HAMILTON WOMAN MURDERED BY HER HUSBAND FROM WHOM SHE SEPARATED TWO YEARS AGO

Thomas Riley Rushed Into Room in Boarding House and Killed His Wife While Their Daughter Looked On—Mrs. Riley Had Been Living in Toronto.

HAMILTON, Jan. 30.—(Special)—One of the most fiendish outrages ever perpetrated in this city occurred this evening at 923, when Thomas Riley rushed into his wife's boarding house at 48 North Bay street, drew a revolver from his pocket and shot her thru the heart. He then grabbed her by the throat and choked her. Mrs. Riley, who was sitting on a chair in the front room, jumped up and ran into the hall, where she swooned and died before medical assistance could be secured.

In the room with her were Mrs. R. Duffey, the boarding house keeper, Sandy Duffey, her son, and Annie Riley, a four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Riley.

About 10 minutes before the murder took place, Riley went to the house, but was refused admittance. Charlie Duffey, a son of Mrs. Duffey, who was leaving the house, was asked by Riley to get his suit case, which Mrs. Riley had in her possession. Duffey returned to the house and got the suit case and then went down town.

Rushed into Room.
When about 10 minutes had elapsed, Riley rushed into the house and into the front room where his wife was seated on a chair near the door, which Sandy Duffey was lying, and drew the revolver and fired one shot which struck his wife in the left side just below the heart. He then made a spring and grabbed her around the neck and proceeded to choke her. Sandy Duffey grabbed him and knocked the revolver out of his hand and then grappled with him and made him release his hold on Mrs. Riley's neck. Mrs. Riley then got out of the chair and ran thru the kitchen to the front hall, screaming, "Oh God, I have been shot."

Just as she reached the front door, she sank to the floor and died about ten minutes afterwards and before medical assistance could be secured. In the meantime, Sandy Duffey scuffled with the accused and held him party under a bed until the police arrived. Riley threatened several times to clean up the house, but did not succeed in doing any further harm, as he was securely held by Duffey.

William Lang, who was passing at the time, heard the shot fired, and ran to the corner of King and James streets, where he informed Constable Taxley of what had happened. The constable immediately notified headquarters of the occurrence and then ran to the scene of the crime, which is six blocks away, and placed Riley under arrest.

A few minutes later the patrol arrived with Deputy Chief Whately, who then summoned Coroner Anderson and Dr. Nicholson, but when they arrived life was extinct.

Riley was then taken to police headquarters and the body of his wife to the morgue.

Lived Apart.
It seems that there has existed much hard feeling between the wife, who is only 32, and the husband, since their marriage over 16 years ago, and one year ago Mrs. Riley left him and went to Toronto, where she worked in a restaurant until last October, when she returned to this city and went to board with Mrs. Duffey.

The accused has since that time come around the house trying to per-

TURKS WILLING TO PAVE WAY TO PEACE

Warlike Sentiment Absent in Reply to Powers, Intimating Readiness to Surrender the Major Portion of Adrianople—Issue of Peace or War Still in Balance.

The curtain may rise on the second act of the Balkan war next Monday. The allies denounced the armistice at 7 o'clock tonight, and if events take the prescribed course, the bombardment of Adrianople will follow after an interval of four days. Indeed, the bombardment has been scheduled for 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Yet even at this eleventh hour, war is in no wise assured. Only a few hours before the allies proclaimed their momentous decision, the Ottoman Government presented its reply to the joint note of the powers of Jan. 15. Never has a diplomatic problem taken such swift and surprising changes as these negotiations for peace. The young Turks who seized the government with shouts of defiance, have undergone a marvelous transformation. Instead of drawing the battle line at the question of surrendering Adrianople, they offer a compromise which comes so near meeting the Bulgarian demands, that a settlement should not be impossible, and they leave the Aegean Islands to the disposition of the powers. The difference between what Constantinople is ready to give and what Bulgaria is ready to accept, has been reduced to such small proportions that even some of the Balkan delegates believe a compromise may yet be found.

