The Government of Canada and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics agree that a Joint Fisheries Consultative Commission would provide an appropriate forum for bilateral consultations to facilitate the implementation of this Agreement, including the consultations provided for under this Article and Articles I, II, IV and VII. They undertake to review the terms of their Agreement of December 22, 1975, with a view to adapting to these purposes the Commission established thereunder.

It may be terminated by either Party at the conclusion of any six year period from the date of its entry into force, provided that notice of termination is given not less than twelve months before the expiry of such period.

ARTICLE VIII
