

Old World. While justice is thus done to countries whose political and geographical history demand the prominence here given to them, the space devoted to the statistical and descriptive account of Canadian geography marks it out as a distinctively national enterprise. Here the teaching profession, as well as the general public, will be likely to apply those tests which of local knowledge will be sure to suggest in appraising the accuracy and general merit of the work. Having ourselves submitted it to rigid scrutiny, and to many and critical tests in this, as well as in other departments of the book, we would say that he would be a captious critic indeed who failed to form a high opinion of the value of the book, not only as an elaborate educational text-book, but as an important work of reference to the general public who may turn to its pages in search of information on political and industrial matters. The myriad readers of the daily newspapers will, in these days, appreciate what is said in regard to this latter point. The excellent Atlas interleaved with the book adds a further value to it in this respect. To Canadians especially, the admirable maps of the Dominion and the several Provinces will further commend the book to those who will use it as a school manual as well as to those who will consult it as a gazetteer and work of general geographical reference. The publisher, in this new product of his press, has put the coping-stone upon the edifice which his industry and patriotism has built up in the minds of his countrymen to his honour and credit, and we have no doubt that the work will at once take the first place in the educational institutions of the country as a manual of geography in all respects most creditable to the authorship and to the publishing enterprise of our young Dominion.

Also, Recently Published : Price 65c.

Lovell's Intermediate Geography,

81 COLOURED MAPS. 40 ILLUSTRATIONS. 104 PAGES.

Strongly bound in Cloth, Gilt Lettered.

The matter, the Maps, the Printing and Binding in this Geography are superior to any one hitherto published in Canada. On sale at the Bookstores throughout the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, and the West Indies.

For Sale by all Booksellers in the Dominion, or either work by Mail on receipt of the price.

Montreal :—JOHN LOVELL, Publisher.