Constantinople now asks simply the retention of that section of the Adriatic where the holy shrines are situated. Bulgaria always meant to leave the mosques and shrines to Turkey, and even to confer the right of extraterritoriality, thus giving them something of the status of the Vatican in Rome. The vital difference between the two nations amount merely to Turkey's demanding the shrines and the sections surrounding them.

The Thracian frontier line, therefore, with the exception of the Town of Adrianople has been practically agreed to, as Turkey is ready to leave to the powers the disposition of the land on the right bank of the Maritza River, which conditions, as is known, the allies are satisfied to accept. The question of the Aegean Islands also has practically been solved, as the Porte is disposed to leave their settlement to the powers.

Dr. Danef, head of the Bulgarian delegation, said with reference to Turkey's reply: "It is not of a character to form the basis for fresh negotiations."

This, however, is simply a public statement, possibly for the purpose of exercising pressure on Constantinople. A majority of the allies apparently trust that a compromise will be reached.

UNIONISTS CONCEDE ELECTION OF NATIONALIST IN LONDONDERRY

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press).—The by-election in Londonderry today aroused exceptional interest, because of the home rule question. The seat was made vacant by the death of the Duke of Abercorn and the succession of the Marquis of Hamilton to his father's place in the house of lords. The Marquis of Hamilton won the seat for the Unionists in the last election by 105 votes.

The candidates in the election today were Col. Pakenham, Unionist, and David Hogg, Nationalist. At a late hour the figures of the polling were not available, but the Unionists conceded victory to the Nationalist candidate.

LORDS REJECT HOME RULE BY LARGE MAJORITY, AS EXPECTED

DRAMATIC TOUCH WAS LACKING

Speeches Aroused Little Interest, Altho Peers and Peeresses Mustered in Force For the Occasion—Inability to Prevent Measure Becoming Law Referred to by Earl of Halsbury.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(Can. Press).—After a four days' discussion the house of lords tonight rejected the home rule bill 228 to 69. The result was a foregone conclusion.

The speeches aroused little interest because, as the Earl of Halsbury pointed out, the position of the house was now that of an ordinary debating club—the peers could express their views and reject the bill, but they could not prevent it from becoming law.

Nevertheless, the rarest muster of peers since the fateful evening they passed the bill and belated peeresses thronged the side galleries. Lord Lansdowne wound up the debate for the opposition; Lord Morley of Blackburn for the government. The scene was altogether lacking in the dramatic excitement which accompanied the lords' rejection of Mr. Gladstone's bill in 1885 by a far larger majority, 319. The attendance of peers was quite slack until a couple of hours before division was taken, and the speeches failed to infuse new life into the well-worn arguments.

Parliamentary Session.
The committee began framing the tentative legislation next Monday and count upon the Democratic caucus of the next house approving its work substantially as the committee reports it.

So far there has been no formal conclusion as to any of the schedules as a whole, though the general policy has been indicated as revising the rates to a reasonably competitive basis, with revenue raising and saving to the consumer as primary factors.

The committee heard over 50 witnesses today and tonight on the sundries schedule of the tariff, and tomorrow the scene will shift to the free list, including agricultural products and miscellaneous tariff items. The testimony on the tariff sundries ranged from birds of paradise to boots and shoes and bituminous coal.

Are You Interested in Furs?
When you become interested in the fur business, you will want to know the member the reputation of the firm in connection with the price. Dineen's price reductions are particularly generous and the furs displayed are from regular stock. Dineen's have been established in Toronto as manufacturing furriers since 1884, and their buyers are particularly competent judges of quality in pelts and skins. The workmanship is famously thorough and careful. Visit the showrooms and buy your own judge of fur values. W. & D. Dineen Company, Limited, 140 Yonge street, corner Temperance.

Charles Frohman's Three Great Stars.
There is probably no manager in America controls three as popular stars as John Drew, Billie Burke and Maud Adams. John Drew will be seen at the Princess Theatre next week. Maud Adams and Billie Burke later in the season.

BOOTH MEMORIAL REACHED FULL AMOUNT

Hundred Thousand Dollar Fund Was Closed Last Night Amid Great Rejoicing by Salvation Army Officers and Associates Who Assisted in Raising Money.

