

a certificate of partnership, they should have corrected it by causing a new certificate to be registered. Not having done so, they invited just such an action as this. The dismissal, then, will be without costs.

CORRECTION.

On p. 513 ante, the name of the case reported should be MILLIGAN V. TORONTO R. W. Co.
