

The following changes were made in that portion of our field. The Congregations of Binbrook and Saltfleet to form one pastoral charge, and the newly erected Congregation of Blackheath, with the Congregations of Eastern Seneca and Caistor, to form another charge. The following are the Commissioners to the coming Assembly, namely: by rotation, Messrs. Fraser, Chrystal and Fenton; by ballot, Messrs. Fletcher, McBean, McColl and McLeod. The Elders elected are Messrs. Hugh Young, Wm. Henderson, John Scott, Robert Laurie, Wm. Brown, Wm. Muir and Dr. Cornfoot.

The Presbytery having sustained as highly satisfactory the trials for ordination of the Rev. W. H. Rennelson, proceeded to his ordination in the evening, in Knox Church. Mr. Murray presided, Mr. Dawson preached, Mr. Black addressed the Minister, and Mr. McLeod the Congregation. The services were deeply impressive. The Church was filled with an attentive audience, and Mr. Rennelson may be congratulated on entering upon his Ministerial life as Pastor of Knox Church, Hamilton, under the most favourable auspices. Mr. McGuire, late of Glenallan and Hollin, in the Presbytery of Guelph, having accepted a call to Jarvis and Walpole, the Presbytery appointed his induction to take place in Jarvis, on the 12th May, at 11.30, a.m. Mr. Wilson to preside, Mr. Rennelson to preach, Mr. Fletcher to address the Minister, and Mr. McColl the congregation.

Mr. Chrystal, of Silver Hill and Lyndoch, having received a call from the Congregation of East Oxford, in the Presbytery of Paris, his Congregation were to be cited to appear for their interests at the Jarvis meeting.

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN EVANGELICAL REVIEW. Edited by Rev. J. Oswald Dykes, D.D., April, 1874. London: J. Nesbit & Co. Toronto: J. Bain.

The April number of this excellent Review contains the following original articles:—

1. Influence of Wycliffe upon Huss and the Bohemian Reformation.
2. The Church and the Synagogue.
3. History of the Vatican Council.
4. The Sermons of Richard Hooker.
5. The Reorganization of the Prussian Evangelical Church.

Also the following reprinted articles:—

1. The Ruling Elder or Presbyter. By the late Dr. Thornwell, of Columbia College, S.C.
2. Calvin and Calvinism. By Rev. W. Graham.

There is also the usual review of current literature, with notices of new books.

Most of the articles are of great value in connection with the history and development of the Church. We are glad to learn that the Review is obtaining a goodly circulation among our Ministers.

It is with regret that we have been obliged to leave out the receipts by Mr. Warden King, Montreal, and also part of the receipts for the Record.
