

And this music swelling grandly
Through the college halls each day,
Is the chorus to the squealing
Of a little piggy's lay.

'Tis no wonder that the Glee Club
Calls a halt so often now,
When you think it's but the echo
Of the mooing of a cow.

Gaelic spoke the protoplasm,
While in French the orang swore,
Still in Hebrew sing mosquitos,
And in German bull-frogs snore.

(To be continued.)

THE MOON—AN EPIC.

Moonlight bright,
Quiet night,
Just the time for
Cats to fight.
Phst! Meow!
What a row!
See that couple at it
Now.

Youth and maid,
Of light afraid
Dodge the moon and
Court the shade.
Very sad
This lass and lad
Should behave so awful
Bad.

Frogs delight,
Late at night,
To bask beneath the
Moon's pale light.
Hear them drone
"Home Sweet Home"
In their mellow bari-
Tone.

Solemn owls,
Cheeky fowls,
Make night hideous
With their howls—
"To whoo! To whoo!!"
What's the matter with you?"
Think they're smart these chickens
Do.

East gets red
Moon in dread
Thinks it's time to Go to bed;
Says "Good Night,"
Drops from sight,
Leaves the world in broad day-
Light.

It may be gratifying to our readers to know that the fellow who wrote this thing has been caught. The doctor is afraid that it is chronic, but a course in an asylum may do wonders.

LEARN EVERETT SHORTHAND.

- 1.—Because it is particularly adapted to College work, having been invented by that distinguished British Scientist, Prof. Everett, of Queen's College, Belfast, who thoroughly understands what a College student requires.
- 2.—It is the briefest legible system extant.
- 3.—It is simplicity itself, easy to write, easy to learn and easy to read.
- 4.—Hardly any grammalogues, while in Pitmanic systems these are counted by the thousand.
- 5.—Vowels are indicated even in the briefest reporting, therefore unfamiliar words in Greek or Latin can be written at speed and read afterwards—a feature which no other system can boast of.
- 6.—No one who has mastered its principles has given it up for another system, while numbers have abandoned the Pitman systems and use Everett's.
- 7.—No need of a teacher, simply procure a text book and learn the system yourself during the holidays.