Hope ran high during the closing hours of the campaign which for the past fourteen days was in progress, in aid of the General Booth memorial fund, and when results became known, it may safely be stated that not even the mind of the most optimistic had soared up to the reality of the handsome fund collected.

Previous to the announcement of collections, a dinner was served to the workers at the campaign headquarters, 191 Yonge street, at 6:30 p.m. yesterday. The hall in which the banquet was served was draped with the Salvation Army colors, red, blue and yellow, and with the flags of many nations. Twenty girls in the blue uniform of the association stood ready to serve the different camps, and a uniformed orchestra played the familiar air, "Killarney." "Highland Laddie," and other equally popular officers, commissioned and otherwise, saw that all had an opportunity of enjoying the fine menu laid before them, and when this had been attended to, the supreme moment of the meeting arrived.

When E. Wood, general chairman, rose to address the gathering, he received a long and spontaneous greeting. After a few brief words, he called upon the different captains to announce the result of the labors of themselves and their subordinates. Cheers after the reading of the different summaries and when the grand total of one hundred thousand was declared, enthusiasm burst all bounds, and cheers, clapping and wild mingling of musical and other sounds filled the hall. The different amounts by the different captains were: Capt. Cox, $100; Capt. Dinnick, $445; Capt. Gundy, $1425; Capt. Ivy, $650; Capt. Kitchell, $4965; Capt. Roden, $481; Capt. Garrett, $15; Capt. Lane, $905; Capt. Francis, $923; Capt. Smith, $248; Capt. Price and Major, $485; Capt. Lee and Cameron, $1010; Capt. Wynn, $4025; Capt. Potter, $558; Capt. Curtis, $373; Capt. Turner, $2302; Capt. Chandler, $1504.75; Capt. Turner, $1764; citizens committee, $1000; Capt. Guinness, $1000; members of the citizens committee, $1000. Total $100,000.

Enthusiasm again broke forth and to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" the meeting began to disperse, the notes of "O Canada" following the scattering campaigners out to the street and to hear the magnificent returns.

The massed bands then formed and marched downtown. After serenading the different newspaper offices, the parade went to the residences of the chief workers, including Mr. Wood, Mr. Wood, Mr. Bradshaw, Mr. Jamieson and "Commissioner" Warburton, he said: Thank you, thank you, thank you. He hoped that later a meeting would be convened at which the general would thank them himself.

Enthusiasm again broke forth and to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" the meeting began to disperse, the notes of "O Canada" following the scattering campaigners out to the street and to hear the magnificent returns.

In Parliamentary Corridors

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special).—The thing that holds back a passage from Sir Thomas Shaughnessy is the naturalization laws of the empire. The minister of justice said yesterday that concurrent legislation under way would make a man naturalized as a British subject in Canada, also a British subject in Great Britain. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, Hon. George Perley and many others who have been naturalized in Canada, are not British subjects outside of Canada. When they are in England and are American citizens! One might say a British subject in one part, a British subject in any other part of the empire. But for this reason: that if those who are British subjects in India were to be recognized as British subjects throughout the empire, we in Canada would have to accept, and so would Australia, and so the mother country, China and Hindoos and negroes from South Africa, as our equals. But these are only British subjects in their own country or in the country in which they are naturalized, and this distinction must be maintained for a long time to come. But the bill now before the imperial parliament and which will come up shortly in Canada and Australia, will permit a naturalized citizen of Canada to have his citizenship extended or recognized in Great Britain, in Australia, or in India. That is, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy will then be a British subject in the mother country as well as in this country, and therefore, if he is a British subject there, could be called by the British lords. In the meantime, the French-Canadian papers are acclaiming the new peer as Lord Shaughnessy.

HAD HARD TIME TO FIGHT FIRE

Great difficulty was experienced by the Toronto fire brigade when fighting a fire which broke out at 90 East Richmond street about 6 o'clock last night. The premises are occupied by the John Underwood Company, carbon makers and ink merchants. Altho the damage has been roughly placed at $500 to the building and $2000 to the contents, it is expected that the loss to the contents will be greater than this amount.

