serfs ; he was a baron ... After he had recovered his seat and his breath, and had wiped the perspiration from his head, he turned to ma and asked, with an air of national pride, "What do you say to that, me lor 2"," "I say that, had you struck the poorest of my countrymen in that manner, they would either have boxed you into a jelly, or they would have tied you to a sledge until they reached the first town, and you to a sheuge auth they, reached the inst town, and then given you up to a magistrate for an assault." "Oh, as to that, I should soon get away from a ma-gistrate. A little money would soon do that." "Indeed! I can tell you that your whole estate, with a dozen like it, would not buy one of our magistrates." This assertion only caused an incredulous laugh; and a remark from the baron that he could buy any country magistrate in Russia for 50 kopecks (18 6d.) -. All the Year Round.

EVANGELICAL SERMONS. - I heard some startling sermons in my time. Think of a man with cropped hair, grovelling look, no manners, the action of a wood-sawyer, and the tone of a bull, getting up, tern, I'm all the way from : Indianny-ab, where I left my wife'n six children-ah, to come over here and preach to you the Gospel-ahl: I aint got no larnin', an' I don't want any. I'm proud to be as ignorant as my lord and master - ab, an' his disciples an' apostles-ab ! If God wanted me to have larnin' an how a source of the second make affidavit, having heard this exercise-the uhs exploded like a lumberer's when felling an oak-one fine day in the woods, where, from a safe distance on horseback, I beheld the motley crowd that gathers on such occasions. I do not believe, however, the story which my friend James tells of a young preacher who, in the midst of the long prayer before sermon, casting his eye furtively upon his watch on the pulpit-cushion, and seeing that a considerable portion of the customary fifteen minutes remained to be filled, went through every form of petition he had ever heard, including the restoration of the Jews to Palestine and the coming of the millenium; and at last, thinking of an expedient which had sometimes served him in ekeing out an upsatisfactory exhortation exclaimed, " And now, O Lord, I will relate an anecdote!" I repeat I do not believe this story, although it has some features of probability .- Dickcns' All The Year Round.

A very learned and compassionate Judge in Texas on passing sentence on John Jones, who had been convicted of murder, concluded his remarks as follows :-- " The fact is, Jones, that the court did not intend to order you to be executed before next spring but the weather is very cold ; our juil, unfortunately is in a very bad condition ; much of the glass in the windows is broken; the chimneys are in such a dilapidated 'state that no fire can be made to render your apartments comfortable; besides owing to the great number of prisoners, not more than one blanket oan be allowed to each; to sleep sound and com-fortably, therefore, will be out of the question. In consideration of those circumstances, and wishing to lessen your sufferings as much as possible, the court in the exercise of its humanity and compassion, hereby orders you to be executed to morrow morning, as soon after breakfast as may be convenient to the sheriff and agreeable to you."

HOW TO QUARKEL WITH YOUR WIFE .- Wait until she is at her toilet preparatory to going out. She will be sure to ask you if her bonnet is straight. Remark in thinking whether their bonnets are straight, and wind up the remark by saying you never knew but one who had any common sense about her. Wife will ask you who that was. You, with a aigh, reply," Ah I yon never mind." Wife will ask you why you did not marry her then? You say, abstractedly," Ah I why, indeed ?" The climax is reached for this time, and a regular row is sure to follow. :

THE POWER OF THE 'ALMIGHTY DOLLAR.'- The following anecdote was once related by Wendell Phillips :- A dark colored man once went to Portland, Maine, and attended church. He went into a good pew, when the next neighbor to the man who owned it said : ' What do you put a nigger into your pew for ?' ' Nigger ! he's no nigger ; he's a Haytian. Can't help that, he's as black as the ace of clubs. 'Why, sir, he's a correspondent of mine.' 'Can't help that, I tell you, he's black.' But he's worth a million of dollars' 'Is he though-introduce me !' ASSUMPTION COLLEGE; SANDWICH, CANADA WEST:

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can atford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been preafford. AYER'S CATHARTIC FILLS have been pre-pared with the utmost skill which the medical pro-fession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such danger-ous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproof disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By re-moving the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they removed moving the obstructions of the internat organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce the first effect. This is the parformer of medicing only, for when taken by one in nearth they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to discase, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prestrated with bilious complaint : see his bent-up, tering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return ; see his clammy features blossoni into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrufula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could sug-gest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect: see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with limiments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago caten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering laway; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is zone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to east out the ob-structions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. principle into renewed vigor, to east out the ob-structions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again — the roses blossom on her check, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are cating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of child-hood. Is it nothing to do these things ? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age ? And yet they are done around you every day. Hare you the less serious symptoms of these dis-tempers, they are the casier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perse-veringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, danger-ous diseases they cure, which afflict so many mil-lions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old — they must burrow in the brues and in the sea. Price 25 cents ner how -5 hoves for ξ_1 . hons of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old — they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box — 5 boxes for $1. Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERNY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumming have been cured by it and settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its firth symptoms more and more over all his frame. disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nav, it accomits usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accom-plishes more by prevention than cure. The count-less colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have riperied into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irri-tations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home. Authenticated evidence of these facts, with direc-Authenticated evidence of these facts, will direc-tions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Aver's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the carth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. may have before them the midmation it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYEB, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
