fired another right a-head of her, which the returned. and furled her Main-fail to make Room for her Small-Arms to play, and prepared to engage us. We hailed them when we were near enough to them, but they returned no Answer. I ordered a Six Pounder to be fired upon them, and continued hailing. Soon after coming up close to her, she presented her Head right upon our Starboard, made one half Turn to the Southward, in order to present us her Larboard, and gave us her whole Broadfide, be fides Small-Arms, while we continued hailing without Answer. I returned immediately a Broadside, and the Fight lasted two Hours and a Half; after which some of them hailed us in English, that they would not fire any longer. I ordered them to strike, and sent my Lieutenant on board, who brought me the Captain of the Brigantine, and his Papers, whereby I presently discovered it to be the St. Francis Brigantine, of about One Hundred and Twenty Tons, mounting Ten Guns, and four Swivels, having fixty Men on board, including thirty Soldiers; that she had been laden at Quebec with Arms, Ammunition, Cloathing, and Provisions for the Indians, and had been fitted out to convoy the Schooner aforesaid, which had made her Escape during the Engagement, and was also laden with the like F.ffects.

I have brought the Brigantine to this Port, where she has been condemned by a Court of Admiralty, for carrying on a prohibited Trade: Here is annexed a Copy of the Sentence pronounced by the said Court; your Excellencies will be pleased to peruse it.

We had two Men killed and one wounded, during the Fight. On board the Brigantine were fix killed, and seven wounded. The Commander of the Brigantine, saith she is a King's Ship: Though he has no Commission from the Crown, only an Order from the Governor of Canada, to command the said Vessel, and to convoy the Schooner to the River St. John; where, after having unladen the Ammunition, and the Presents destined for the Indians, she was to return to Quebes, there to be disarmed.
