CANADIAN GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND SERVICES IN CANADA

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE (Ottawa)

Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) is the Canadian federal government department most directly responsible for trade development. The InfoEx Centre is the first contact point for advice on how to start exporting; it provides information on export-related programs and services; helps find fast answers to export problems; acts as the entry point to DFAIT's trade information network; and provides interested companies with copies of specialized export publications.

Latin America and Caribbean Trade Division promotes trade with Mexico. There are several trade commissioners at the Embassy of Canada in Mexico City and there is a satellite office in Monterrey. Trade commissioners can provide a range of services, including introducing Canadian companies to potential customers in Mexico, advising on marketing channels, assisting those wishing to participate in trade fairs, helping identify suitable Mexican firms to act as agents, and compiling credit and business information on potential foreign customers.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTRES

International Trade Centres have been established across the country as a first point of contact to support the exporting efforts of Canadian firms. Co-located with the regional offices of Industry Canada, the centres operate under the guidance of DFAIT and all have resident trade commissioners. They help companies determine whether or not they are ready to export, assist firms with marketing research and market planning, provide access to government programs designed to promote exports, and arrange for assistance from the Trade Development Division in Ottawa and trade officers abroad.