A pedestrian on East Richmond street noticed smoke and fire escaping from the third storey window, and turned in an alarm. Chief Thompson and several downtown sections promptly responded.

It is believed that an overheated furnace caused the fire.

Mr. Ridley, manager of the firm, stated to The World that he did not really know what the damage would amount to, but at any rate the building and stock are well insured.

COMPLETE LIST OF WINNERS IN $5000 PROVERB CONTEST WITH COMMENT BY THE JUDGES

Most Interesting and Attractive Pictorial Competition Ever Conducted by a Canadian Newspaper Ends Today With the Awarding of the Prizes—Torontonians Principal Prize Winners.

After four weeks of careful, conscientious work upon the part of The Toronto World's clerical force, and the judging committee, the winners of The World's great and entertaining contest are announced.

A glance at the winning score, which is published on page 10, will show that the competition was close, the first prize winner missing only sixteen, and the last but twenty-three of the correct answers to the entire series of seventy-five proverb pictures.

It will be of interest to every contestant in The Toronto World's Proverb Contest, which terminates with this announcement, to know that they were one of a great army of thousands and thousands of competitors who participated in one of the most interesting and attractive contests of skill and diligence ever conducted in Canada.

The public in general were deeply interested in the proverb pictures which were published daily, from October 3 until December 16 inclusive, a period of seventy-five days, and the continuous praise which came to The Toronto World daily, during the competition, from hundreds of persons in the city and throughout the Dominion was conclusive evidence of its immense popularity. After the last picture was published contestants were given

FEW MONEYED MEN CONTROL CANADA'S BUSINESS INTERESTS

EMMERSON GIVES A WARNING

Twenty-Three Men Constituted Virtually a Money Trust. He Asserts—Bill to Revise Bank Act Given Second Reading—People With W. F. Maclean, Says Turriff.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—(Special).—The house tonight gave a second reading to Mr. White's bill to revise the Bank Act, and the same was at once referred to the banking and commerce committee. The motion to read the bill a second time was made in which only a few members of the opposition participated. The government was anxious to get the bill into committee, and no reply was made to the criticisms offered by many Liberal members, except in so far as they were dealt with by the finance minister at the conclusion of the debate.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson made a notable speech, calling the attention of the house to the rapid formation of a money trust in Canada, which aimed to control the financial, transportation and industrial resources of the Dominion. He declared that less than 50 men controlled these enterprises, and that 23 men were prominent in the interlocking directorates of 90 great corporations.

People Back Mr. Maclean.
Mr. Emmerson was warmly supported by Mr. Turriff of Assiniboia, who declared that the majority of the people of this country were in hearty accord with the action of the government in the Banking Act by the member for South York (Mr. W. F. Maclean). Mr. Gomboum, Mr. Warrack of Medicine Hat, Dr. Clarke of Red Deer, and other prominent Liberals denounced the bill as reactionary and as a measure which utterly failed to deal with the grievances of the people.

Finance Minister White replied somewhat curtly. He brushed aside as impracticable the proposals for a larger inspection of banks and greater safeguards for depositors. He welcomed any suggestions as to details in his audit scheme, and promised to consider carefully some minor amendments, but it was evident that he does not intend to make any essential change in the bill.

Favors An Enquiry.
Mr. Emmerson, in opening, said that he had listened with great interest to the speech delivered in this debate by the member for South York (W. F. Maclean). With many of the views advanced in that speech he was in full accord. He believed that a money trust commission should be at once appointed to enquire into the banking and currency system of Canada and the financial systems of other countries.

G.N.R. READY TO ENTER ST. KITTS

Will Confer With City on Construction of Bridge to Centre of City.

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 30.—(Special).—A message from E. A. Lances, chairman of the Dominion railway committee, tonight informed the city council that the Canadian Northern Railway had finally decided to build into St. Catharines, and that officials of the company would be here next Wednesday and make a proposition towards the construction of a railway and high-level vehicular bridge across the old canal to the centre of the city.

The council decided to defer for the present the second reading of a by-law to build a $275,000 civic viaduct across the canal to a point in the neighborhood of the G. T. R. depot on the western hill.
