y., who have been in Rome for some time, are on their way

Hov. Chauncey M. Depew had an interview with the Pope at Rome. whom he pronounces the most intellectual man he ever met.

Five Catholic missionaries recently left Hamburg for the Cameroons to further assist in the spread of the faith, which is now making rapid head way amongst the natives.

Archbishop Ireland has been invited by the Jesuit Fathers in charge of the church of the Sacred Heart, Chicago, to deliver a lecture on education. He has accepted and the date will soon be announced.

There is trouble in the A. P. A. camp of Fall River, Mass. One of its members was expelled from the order, because he dared support a Catholic for a political office,

The Indian papers announce the disappearance of one of the last vestiges of the Goanese schism. The little group of Christians at Duwa, in Ceylon, who for some years had refused to recognize their legitimate pastors have happily made their submission and been received back into communion with the Catholic Church.

Bishop Dunne is not going empty handed to his diocese, for which he will leave Chicago some time during January. The presents made to him on the occasion of his consecration last month amounted to $22 000, of which sum $5,000 was donated by the priests of the Chicago archdiocese, and the remainder by the friends of the new prelate, Mr. Cudahy, the well-known Chicago Catholic, giving $5,000 as his personal donation. As the Dallas diocese is financially a poor one, these gifts come in very handy for the good bishop who will, doubtless, expend the most of the money on his flock.

Mr. Howard Mortimer, a student at the Princeton Theological Seminary, called upon Father Young, of the Paulist Fathers, recently, and told him that he desired to espouse the Catholic faith and enter the order. Father Young is a graduate of Princeton College, having been a member of the class of '48. Mr. Mortimer said that he had had the subject under consideration for some time and had concluded that this was the only course for him to take. He also said that another student was desirous of following his example.

Mgr. Casenova, the exiled Archbishop of Guatemala, is on his way to Costa Rica. He was driven from his See in Guatemala by the Masonic government of that state in 1887, because he objected to the irreligious text books which were being forced upon the pupils of the public schools. Despairing of seeing him soon restored to his Archbishopric, the Holy Father has directed him to take charge of the government of the church in Costa Rica, and the Archbishop hopes while residing there to be able also to succor and direct his clergy and people in the neighboring state of Guatemala

William T. Coleman's will, filed Decomber 7, at San Francisco, made provision for the distribution of his estate in case his sons should die childless. In that event one tenth of the estate, or $60,000, goes to the president, and board of directors of the St. Louis University, where Mr. Coleman received his education. With this money the directors are enjoined to create a fund, to be styled the "Carrell" fund, or the "Coleman-Carrell" fund, to be devoted to the education of poor orphan boys. The fund is so named in remembrance of Father George A. Carrell, S. J., to whom the testator was indebted for much kindness and consideration during his early struggles in life.

A quiet but romantic royal wedding was colebrated in Genoa by Archbishop Reggio. The bride was the the grand-daughter both of the Emperor of Austria and the Prince Regent of Bavaria. The contracting parties were Baron Secfried, son of Chamberlain Secfried von Baltenheim, a handsome young subaltern in the Royal Guards, and Princess Elizabeth, daughter of Prince Leopold, inspector of the Bavarian Army. At first the relatives of the bride firmly declined to give consent, and Baron Secfried was sent in disgrace to Metz, but during the summer Princess Elizabeth pleaded his cause so effectively with the Emperor at Ischl that his approbation was won. Both her parents, as well as Princess Gisela, were present at the ceremony.
