A REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION AMERICAN ART TASTE.

Prospectus for 1875... Eighth Year.

ТПЕ ALDINE.

THE JOURNAL OF AMERICA. Issued Monthly.

"A Magnificent Conception-Wonderfully Carried out."

The necessity for a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has then yet been made to meet the want. The successity failures which so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of higher art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it well shown, the public at once rallied with entity shown, the support, and the result was a part artistic and commercial triumph—The A otne.

The Aldine, while issued with all the regularity has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, ascompared with rivals of a similar class, The Aldine is a unique and original conception—aloue and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of neonplete volume can not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engavings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chromo besides!

The national feature of The Aldine must be also and or the proper and engavings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chromo besides!

for ten times its cost; anothen, there is the chromo besides!

The national feature of The Aldine must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While The Aldine is a strictly American institution, it does not contine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate only on the grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the patrons of The Aldine as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to speciments from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtain able from home or foerign sources.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait, in all colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

"MAN'S UNSELFISH FRIEND"

will be welcome in every home. Everbody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable mesence of the animal itself. The Rev T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it. Although so matural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to the ALDINE for 1875 is constituted a member and entitled to all the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all The Aldine pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,009 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500, are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE ALDINE This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.
