

ANNEX

and the Commission shall consult or investigate, as appropriate, from time to time, the project countries with a view to the implementation of the Agreement.

10. The production and distribution of goods and services shall be governed by the provisions of the Agreement, subject to the special provisions for co-production in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement and the relevant laws of Canada and New Zealand. The Commission shall ensure that the Agreement is applied in a manner which is consistent with the objectives of the Agreement.

11. In order to qualify for the benefits of this Agreement, co-production must be undertaken by producers who have good technical, managerial, financial and marketing and recognized professional qualifications, experience and to ensure that the production of the goods or services within the product of the two countries may not from time to time be significantly reduced.

12. The Commission shall ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries.

13. The Commission shall ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries.

14. The Commission shall ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries.

15. The Commission shall ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries. The Commission shall also ensure that the workers in the project countries are treated in accordance with the relevant laws of the project countries.