

"Hotel Capilano"

THE homelike comforts and the environment of this hotel make it an ideal place to bring your family in Spring or Summer.

Situate seven miles up the Capilano River, at an altitude of 950 feet, the air is pure and invigorating and the scenery unparalleled.

Mountain climbers desirous of ascending the Lions, or Crown Mountain, make the Hotel Capilano their headquarters; also fishermen and hunters start from here to indulge in the excellent sport to be found amongst the woods and streams.

Altogether the Hotel Capilano is an intimately homelike place to stay and the Mecca for everyone who is fond of the Real-Out-of-Doors. Drive right up to the hotel doors in your car any day or take advantage of the efficient automobile service from the end of the Electric Railway System.

*Rates $2.50 to $3.00 per day
or $16.00 per week.*

*First-class
Diningroom*

Patronize the advertisers and mention "The Northern Cordilleran."