

We have been asked by a member of the W. A. to correct a statement made in last month's magazine, viz.: that it seemed strange "that all the money collected and energy displayed by the Auxiliary, should go to remote parishes in the North-West." It seems that all the money does not go to the North-West but also to Diocesan Missions and to Algoma. The fact still remains that so much may be done for, and given to outside objects as to practically cripple parochial resources.

On Wednesday evening, May 11th, a joint Confirmation was held in St. George's of candidates from this Parish and from St. Margaret's. The following are the names of those confirmed: Charles Frederick Dean, Edward Carter, William Mackintosh, Gordon Mackenzie, Mrs. Buckle, Maude Brown, Clara Hickingbottom, Blanche Horlock, Jessie Mollington, Florence Spragge, Gertrude Street.

Preachers during the month have been, the Rev. G. F. Davidson, Rev. Ramsay Sparks of Nottingham, England, and Rev. E. C. Cayley.

On Sunday 22nd the Ascension-tide appeal for Missions was read with annotations. This is the annual appeal for our own Domestic Missions which, of course, include Algoma and the North-West.

On Wednesday, 25th inst., a Service of Preparation for Holy Communion was specially held for all those who had lately been confirmed, while at the early morning celebration on Whitsunday they received their first Communion.

The Sewing School on Saturday mornings has closed for the season, and their annual treat and prize giving was held on the Rectory lawn on Friday, 27th May. The children had a very merry tea and romp and then were solemnly drawn up to receive their prizes. The afternoon's entertainment closed with a hearty cheer, led by Miss Ada Cayley, for Miss E. M. Cayley.

The Chancel Guild acknowledge the following contributions for May: Mrs. Robinson, 50c.; Mrs. Burton, 25c.; Mrs. Cayley, 25c.; Miss Gamble, 25c.; Mrs. Morson, 25c.; Mrs. Beatty, 25c.; Mrs. Pringle, 25c.; Mrs. Stratford, 25c.; Mrs. Gosling, 25c.

The Guild has suffered a financial loss in the removal of Mrs. Parsons from the Church, and any new subscribers would be most acceptable.

The thanks of the Guild are due to Mrs. Phillips, Miss Green and Miss Keating for kindly sending flowers for the Church on four occasions. On Trinity Sunday will be used for the first time, a green dossal, on which the Guild members have been at work all winter. The material is satin sheeting, and the embroidery is arranged on it in the form of a frieze.
