NEW AWARDS PROGRAMME

This fall the Institute is introducing a new Awards Programme. Funds will be made available for both scholars and non-academics to enter or re-enter the field of international peace and security studies. This Awards Programme is intended to:

 Promote Canadian expertise in the field of peace and security, specifically in the areas of disarmament, defence, arms control and conflict resolution; and,
Provide opportunities for Canadians to study abroad in the centres of expertise of their choice (subject to the approval of the Institute).

Applicants must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents and hold a first University degree or, in the case of nonacademics, have equivalent experience or demonstrated ability.

The Institute has set aside $120,000 to award two fellowships, valued at a maximum of $25,000 each; and five scholarships, valued at up to $14,000 each. Decisions on the precise amount of each award and the number of awards in each category will be made by an independent selection committee.

The Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) will act as agent on behalf of the Institute. The deadline for applications for the academic year beginning September 1987 is 1 February 1987, but note that the award will be made conditional to acceptance by the chosen institution.
