

should not be shown. The horses for which this entrance fee has been paid, may be removed at night to be returned in the morning. In Class 2, no animal will be accepted as thoroughbred unless actually registered in the new Nova Scotia Herd Book Register, or certified by the Executive Committee of the Board of Agriculture as duly qualified for entry.

7. Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Grains, Agricultural implements, and manufactures of all kinds must be entered on or before Saturday, September 4th, three weeks preceeding the show, and the age of each animal should be stated in years and months, at the date of exhibition; the precise date of the birth to be given when necessary.

8. Plants, flowers, Roots, Vegetables, and articles not elsewhere enumerated, may be entered up to Saturday, Sept. 18th, one clear week preceeding the show.

9. Exhibitors of bulky articles, requiring extensive accommodation, must communicate with the Secretary on before Monday, Sept. 13th, stating what space they will require, in order that there may be time for the Committee to make the requisite arrangements.

10. Exhibitors will, in every case, give the necessary personal attention to whatever they exhibit. Necessary attendants upon live stock, and workmen actually required to attend to machinery, will be furnished with admission tickets (price 25 cents) with their names written upon them, which tickets will be good at the Exhibition Gate only, during the show, such tickets to be obtained from the Secretary, by personal application.

11. All articles for competition shall be the production or manufacture of the exhibitor, except where otherwise mentioned. Field produce must be the growth of 1880, and all live stock must have been reared in the Province, and owned by the exhibitor not less than three months prior to the exhibition, except such stock as are kept for breeding purposes, which may have been imported, but must have been owned by the exhibitor three months, as above, and other stock, which must have been in the Province and owned by the exhibitor for at least one year previous to the time of the Exhibition.

12. Articles from other countries, and especially from other provinces of the Dominion, are solicited, but not for competition. The Committee will have the power of granting a limited number of honorary certificates for such articles.

13. All expenses incurred for the conveyance of articles or animals to and from Kentville, placing them in the exhibition, and maintaining them while there, shall be borne by the exhibitors, who must likewise undertake all risks of loss or damage. Articles must, in every case, be delivered and unpacked, free of expense to the committee.

14. Each exhibitor will receive, from the Secretary, an entry ticket for every article to be exhibited by him, and he is required to affix such ticket upon the article or animal which he exhibits, or upon the stalls.

15. When there are fewer competitors in any section than the number of stalls, the articles exhibited are not of superior
