SADLIER & CO'S. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A NEW WORK,

EY MES. SADLIER. 1.1

JUST PUBLISHED, "THE BLAKES AND FLANI JUST PUBLISHED, "THE BLAKES AND FLANG-GANS." A Tale illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. Ey Mrs. J. SADLER, Author of "Willy Burke," "New Lights; or, Life in Galway," "Alice Riordan," &c., &e. 12mo., 400 pages, with a fine Engraving; muslin, 38 9d; guilt edge, 55 74d.

Although this Work has only been published a few weeks, the first edition of two thousand copies have already been sold. The Catholic press have been manimous in praise of the Work. We select the following extracts from many notices :--

"In its permanent and corrected form, we wish "The Blakes and Flanigans" a place in every household, and we could not wish an Irish household a better guide, or a more accurate social chart, of the dangers and temptations with which they especially have to combat in this state of society." -American Celt.

"We earnestly hope it may find a place in every Catholic nonschold, and that it may be carefully read by every Catholic father and mother in the Province."- True Witness.

"We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this Work, which, like all Mrs. Sadlier's writings, can be read with interest and profit."-Beltimore Catholic Mirror.

"Mrs. Sadlier has been the successful authoress of several pleasing stories published heretofore, and, we have no doubly, that the Work the Sadliers have just published will add to her reputation."-N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"Independent, however, of the principle which it incul-cates, the story is interesting and well-told, and is of a nature to please persons of all creeds and countries. Like all other Works of the Sadilers, the typographical execution is splet-tial way france. did."- Toronto Mirror.

"We can assert that it is one of the most useful books of the day, and the most pertinent to the eiseninstances in which now placed with regard to religious education."-Toronto Catholic Citizen.

"The accomplished Authoress has put the Catholies o America under a strong obligation by this most excellent Work, the best ever written by her. We wish it to be wide spread.²³-Buffalo Catholic Sentinel.

"The tale is well written and graphically told, and main-tains the high position Mrs. Sadlier has already attained in the world of letters."—Montreed Pilot.

NEW EDITIONS:

The BEST and CHEAPEST CATECHISM for Schools and Families published, is the

" DOCTRINAL AND SPIRITUAL CATECHISM."

⁶⁶ DOCTRINAL AND SPIRITUAL CATECHISM.³⁹ By the Rev. Pere Collot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Saddier. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. This is considered by competent judges as the most com-plete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been officiend to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to me-mory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

The following notice of the Work is from Brownson's Re-view for October, 1855 :--

"The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. The engravings are well executed and selected from the best models. Like all Mrs. Sudiers' translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The Abbe Barthe's Meditations on the Litany of Loretto, also translated by Mrs. Sadlier, greatly enhance the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable Life of the Blessed Virgin which has appeared in this country."

THIS Institution is incorporated with the privilege of a Uni-versity, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the County of Westchester, eleven miles dis-tant from the City of New York and three from Hurlem-very easy of approach at all seasons, either by private con-veyance or by the railway, which lies along the foot of the beautiful lawn in front of the College. The grounds are extensive, and well laid out for College purposes.

The grounds are extensive, and werning out for conege purposes. The fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious, care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the pe-culiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large formits. The students are in three distinct divisions the secultar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the se-nior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play-grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors. The system of government being paternal, the observance of established discipline is obtained by the mild, persuasive, yet firm means of rightly understood parental authority.

Letters from or to students, not known to be from or to pa-

Books, papers, periodicals, are not allowed circulation among the students without having previously been submitted to authority. The students are not allowed to go beyond the college, precincts unless accompanied by their professors or tutors. Visits of students to the city are not sanctioned except for visits of students to the city and the intersuch as have their parents residing in the city; and the inter-ests of the studies, as well as those of the moral training, are tound not to warrant their frequency over once in three months. Even students not having their parents in New York may sometimes be furnished the means of visiting the eity. But for no case of such absence from college will per-mission be granted except at the express wish of the parents or guardians, and for the reasons submitted to the president. There will be a recess of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

at Easter. The regular classical course of instruction embraces the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, and French languages; Re-ligion, Elocution, Poetry, and Rhetoric; Geography, Mitho-logy, and History; Arithmetic, Book-keeping, and Mathema-tics; Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy. There are two semi-annual examinations; the first towards the end of January, the second before the annual commence-ment towards the middle of July. At any time during the year, and especially at the first ex-amination, it any one be found worthy of passing up to a higher class he will be promoted; and such promotion shall be held equivalent to the honors of the class from which he passed up. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are passed up. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and in Mathematics, before the faculty of the University. They must, besides, have given evidences of their progress in the Greek and Latin languages and in literature.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must, for the space of two years, have creditably pursued some liberal and Bearned profession. When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have sons or wards fitted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly. There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are

There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught spelling, reading, writing, the first elements of Eng-lish Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic. The German and Spunish languages are taught, if required, but together with music, drawing, and other similar accom-plishments, form extra charges. Twice a week there is a gratuitous lesson of vocal music for the beginners of the pre-maretory alasses. paratory classes.

The Collegiate, year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the 15th of July, with a public ex-hibition and distribution of premiums.
