

The Best Cascara Bark

And Every Property of It

The highest grade of naturally matured Bark of the Rhamnus Prushiana with the bitter principle and all other natural resins retained. Made palatable by disguising, but not eliminating the bitter.

Not reinforced in any way, yet full minim for grain strength.

That's Kasagra!

and that's why Kasagra, after nearly twenty years, continues to be the reliable, palatable preparation of Cascara

Kasagra never varies in strength or therapeutic activity.
