The Virtuous Orphan: Or, the Life of Marianne, Countess of . In four neat Pocket Volumes. Translated from the French, 10 s. — The agreeable Variety of affecting Incidents which compose this entertaining History, must delight every intelligent Reader, whilst the Reflections, which are the natural Language of the Heart, have an apparent Tendency to improve the Mind, and insensibly instil a Love of Virtue.

Delightful Task! to rear the tender Thought,
To teach the Young Ideas how to st o t!
To pour the fresh Instruction o'er the Mind!
To breathe th' inspiring Spirit, and to plant
The generous Purpose in the glowing Breast.
